Moore's Rural New Yorker, 1922 The Forgotten Songs of the Newfoundland Outports Anna Kearney Guigné, 2016-12-12 In 1951 musician Kenneth Peacock 1922-2000 secured a contract from the National Museum of Canada today the Canadian Museum of History to collect folksongs in Newfoundland As the province had recently joined Confederation the project was deemed a goodwill gesture while at the same time adding to the Museum's meager Anglophone archival collections Between 1951 and 1961 over the course of six field visits Peacock collected 766 songs and melodies from 118 singers in 38 communities later publishing two thirds of this material in a three volume collection Songs of the Newfoundland Outports 1965 As the publication consists of over 1000 pages Outports is considered to be a bible for Newfoundland singers and a valuable resource for researchers However Peacock's treatment of the material by way of tune text collations use of lines and stanzas from unpublished songs has always been somewhat controversial Additionally comparison of the field collection with Outports indicates that although Peacock acquired a range of material his personal preferences frequently guided his publishing agenda To ensure that the songs closely correspond to what the singers presented to Peacock the collection has been prepared by drawing on Peacock's original music and textual notes and his original field recordings The collection is far ranging and eclectic in that it includes British and American broadsides musical hall and vaudeville material alongside country and western songs and local compositions It also highlights the influence of popular media on the Newfoundland song tradition and contextualizes a number of locally composed songs In this sense it provides a key link between what Peacock actually recorded and the material he eventually published As several of the songs have not previously appeared in the standard Newfoundland collections The Forgotten Songs sheds new light on the extent of Peacock's collecting The collection includes 125 songs arranged under 113 titles along with extensive notes on the songs and brief biographies of the 58 singers Thanks to the Research Centre for the Study of Music Media and Place a video of the launch event held in St John's Newfoundland is available at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ghj6E6QiLI> t 21s Published in English

The Breeder's Gazette ,1899 Making American Boys Kenneth B. Kidd,2004 Will boys be boys What are little boys made of Kenneth B Kidd responds to these familiar questions with a thorough review of boy culture in America since the late nineteenth century From the boy work promoted by character building organizations such as Scouting and 4 H to current therapeutic and pop psychological obsessions with children's self esteem Kidd presents the great variety of cultural influences on the changing notion of boyhood Kidd finds that the education and supervision of boys in the United States have been shaped by the collaboration of two seemingly conflictive approaches In 1916 Henry William Gibson a leader of the YMCA created the term boyology which came to refer to professional writing about the biological and social development of boys At the same time the feral tale with its roots in myth and folklore emphasized boys wild nature epitomized by such classic protagonists as Mowgli in The Jungle Books and Huck Finn From the tension between these two perspectives evolved society's perception of what makes a good boy from the responsible son asserting his independence from his father in the late 1800s to the idealized sexually confident and psychologically healthy youth of today The image of the savage child raised by wolves has been tamed and transformed into a model of white middle class masculinity Analyzing icons of boyhood and maleness from Father Flanagan's Boys Town and Max in Where the Wild Things Are to Elin Gonzlez and even Michael Jackson Kidd surveys films psychoanalytic case studies parenting manuals historical accounts of the discoveries of wolf boys and self help books to provide a rigorous history of what it has meant to be an all American boy Kenneth B Kidd is assistant professor of English at the University of Florida and associate director of the Center for Children's Literature and Culture

The Lives of Ingolf Dahl Anthony Linick,2008-09-17 He was considered a musician s musician the most gifted artist in that exciting Southern California world dominated by the great emigr composers the film industry the brilliant soloists and the avant gardists who made Los Angeles a musical capital Ingolf Dahl 1912 1970 was an accomplished composer conductor pianist and a mentor to eminent contemporary figures like Michael Tilson Thomas yet he never achieved the celebrity which others felt he deserved He was not the man his public knew a happily married gentile of Swedish extraction His thirty year marriage to Etta one that seemed the epitome of mutual love and devotion was beset by insoluble problems of identity for Dahl was a closeted homosexual He was also a German whose father was a Jew and his name was not even Ingolf Dahl His decision to disguise all of these truths even from members of his own family lead to fatal distortions in his creative being and public persona Although he numbered many famous figures among his friends from Gracie Fields to Igor Stravinsky and Benny Goodman Dahl always experienced life as an outsider When he died he left behind an extensive body of correspondence and 42 years worth of intimate daily journals Etta Dahl 1905 1970 left many written records as well These sources never made public before and the recollections of many survivors give us a portrait of an intriguingly complex character noble and self absorbed creative and crankish passionate and repressed The Lives of Ingolf Dahl has one other unique source the author himself Anthony Linick was the child of this famous marriage the son whose very existence contributed to the elaborate deformations of fact and persona that so disfigured Dahl s life With love and respect and the historian s devotion to the truth he can tell their whole story at last
