The Law of Human Progress Daniel J. Gervais, 2019

The Contribution of International Fisheries Law to Human Development Nienke van der Burgt, 2012-11-01

The Contribution of International Fisheries Law to Human Development An Analysis of Multilateral and ACP EU Fisheries Instruments examines whether and how legal fisheries instruments encompass a normative consensus on human development Focusing on both multilateral treaties and soft law as well as the ACP EU bilateral fisheries instruments Nienke van der Burgt provides a detailed analysis as to whether these different types of legal instruments reflect the principles of equity poverty eradication and participation which have been identified as key indicators of human development Moreover specific attention is paid to whether explicit reference is made to the small scale fisheries sector and to the role of women Concluding that despite increasing evidence of the potential and significant contribution of fisheries towards human development legal fisheries instruments seem to be struggling with the incorporation of a human development centred approach The Contribution of International Fisheries Law to Human Development is essential reading for all those involved in the fields of international environmental law and sustainable human development

The Mirage of Dignity on the Highways of Human 'Progress' Lukman Harees, 2012-01-16

The Modern Man is hypocritically boasting of unprecedented material progress in a world where inter alia millions daily go to bed hungry die or get killed through unwanted wars and preventable causes live in inhumane conditions vulnerable being exploited with ever widening inequality and might still ruling over right in international relations even in the post UDHR era an indictment on the collective conscience of mankind Besides the flame of materialism has been devouring time tested moral values causing chaos within the basic unit in society the family and relegating Man and his dignity to the level of animals and even manipulating his identity Therefore questions arise Is Moral law fading are political economic systems and institutions like UN failing in realizing the lofty goal of affording due dignity basic rights and social justice humanity deserves Can the bystanders be mere onlookers anymore This book seeks to dispassionately survey the yawning gap between the rhetoric and the ground reality in bringing about dignity and social justice for humanity from bystanders perspective in the light of these questions and underlines the imperative need for moral progress to go hand in hand to make Man assume his due role as the trustee on earth It also exhorts bystanders to close ranks as human dignity champions rights defenders identity protectors against onslaughts from power hungry politicians mighty powers and vested interests This is the need of the times and what our future progeny demands
