The Lighthouse Keeper Jean Valentine, 2001 North American Women Poets in the 21st Century Lisa

Sewell, Kazim Ali, 2020-02-25 North American Women Poets in the 21st Century Beyond Lyric and Language is an important new addition to the American Poets in the 21st Century series Like the earlier anthologies this volume includes generous selections of poetry by some of the best poets of our time as well as illuminating poetics statements and incisive essays on their work Among the insightful pieces included in this volume are essays by Catherine Cucinella on Marilyn Chin Meg Tyler on Fanny Howe Elline Lipkin on Alice Notley Kamran Javadizadeh on Claudia Rankine and many more A companion web site will present audio of each poet's work Calling Natasha Trethewey Mexico 1969 Why not make a fiction of the mind's fictions I want to say it begins like this the trip a pilgrimage my mother kneeling at the altar of the Black Virgin enthralled light streaming in a window the sun at her back holy water in a bowl she must have touched What's left is palimpsest one memory bleeding into another overwriting it How else to explain what remains The sound of water in a basin I know is white the sun behind her light streaming in her face as if she were already dead blurred as it will become I want to imagine her before the altar rising to meet us my father lifting me toward her outstretched arms What else to make of the mind's slick confabulations What comes back is the sun's dazzle on a pool's surface light filtered through water closing over my head my mother her body between me and the high sun a corona of light around her face Why not call it a vision What I know is this I was drowning and saw a dark Madonna someone pulled me through the water's bright ceiling and I rose initiate from one life into another

Light Me Down: The New & Collected Poems of Jean Valentine Jean Valentine, 2024-04-09 Multi award winner including a National Book Award Jean Valentine published twelve full length collections of poetry during her lifetime and all of them plus an entirely new unpublished manuscript can be found in this masterful collection of her life's work The new poems acknowledge the inevitability of death while tenderly musing on what remains from a world left behind The poems have an intricate balance between the sadness of a life lived and illuminating how the remaining love is steadfast irreversible and abiding even as we transcend from this earth In her later years Jean would write poems on napkins random scraps of paper and even on a typewriter and those close to her would collect these writings and transcribe them into a Word document so they wouldn't be lost Even Jean's therapist transcribed a poem that she spoke in one of their sessions a poem that can be found in this new work Jean was always writing poetry wherever inspiration struck her even through the struggle of her declining health It was Jean's wish that her work landed back at her first home Alice James Books back to her origin point as a writer coming full circle In these last prayerful poems the poet visits loss death and transitional states Full of longing connections and intergenerational knowledge Valentine continues the mystical journey that has carried her through a lifetime devoted to poetry Spirits connect Guides are everywhere as she is leaving all worlds behind Love doesn't disappear but is steadfast and without boundaries A poet of deep tenderness for everything living from a dying cricket to her living and lost friends Valentine is full of gratitude for this world writing This is happiness Old life I m glad all my rubbed life I was found I was written on a wall in air The reader too is full of gratitude for these moving last missives from a great poet Ada Limon states The extraordinary poems of Jean Valentine have often existed in the between spaces the caves the secret rooms of the mind They are gorgeous wonders and curiosities that bring us a new kind of light The Collected Poems of Jean Valentine will no doubt serve as an essential handbook for anyone looking to lean into the knotty questions of human existence

Southern Writers Joseph M. Flora,Amber Vogel,2006-06-21 This new edition of Southern Writers assumes its distinguished predecessor s place as the essential reference on literary artists of the American South Broadly expanded and thoroughly revised it boasts 604 entries nearly double the earlier edition s written by 264 scholars For every figure major and minor from the venerable and canonical to the fresh and innovative a biographical sketch and chronological list of published works provide comprehensive concise up to date information Here in one convenient source are the South s novelists and short story writers poets and dramatists memoirists and essayists journalists scholars and biographers from the colonial period to the twenty first century What constitutes a southern writer is always a matter for debate Editors Joseph M Flora and Amber Vogel have used a generous definition that turns on having a significant connection to the region in either a personal or literary sense New to this volume are younger writers who have emerged in the quarter century since the dictionary s original publication as well as older talents previously unknown or unacknowledged For almost every writer found in the previous edition a new biography has been commissioned Drawn from the very best minds on southern literature and covering the full spectrum of its practitioners Southern Writers is an indispensable reference book for anyone intrigued by the subject
