The Lines Are Coming A About Drawing:

The Lines We Draw Tim Franks, 2025-07-03 A moving journey through a Jewish family history from BBC Newshour presenter Tim Franks Tim Franks spent years as the BBC's Middle East Correspondent covering Israel and the occupied Palestinian territories During that time he was attacked as a self-hating Jew and as an Islamophobe as a tool of competing malign agendas He always tried to respond with a journalist's detached curiosity drawing a clear line between his identity and his work Up to the point that he asked himself is that necessary Beyond the judgments of others what does it mean to be Jewish It was a question he struggled to answer As a child in 1970s Birmingham Tim was a practising Jew with hardly any relations or sense of lineage And so he embarked on a search for his ancestral roots from Constantinople to Curaçao from Amsterdam to the death camps from Lithuania to Downing Street Framing each part of his journey through what he has learned as a journalist Tim discovers ancestors who all speak to a part of the Jewish story there are the refugees and the risk takers the artists rabbis soldiers and revolutionaries there is even a route to the Conservative Party's unlikely leader Benjamin Disraeli This book is a deeply empathetic memoir which encourages us all to confront the lines we draw In searching for what it is to be Jewish Tim discovers what it means to take a stand and write about the world The Lines are Coming
