Perfect Prey Richard Verry, 2018-08-05 Are you being hunted Are you their perfect prey What will you do after the Consortium takes you and sells you at auction What happens after you are sold and transported across the world like cargo Can you imagine your new life as owned property with no hope of ever returning to your old life To suffer and die at the whim of your owner After you read this novel you will never ever stop looking over your shoulder Can you feel the hairs on the back of your neck stand up on end Why did you you turn around when there is no one behind you Is the Consortium hunting you What if you were kidnapped off the streets of your home and sold to a monster at auction Could you survive suffering an untold number of indignities and torment What would you do if they took you What if the bastard that bought you was a part of a larger organization hell bent on stealing people to satisfy their murderous desires If they selected you as their perfect prey what could you do I ll tell you There is nothing you can do except say goodbye to your old life Would you look to escape Would you like to return to your past life What if you learned that your capture is part of a worldwide organization dedicated to keeping you subjugated until they are finished with you and dispose of your body Even if you escaped would you ever be able to trust anyone anywhere How would you feel if you knew that anyone even your friends could be a part of this organization Could you trust them not to orchestrate your recapture and send you back to your owner Avril figured out that there is no escape for her at least in the traditional sense In making a deal with a monster she bought time to figure out another way to regain her freedom A chance that may actually work Will the global community excuse her methods Do the ends justify the means More importantly will God forgive her After you read this novel you will never ever stop looking over your shoulder
