The Limits Of Humanitarian Intervention Genocide In Rwanda:

The Limits of Humanitarian Intervention Alan J. Kuperman, 2004-05-13 In 1994 genocide in Rwanda claimed the lives of at least 500 000 Tutsi some three quarters of their population while UN peacekeepers were withdrawn and the rest of the world stood aside Ever since it has been argued that a small military intervention could have prevented most of the killing In The Limits of Humanitarian Intervention Alan J Kuperman exposes such conventional wisdom as myth Combining unprecedented analyses of the genocide s progression and the logistical limitations of humanitarian military intervention Kuperman reaches a startling conclusion even if Western leaders had ordered an intervention as soon as they became aware of a nationwide genocide in Rwanda the intervention forces would have arrived too late to save more than a quarter of the 500 000 Tutsi ultimately killed Serving as a cautionary message about the limits of humanitarian intervention the book s concluding chapters address lessons for the future

The Ethics of Humanitarian Intervention Jonathan Parry, 2024-12-20 Few topics generate as much controversy and debate as armed humanitarian intervention Military force involves death and destruction as well as interfering in other countries domestic affairs But crucially non intervention is also controversial When confronted with humanitarian crises abroad many feel that outsiders are not only justified in using force to halt the abuses but that they must do so The Ethics of Humanitarian Intervention An Introduction offers a guide to these ethical debates In clear and informative style Jonathan Parry explores the following topics The morality of defending others including the responsibility to protect R2P State sovereignty and self determination as barriers to intervention The possibility of consensual intervention Just causes for intervention what kinds of human rights abuses warrant intervention The effectiveness of intervention does it work in practice Alternatives to intervention including aiding rebels economic sanctions and providing aid Whether there is a duty to intervene Examples of intervention including the former Yugoslavia Iraq Liberia and Libya are used to illustrate the ethical dilemmas in question The arguments of important theorists of intervention such as John Stuart Mill Michael Walzer and Jeff McMahan are also explained clearly and critically Each chapter concludes with questions for discussion and reflection The Ethics of Humanitarian Intervention An Introduction is ideal reading for students and researchers in philosophy applied ethics politics and international relations Chapter 3 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license

The Distinction of Peace Catherine Goetze, 2017-05-09 Peacebuilding serves as a catch all term to describe efforts by an array of international organizations nongovernmental organizations and agencies of foreign states to restore or construct a peaceful society in the wake or even in the midst of conflict Despite this variety practitioners consider themselves members of a global profession In The Distinction of Peace Catherine Goetze investigates the genesis of peacebuilding as a professional field of expertise since the 1960s its increasing influence and the ways it reflects global power structures Goetze describes how the peacebuilding field came into being how it defines who belongs to it and who does not and what kind of group culture it has generated Using an innovative methodology she investigates the motivations of individuals who become peacebuilders their professional trajectories and networks and the good peacebuilder as an ideal For many working in peacebuilding in various ways as an aid worker on the ground as a lawyer at the United Nations or as an academic in a think tank has become not merely a livelihood but also a form of participation in world politics As a field peacebuilding has developed techniques for incorporating and training new members yet its internal politics also create the conditions of exclusion that often result in practical failures of the peacebuilding enterprise By providing a critical account of the social mechanisms that make up the peacebuilding field Goetze offers deep insights into the workings of Western domination and global inequalities

Driven from Home David Hollenbach, 2010-04-19 Throughout human history people have been driven from their homes by wars unjust treatment earthquakes and hurricanes The reality of forced migration is not new nor is awareness of the suffering of the displaced a recent discovery The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees estimates that at the end of 2007 there were 67 million persons in the world who had been forcibly displaced from their homes including more than 16 million people who had to flee across an international border for fear of being persecuted due to race religion nationality social group or political opinion Driven from Home advances the discussion on how best to protect and assist the growing number of persons who have been forced from their homes and proposes a human rights framework to guide political and policy responses to forced migration This thought provoking volume brings together contributors from several disciplines including international affairs law ethics economics and theology to advocate for better responses to protect the global community's most vulnerable citizens

A Thousand Hills Stephen Kinzer, 2009-05-04 A Thousand Hills Rwanda's Rebirth and the Man Who Dreamed It is the story of Paul Kagame a refugee who after a generation of exile found his way home Learn about President Kagame who strives to make Rwanda the first middle income country in Africa in a single generation In this adventurous tale learn about Kagame's early fascination with Che Guevara and James Bond his years as an intelligence agent his training in Cuba and the United States the way he built his secret rebel army his bloody rebellion and his outsized ambitions for Rwanda

International Responses to Mass Atrocities in Africa Kurt Mills, 2015-10-16 Since the end of World War II and the founding of the United Nations genocide crimes against humanity and other war crimes mass atrocities have been explicitly illegal When such crimes are committed the international community has an obligation to respond the human rights of the victims outweigh the sovereignty claims of states that engage in or allow such human rights violations This obligation has come to be known as the responsibility to protect Yet parallel to this responsibility two other related responsibilities have developed to prosecute those responsible for the crimes and to provide humanitarian relief to the victims what the author calls the responsibility to palliate Even though this rhetoric of protecting those in need is well used by the international community its application in practice has been erratic at best In International Responses to Mass Atrocities in Africa Kurt Mills develops a typology of responses to mass atrocities investigates the limitations of these responses and calls for such responses to be implemented in a more timely and thoughtful manner Mills considers four cases of international responses to mass atrocities in Rwanda the Democratic Republic of the Congo Uganda and Darfur putting the cases into historical context and analyzing them according to the typology showing how the responses interact Although all are intended to address human suffering they are very different types of actions and accomplish different things over different timescales on different orders of magnitude and by very different types of actors But the critical question is whether they accomplish their objectives in a mutually supportive way and what the trade offs in using one or more of these responses may be By expanding the understanding of international responsibilities Mills provides critical analysis of the possibilities for the international community to respond to humanitarian crises

Making and Unmaking Nations Scott Straus, 2015-03-15 Winner of the Grawmeyer Award for Ideas Improving World Order 2018 Winner of the Joseph Lepgold Prize Winner of the Best Books in Conflict Studies APSA Winner of the Best Book in Human Rights ISA In Making and Unmaking Nations Scott Straus seeks to explain why and how genocide takes place and perhaps more important how it has been avoided in places where it may have seemed likely or even inevitable To solve that puzzle he examines postcolonial Africa analyzing countries in which genocide occurred and where it could have but did not Why have there not been other Rwandas Straus finds that deep rooted ideologies how leaders make their nations shape strategies of violence and are central to what leads to or away from genocide Other critical factors include the dynamics of war the role of restraint and the interaction between national and local actors in the staging of campaigns of large scale violence Grounded in Straus s extensive fieldwork in contemporary Africa the study of major twentieth century cases of genocide and the literature on genocide and political violence Making and Unmaking Nations centers on cogent analyses of three nongenocide cases Cote d'Ivoire Mali and Senegal and two in which genocide took place Rwanda and Sudan Straus s empirical analysis is based in part on an original database of presidential speeches from 1960 to 2005 The book also includes a broad gauge analysis of all major cases of large scale violence in Africa since decolonization Straus s insights into the causes of genocide will inform the study of political violence as well as giving policymakers and nongovernmental organizations valuable tools for the future

Civil Wars in Africa Kelechi A. Kalu, George Klay Kieh Jr., 2022-05-05 Civil Wars in Africa edited by Kelechi A Kalu and George Klay Kieh Jr examines civil conflicts throughout various African countries They argue that civil wars in Africa are by products of the contradictions and crises engendered by the post colonial state building and nation building projects in Africa With few exceptions the post colonial states in Africa have failed to build societies that invest in the material well being of their citizens protect their political civil and other rights promote accountability transparency the rule of law judicial independence and the holding of free and fair elections and promote ethnic pluralism tolerance mutual respect and peaceful co existence among others In addition the contributors show that the post colonial states in Africa have been ruled by corrupt and autocratic leaders who are obsessed with the maintenance of state power as the pathway to ensuring the private accumulation of wealth through sundry illegal means including bribery extortion and theft of public funds In sum this volume addresses how the failure of the post colonial African state to shepherd the process of building democratic societies based on the centrality of human security has led to the erosion of the legitimacy of the state and its custodians Thus once the contradictions and crises reached their crescendo these post colonial societies than implode into civil wars even at the micro level

The Right to be Forgotten Ignacio Cofone, 2020-02-07 Exploring the evolution of the right to be forgotten its challenges and its impact on privacy reputation and online expression this book lays out the current state of the law on the right to be forgotten in Canada and in the international context while addressing the broader theoretical tensions at its core The essays contemplate questions such as How does the right to be forgotten fit into existing legal frameworks How can Canadian courts and policy makers reconcile rights to privacy and rights to access publicly available information Should search engines be regulated purely as commercial actors What is the right s impact on free speech and freedom of the press Together these essays address the questions that legal actors and policy makers must consider as they move forward in shaping this new right through legislation regulations and jurisprudence They address both the difficulties in introducing the right and the long term effects it could have on the protection of online and offline reputation and speech As the question of implementing the right to be forgotten in Canada has been put forward by the Privacy Commissioner and considered by courts Canada is in need of academic literature on the matter a need that with this book we intend to fulfill The questions put forward in this book will thus advance the legal debate in Canada and provide a rich case study for the international legal community

Final Solutions Benjamin A. Valentino, 2013-01-14 Benjamin A Valentino finds that ethnic hatreds or discrimination undemocratic systems of government and dysfunctions in society play a much smaller role in mass killing and genocide than is commonly assumed He shows that the impetus for mass killing usually originates from a relatively small group of powerful leaders and is often carried out without the active support of broader society Mass killing in his view is a brutal political or military strategy designed to accomplish leaders most important objectives counter threats to their power and solve their most difficult problems In order to capture the full scope of mass killing during the twentieth century Valentino does not limit his analysis to violence directed against ethnic groups or to the attempt to destroy victim groups as such as do most previous studies of genocide Rather he defines mass killing broadly as the intentional killing of a massive number of noncombatants using the criteria of 50 000 or more deaths within five years as a quantitative standard Final Solutions focuses on three types of mass killing communist mass killings like the ones carried out in the Soviet Union China and Cambodia ethnic genocides as in Armenia Nazi Germany and Rwanda and counter guerrilla campaigns including the brutal civil war in Guatemala and the Soviet occupation of Afghanistan Valentino closes the book by arguing that attempts to prevent mass killing should focus on disarming and removing from power the leaders and small groups responsible for instigating and organizing the killing Rescuing Human Rights Hurst Hannum,2019-02-14

Focuses on understanding human rights as they really are and their proper role in international affairs Amnesty in the Age of Human Rights Accountability Francesca Lessa,Leigh A. Payne,2012-05-28 This edited volume brings together well established and emerging scholars of transitional justice to discuss the persistence of amnesty in the age of human rights accountability The volume attempts to reframe debates moving beyond the limited approaches of truth versus justice or stability versus accountability in which many of these issues have been cast in the existing scholarship The theoretical and empirical contributions in this book offer new ways of understanding and tackling the enduring persistence of amnesty in the age of accountability In addition to cross national studies the volume encompasses eleven country cases of amnesty for past human rights violations Argentina Brazil Cambodia El Salvador Guatemala Indonesia Rwanda South Africa Spain Uganda and Uruguay The volume goes beyond merely describing these case studies but also considers what we learn from them in terms of overcoming impunity and promoting accountability to contribute to improvements in human rights and democracy The Responsibility to Protect and a Cosmopolitan Approach to Human Protection Samuel James Wyatt,2018-09-21 This book conceptualizes Responsibility to Protect doctrine R2P as part of a global cosmopolitan agenda drawing on the work of Jürgen Habermas and argues that R2P is reflective of a shift towards a more cosmopolitan approach to human protection The author also proposes a framework of analysis that includes a strong legal dimension in order to advance reforms to the international legal political and military structures in order to better prevent humanitarian crises and protect civilians in times of conflict The volume explores the cosmopolitan moral and legal progress that has occurred and could yet occur under R2P as the approach to human protection transitions in the Post Cold War era Military Strategy, Joint Operations, and Airpower Ryan Burke,Michael Fowler,Kevin McCaskey,2018-09-03 An ideal textbook for classes on modern airpower and joint operations

Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. The Limits Of Humanitarian Intervention Genocide In Rwanda : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. The Limits Of Humanitarian Intervention Genocide In Rwanda : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
