The Light of Buddha Shinto Kuroda,1903 Taixu's 'On the Establishment of the Pure Land in the Human Realm' Charles B. Jones,2021-01-14 In this book Charles B Jones provides the first English language translation of one of the most important texts of modern Chinese Buddhism monk reformer Taixu s On the Establishment of the Pure Land in the Human Realm The essay written in 1926 as part of Taixu s attempt to revive Chinese Buddhism with a Humanistic Buddhist approach incorporates Western thought into a reconstruction of the idea of the Pure Land in the human realm In his commentary on the text Jones argues that it has been widely misunderstood and mischaracterized Jones demonstrates that besides laying out the very modern idea of the Pure Land in the human realm as a slogan for Buddhist engagement with the problems of the modern world the essay does not as commonly assumed discourage practices leading to rebirth in the Pure Land He also shows that the human realm can mean anywhere in Buddhist cosmology that humans reside and that the essay s attempts to reconcile Buddhism with modern science is tentative and incomplete Jones reveals that the essay promotes visions of both paradises and utopias and that Taixu supports his ideas with many lengthy sutra quotations The book concludes with an examination of how Taixu s followers developed the idea of the Pure Land in the human realm into a more coherent and modernized ideal greater constant in religious intuition and experience than the presence of light In spiritual traditions East and West light is not only ubiquitous but something that assumes strikingly similar forms in altogether different historical and cultural settings This study examines light as an aspect of religiously valued experiences and its entailments for mystical theology philosophy politics and religious art The essays in this volume make an important contribution to religious studies by proposing that it is misleading to conceive of religious experience in terms of an irreconcilable dichotomy between universality and cultural construction An esteemed group of contributors representing the study of Asian and Western religious traditions from a range of disciplinary perspectives suggests that attention to various forms of divine radiance shows that there is indeed a range of principles that if not universal are nevertheless very widely occurring and amenable to fruitful comparative inquiry
