Bible study guides including Face to Face With Jesus and Focus on Prophecy Book jacket Catch the Fire Michael Wilkinson, Peter Althouse, 2014-03-15 A recent phenomenon of charismatic renewal took place in Toronto in the mid 1990s. Commonly known as the Toronto Blessing and operated by the former Vineyard Church leaders John and Carol Arnott, the renewal was defined by reports of uncontrollable laughter, weeping, speaking in tongues, animal noises, and falling on the floor during worship. Sympathetic Christians embraced these practices, while others who believed that this form of worship bordered on spectacle rejected them. By the end of the 1990s, most people thought that the renewal was over. Yet in the first decade of the twenty-first century, the authors, a sociologist and a theologian, heard rumors that the Toronto church, now known as Catch the Fire, was still holding mass meetings with upwards of 2,000 people in attendance. They also learned of an emerging practice of soaking prayer, an adaptation of Pentecostal charismatic prayer that participants and leaders claim facilitates and expands the reception of divine love in order to give it away in acts of forgiveness, reconciliation, compassion, and benevolence. Soaking, the authors reveal, is a metaphor for practices like resting in the Spirit, prayer for spiritual gifts, healing, prophecy, impartation, and supports overall charismatic spirituality. Attending Catch the Fire conferences, churches, and house meetings in the United States, Canada, Britain, Australia, and New Zealand, Wilkinson and Althouse observed firsthand how people soak, what it means to soak, and why soaking is considered an important practice among charismatics.

Off-Road Disciplines Earl Creps, 2010-12-03 In Off Road Disciplines, Earl Creps reveals that the on-road practices of prayer and Bible reading should be bolstered by the other kinds of encounters with God that occur unexpectedly, complete with the bumps and bruises that happen when you go off road. Becoming an off-road leader requires the cultivation of certain spiritual disciplines that allow the presence of the Holy Spirit to arrange your interior life. Earl Creps explores twelve central spiritual disciplines, six personal and six organizational, that Christian leaders of all ages and denominations need if they are to change themselves and their churches to reach out to the culture around them. Leadership Handbook of Management and Administration James D. Berkley, 2008 This revised and expanded edition of a proven ministry resource contains new contributions from Leith Anderson, Rick Warren, Brian McLaren, Luis Palau, John Ortberg, Aubrey Malphurs, and many others.

Many churches are struggling to connect with their communities and are facing a decline. But there's hope: God is inviting His church to be reborn from the inside out, transforming into a new missional presence that brings life and flourishing to their neighborhoods. If you're a church leader longing to bring your declining church back from the brink, Remissioning Church is your essential companion that outlines the path of inside-out transformation through discipleship while focusing on serving your neighbors and the world. God is inviting your church to a new beginning. Remissioning Church is the guide you need to answer that call and lead your congregation into a future filled with purpose.
