The Author, Playwright and Composer ,1927      The Life of Annie Besant Geoffrey West,1929      The 19th Century

Underworld Stephen Carver,2018-10-30 Underworld n 1 the part of society comprising those who live by organized crime and immorality 2 the mythical abode of the dead under the earth Take a walk on the dark side of the street in this unique exploration of the fears and desires at the heart of the British Empire from the Regency dandy s playground to the grim and gothic labyrinths of the Victorian city Enter a world of gin spinners sneaksman and Covent Garden nuns where bare knuckled boxers slog it out for dozens of rounds children are worth more dead than alive and the Thames holds more bodies than the Ganges This is the Modern Babylon a place of brutal poverty violent crime strong drink pornography and prostitution of low neighborhoods and crooked houses with windows out like broken teeth wraithlike urchins with haunted eyes desperate ruthless and vicious men and the broken remnants of once fine girls a grey bleak infernal place where gaslights fail to pierce the pestilential fog and coppers travel in pairs if they venture there at all Combining the accessibility of a popular history with original research this book brings the denizens of this vanished world once more to life along with the voices of those who sought to exploit imprison or save them or to simply report back from this alien landscape that both fascinated and appalled the politicians the reformers the journalists and above all the storytellers from literary novelists to purveyors of penny dreadfuls Welcome to the 19th century underworld      The Nation and the Athenaeum ,1925      Comparative

Media Law and Ethics Tim Crook,2009-12-16 Providing practical and theoretical resources on media law and ethics for the United Kingdom and United States of America and referencing other legal jurisdictions such as France Japan India China and Saudi Arabia Comparative Media Law and Ethics is suitable for upper undergraduate and postgraduate study and for professionals in the media who need to work internationally The book focuses on the law of the United Kingdom the source of common law which has dominated the English speaking world and on the law of the USA the most powerful cultural economic political and military power in the world Media law and ethics have evolved differently in the US from the UK This book investigates why this is the case Throughout media law and regulation is evaluated in terms of its social and cultural context The book has a companion website at <http://www.ma-radio-gold.ac.uk/cmle> providing complementary resources and updated developments on the topics explored      The American Historical Review John Franklin Jameson, Henry Eldridge Bourne, Robert Livingston Schuyler, 1926 American Historical Review is the oldest scholarly journal of history in the United States and the largest in the world Published by the American Historical Association it covers all areas of historical research

The Nation ,1894      The Hague Conferences and International Politics, 1898-1915 Maartje

Abbenhuis,2018-10-18 Beginning with the extraordinary rescript by Tsar Nicholas II in August 1898 calling the world s governments to a disarmament conference this book charts the history of the two Hague peace conferences of 1899 and 1907 and the third conference of 1915 that was never held using diplomatic correspondence newspaper reports contemporary publications and the papers of internationalist organizations and peace activists Focusing on the international media frenzy that developed around them Maartje Abbenhuis provides a new angle on the conferences Highlighting the conventions that they brought about she demonstrates how The Hague set the tone for international politics in the years leading up to the First World War permeating media reports and shaping the views and activities of key organizations such as the inter parliamentary union the international council of women and the Institut de droit international Institute of International Law Based on extensive archival research in the Netherlands Great Britain Switzerland and the United States alongside contemporary publications in a range of languages this book considers the history of the Hague conferences in a new way and presents a powerful case for the importance of The Hague conferences in shaping twentieth century international politics The Nation and Athenæum ,1925 Continent ,1917 The Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1925

Death and the Victorians Adrian Mackinder,2024-04-04 From spooky stories and real life ghost hunting to shows about murder and serial killers we are fascinated by death and we owe these modern obsessions to the Victorian age Death and the Victorians explores a period in history when the search for the truth about what lies beyond our mortal realm was matched only by the imagination and invention used to find it Walk among London s festering graveyards where the dead were literally rising from the grave Visit the Paris Morgue where thousands flocked to view the spectacle of death every single day Lift the veil on how spirits were invited into the home secret societies taught ways to survive death and the latest science and technology was applied to provide proof of the afterlife Find out why the Victorian era is considered the golden age of the ghost story exemplified by tales from the likes of Charles Dickens Elizabeth Gaskell Oscar Wilde and Henry James Discover how the birth of the popular press nurtured our taste for murder and that Jack the Ripper was actually a work of pure Gothic horror fiction crafted by cynical Victorian newspapermen Death and the Victorians exposes the darker side of the nineteenth century a time when the living were inventing incredible ways to connect with the dead that endure to this day

Clothing, Society and Culture in Nineteenth-Century England, Volume 2 Clare Rose,Vivienne Richmond,2021-12-24 In recent times clothing has come to be seen as a topic worthy of study yet there has been little source material available This three volume edition presents previously unpublished documents which illuminate key developments and issues in clothing in nineteenth century England British Books ,1900 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1898 Appletons' Annual Cyclopaedia and Register of Important Events ,1898 The American Annual Cyclopaedia and Register of Important Events of the Year ... ,1892
