Native American Son Kate Buford, 2010-10-26

The first comprehensive biography of the legendary figure who defined excellence in American sports, Jim Thorpe, arguably the greatest all-around athlete the United States has ever seen. With clarity and a fine eye for detail, Kate Buford traces the pivotal moments of Thorpe's incomparable career, growing up in the tumultuous Indian Territory of Oklahoma, leading the Carlisle Indian Industrial School football team, coached by the renowned Pop Warner, to victories against the country's finest college teams, winning gold medals in the 1912 Olympics pentathlon and decathlon, defining the burgeoning sport of professional football, and helping to create what would become the National Football League, and playing long, often successful and previously unexamined years in professional baseball. But at the same time Buford vividly depicts the difficulties Thorpe faced as a Native American and a Native American celebrity at that early in the twentieth century We also see the infamous loss of his Olympic medals stripped from him because he had previously played professional baseball an event that would haunt Thorpe for the rest of his life We see his struggles with alcoholism and personal misfortune losing his first child and moving from one failed marriage to the next coming to distrust many of the hands extended to him Finally we learn the details of his vigorous advocacy for Native American rights while he chased a Hollywood career and the truth behind the supposed reinstatement of his Olympic record in 1982 Here is the story long overdue and brilliantly told of a complex iconoclastic profoundly talented man whose life encompassed both tragic limitations and truly extraordinary achievements John Henry: An American Legend 50th Anniversary Edition Ezra Jack Keats,2014-12-23 Celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of Caldecott Medalist Ezra Jack Keats s vibrant retelling of the popular African American folk ballad in this beautiful hardcover edition Have you heard the tale John Henry was born with a hammer in his hand He was taller and stronger than anyone around When men started talking about laying railroad tracks across the prairies and deserts and right through the mountains John Henry knew he and his hammer had to be a part of it And drive those spikes he did Then came the day when a challenge was announced Who could dig a tunnel through a mountain faster John Henry and his hammer Or a steam drill The Golden Legend Nadeem Aslam,2017-04-18 When shots ring out on the Grand Trunk Road in the fictional Pakistani city of Zamara Nargis s life begins to crumble around her Soon her husband and fellow architect is dead and under threat from a powerful military intelligence officer she fears that a long hidden truth about her past will be exposed For weeks someone has been broadcasting people s secrets from the minaret of the local mosque and in a country where even the accusation of blasphemy is a currency to be bartered the mysterious broadcasts have struck fear in Christians and Muslims alike A revelatory portrait of the human spirit in The Golden Legend Nadeem Aslam gives us a novel of Pakistan s past and present a story of corruption and resilience of love and terror and of the disguises that are sometimes necessary for survival The Literary Digest International Book Review Clifford Smyth,1923 The American Mercury George Jean Nathan, Henry Louis Mencken,1925 The Mythology of Dogs Gerald Hausman, Loretta Hausman,1997-12-15 Fascinating stories abound in this magnificent treasure trove of dog stories ranging from beloved shaggy dog tales to rare references from 7th century Tibet to the works of John Steinbeck and Rudyard Kipling Includes accounts of the Maltese who hid under the skirt of Mary Queen of Scots at her beheading a Newfoundland who valiantly tried to save his owner as the TITANIC went down and much more Illustrated throughout The Merchant of Power John F.
