Byron the Shelleys and Keats responding not only to the first generation Romantics led by Wordsworth but more directly to the cultural innovations of the Napoleonic War years Recreating in depth three moments of political crisis and cultural creativity the Peace of Amiens the Regency Crisis and Napoleon's first abdication Cox shows how second generation Romanticism drew on cultural border raids seeking a global culture at a time of global war This book explores how the introduction on the London stage of melodrama in 1803 shaped Romantic drama how Barbauld's prophetic satire Eighteen Hundred and Eleven prepares for the work of the Shelleys and how Hunt's controversial Story of Rimini showed younger writers how to draw on the Italian cultural archive Responding to world war these writers sought to embrace a radically new vision of the world    Romantic Autopsy Arden Hegele,2022 This book considers a moment at the turn of the nineteenth century when literature and medicine seemed embattled in rivalry to find the fields collaborating to develop interpretive analogies that saw literary texts as organic bodies and anatomical features as legible texts    The Cambridge Companion to British Romantic Poetry Maureen N. Facing Loss and Death Peter Hühn, 2016-08-22 Lyric poetry as a temporal art form makes pervasive use of narrative elements in organizing the progressive course of the poetic text This observation justifies the application of the advanced methodology of narratology to the systematic analysis of lyric poems After a concise presentation of this transgeneric approach to poetry the study sets out to demonstrate its practical fruitfulness in detailed analyses of a large number of English and some American poems from the early modern period to the present The narratological approach proves particularly suited to focus on the hitherto widely neglected dimension of sequentiality the dynamic progression of the poetic utterance and its eventful turns which largely constitute the raison d'être of the poem To facilitate comparisons the examples chosen share one special thematic complex the traumatic experience of severe loss the death of a beloved person the imminence of one's own death the death of a revered fellow poet and the loss of a fundamental stabilizing order The function of the poems can be described as facing the traumatic experience in the poetic medium and employing various coping strategies The poems thus possess a therapeutic impetus     The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 5, Romanticism George Alexander Kennedy, 1989 The history of the most hotly debated areas of literary theory including structuralism and deconstruction
