Central America, the West Indies and South America Henry Walter Bates, 1878      Nature London , 1871      Annual Report of the Woman's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society of the West Woman's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society of the West, 1894      Under the Guns: A Woman's Reminiscences of the Civil War Annie Wittenmyer, In preparing this little volume for publication no attempt whatever has been made to record as facts of history the military movements of the army during our recent Civil War The great captains who led the Union forces through the terrible conflict from Fort Sumter to Appomattox have already covered to a large extent the military history of the war My purpose has been simply to bring out in connection with these great military events with which they were so intimately connected a few of the many incidents and heart histories that were crowded into my own life from April 20 1861 to Nov 23 1865 The stories and reminiscences in this book are true to life every one of them They are told just as they occurred without any attempt at literary embellishment and most of them can be substantiated by living witnesses Camps and hospitals were established near my own home in Keokuk Iowa early in April 1861 I began at once my ministrations to the sick in these newly established hospitals and during my daily visits closed the eyes of the first Iowa soldier who died in the war From that time on till the close of the war I was actively engaged all along the lines I was loyally and generously sustained by the women of Iowa was elected by the Iowa Legislature sanitary agent of the State was commissioned by Iowa s grand old war governor Samuel J Kirkwood was furnished by Secretary Stanton with a pass to all parts of the field and government transportation for myself and supplies This official order of Mr Stanton s was supplemented by the following charge It is especially enjoined upon all officers to furnish this lady every facility in carrying out her generous purposes it being shown that she is worthy of great respect I had also the co operation of the Sanitary and Christian Commissions and the chief medical officers and government officials so that I had unusual facilities for doing good I was greatly indebted to General and Mrs Grant for sympathy and aid When Mrs Grant was at her husband s headquarters the place was a haven of rest for me and a welcome always awaited me Indeed Mrs Grant would have joined me in the work but her husband was afraid her strength and sympathies would be overtaxed During these brief visits I learned to appreciate the unselfishness and noble qualities of General Grant and the strength and purity of his character and the loveliness and sterling worth of Mrs Grant and her wifely devotion I was also under great obligations to General John A Logan who was ever ready to aid me When it was almost impossible to get from Bridgeport to Chattanooga he sent me up in a little steamer which he loaded with my supplies Later I met Mr Orson the president of the United Telegraph

Association and General Logan introduced me with such kindly appreciative words that without a hint from either of us he filled out an order allowing me to telegraph free to the end of the war I still have that little order in my possession It is due our brave soldiers that I should say that I felt as safe in their midst as I would have done in my own home even though at times I was the only woman in the midst of an army of twenty thousand fighting men as was the case at Milliken s Bend after the repulse of General Sherman at Haines Bluff Not one impertinent or rude word was ever spoken to me in all those years No purer or grander army ever marched to the music of fife and drum than the army that stood for the defence of our flag and the unity of our government from 1861 to 1865 A woman could walk in their midst in white and a little child would have been as safe as in its mother s arms As I was all along the lines from Vicksburg to Petersburg and was on some of the bloodiest battle fields and as I followed Sherman s army along the fiery lines from Chattanooga to Atlanta I necessarily had to pass through many perils and witness many exciting scenes A few of these stories I have now thought best to publish
