The Oxfam Handbook of Development and Relief (Volume 1). Oxfam,1995 The Oxfam Handbook of Development and Relief (Volume 3). Oxfam,1995 The Oxfam Handbook of Development and Relief Deborah Eade,Suzanne Williams,1995

This slipcase of three volumes offers an expression of Oxfam's fundamental principles that everyone has the right to an equitable share in the world's resources. It analyzes policy procedure and practice in health human rights emergency relief and agricultural production.

The Oxfam Handbook of Development and Relief (Volume 2). Oxfam,1995 The Oxfam Handbook of Development and Relief Deborah Eade,Oxfam,1995 The Oxfam Handbook of Development & Relief.Vol.2 D. Eade,1995 The Oxfam Handbook of Development and Relief Deborah Eade,Suzanne Williams,1995

This handbook is the product of the experience of Oxfam UK and Ireland in its work in over 70 countries around the world. It offers an expression of Oxfam's fundamental principles that all the people have the right to an equitable share in the world's resources and the right to make decisions about their own development. The denial of such rights is at the heart of poverty and suffering. This reference work analyses policy procedure and practice in such fields as health human rights emergency relief capacity building and agricultural production.

Handbook of Development Policy Studies Gedeon M. Mudacumura,M. Shamsul Haque,2004-04-23

Considering the current challenges to human progress this reference book examines recent theories policies and sectoral priorities as well as various social economic and administrative factors that impact worldwide modernization and development. The book emphasizes the fact that communities must evaluate continuously and adjust their program activities in order to achieve a genuine mode of development. This volume includes case studies demonstrating effective applications of the major operational tools for the layout and execution of major development policies and examines the current trends and future directions in development theories policies and practices in the 21st century.

Striking a Balance Alan Fowler,2013-10-11

At a time of rapid global change development NGOs are having to scale up their impact diversify their activities respond to long term crises and improve their performance on all fronts. Striking a Balance offers both analysis and a practical guide to how NGOs can fulfil these demanding expectations. Written for all those involved with NGO work the book describes the objectives of sustainable people centred development and the process required to achieve it focusing on the five factors which determine effectiveness: suitable organisational design competent leadership and human resources appropriate external relationships mobilisation of high quality finance and the measurement of performance coupled to learning for leverage. In each are the book explains the capacities needed and how they can be assessed and improved. Effectiveness calls for NGOs which retain their non profit values establish the right type of Professionalism manage dilemmas and balance choices to continually reflect the priorities rights and needs of those who give them legitimacy people who are poor and marginalised. This book provides a reference of current and future practices which will help NGOs to do so.

Policy Transfer in Global Perspective Mark Evans,2017-07-05

The world of public policy is becoming increasingly small due to dramatic changes in global communications political and economic institutional structures and to nation states themselves This book evaluates the implications of these changes and challenges for both the study and the practice of policy transfer and provides a unique understanding of the relationship between systemic globalizing forces and the increasing scope and intensity of policy transfer activity It provides an explanation of policy transfer as a process of organizational learning an insight into how and why such processes are studied by policy scientists an evaluation of its use by policy practitioners and the first published collection of policy transfer case studies between developed countries from developed to developing countries and from developing countries
