Preventive Legal Care Alexander Anolik,1984      Tourism and Travel Industry K. K. Sharma,2000      Law and the Travel Industry Anolik,1984      A Strategic Look at the Travel and Tourism Industry ,1989      Human Trafficking and the Tourism Industry Peter E Tarlow,Andrew Spencer,2025-02-26 Human Trafficking and the Tourism Industry uncovers the tragedy of human trafficking and the history of this phenomenon confronting the dark side of the tourism industry      The Management of Tourism Lesley Pender,Richard Sharpley,2005 This text provides detailed coverage of the breadth of issues involved in the management of tourism businesses It explains and supports fundamental business management aspects whilst examining specific techniques required for the successful management of a variety of tourism businesses      Competition Law in Kenya Brenda Pamela Mey,2017-11-20 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this practical analysis of competition law and its interpretation in the Kenya covers every aspect of the subject the various forms of restrictive agreements and abuse of dominance prohibited by law and the rules on merger control tests of illegality filing obligations administrative investigation and enforcement procedures civil remedies and criminal penalties and raising challenges to administrative decisions Lawyers who handle transnational commercial transactions will appreciate the explanation of fundamental differences in procedure from one legal system to another as well as the international aspects of competition law Throughout the book the treatment emphasizes enforcement with relevant cases analysed where appropriate An informative introductory chapter provides detailed information on the economic legal and historical background including national and international sources scope of application an overview of substantive provisions and main notions and a comprehensive description of the enforcement system including private enforcement The book proceeds to a detailed analysis of substantive prohibitions including cartels and other horizontal agreements vertical restraints the various types of abusive conduct by the dominant firms and the appraisal of concentrations and then goes on to the administrative enforcement of competition law with a focus on the antitrust authorities powers of investigation and the right of defence of suspected companies This part also covers voluntary merger notifications and clearance decisions as well as a description of the judicial review of administrative decisions Its succinct yet scholarly nature as well as the practical quality of the information it provides make this book a valuable time saving tool for business and legal professionals alike Lawyers representing parties with interests in the Kenya will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of international and comparative competition law      Covid-19 and Business Law Adnan Trakic,2021-09-07 Harmonisation of law a term that refers to an effort to bring two different legal traditions in harmony with one another has developed a rather negative connotation over time when mentioned in the context of Shari ah and common law Harmonisation began to be looked at as an attempt by one legal system to impose its values on the other A major reason for that is the lack of understanding of the scope to which these two legal traditions converge One of the principal findings of this book is that Shari ah and common law have many more commonalities than differences As a result the need for harmonisation between the two might have been exaggerated The similarities do not need to be harmonised Rather they need to be acknowledged and appreciated If the differences between Shari ah and common law which undoubtedly exist as evidenced in this book are approached from the position of appreciation for commonalities the ambiance to reconcile the differences would be more conducive to the harmonisation process which would in that case be reflective of compromise This book is intended to help readers better understand Shari ah and common law and aid harmonization efforts when needed
