Marovich, 2023-02-07 Winner 2024 Bela Kornitzer Alumni Award Drew University Life and death are commonly seen as representing the starkest of binaries Death is the ultimate adversary of all that lives Beatrice Marovich argues that such understandings of mortality have been deeply influenced by a strain of Christian political theology that has left its mark on both religious and secular narratives Adapting the figure of Sister Death from Saint Francis of Assisi she calls for recognizing that life and death are family Drawing on a wide range of sources from Toni Morrison to Jacques Derrida psychoanalysis to grassroots death positive movements Marovich critiques a racialized political theology that pits life and death against each other in a state of endless war In a time of extinctions it is necessary to disrupt this dominant story in order to apprehend death as a collective multispecies event Sister Death proposes an alternative view in which life and death are not mortal enemies destined for mutual destruction Instead they are engaged in a contested tense and sometimes mutually empowering form of connection a sisterhood Eloquent and approachable this book deftly integrates the insights of a number of disciplines to provide a profound reconsideration of the relations between life and death Sister Death also features a series of original works by the artist Krista Dragomer that stage an ongoing conceptual conversation with the text

Unconventional Sisterhood Heather Lynn Claussen, 2023-06-20 Unconventional Sisterhood is an ethnographic exploration of the ways in which Filipina Missionary Benedictine Sisters are renegotiating traditional understandings of gender religious responsibility and national identity in the context of a rapidly globalizing nation Unlike the popular stereotypes of staid sisters cloaked in rigid religious dogmatism they are doing so by telling jokes engaging in eclectic religious rituals maintaining connections with a local nationalist cult and committing themselves to a radical and feminist politics This work represents an important addition to scholarship on Philippine feminism It is one of few ethnographies that focuses on female monasticism of particular cultural importance in the Christian Philippines where nuns enjoy relatively high social status and freedom from many of the traditional constraints delineating Filipina lives It is noteworthy as well for its focus on metropolitan Manila a socially complex dynamic diverse and understudied environment Heather L Claussen is an anthropologist currently living in Santa Cruz California

The ^AWicked Sisters Betsy Erkkila, 1992-12-10 This provocative study of the lives and works of Emily Dickinson Marianne Moore Elizabeth Bishop Adrienne Rich and Gwendolyn Brooks focuses on the historical struggles and differences among and within women writers and among feminists themselves Erkkila explores the troubled relations women writers experienced with both masculine and feminine literary cultures arguing that popular feminist views often romanticize and maternalize women writers and their interrelations in ways that effectively reinforce the very gender stereotypes and polarities which initially grounded women s oppression Studying the multiple race class ethnic cultural and other locations of women within a particular social field Erkkila offers a revisionary model of women s literary history that challenges recent feminist theory and practice along with many of our fundamental assumptions about the woman writer women s writing and women s literary history In contrast to the tendency of earlier feminists to heroize literary foremothers and communities of women Erkkila focuses on the historical struggles and conflicts that make up the history of women poets Without discounting the historical power of sisterhood she seeks to reclaim women s literary history as a site of contention contingency and ongoing struggle rather than a separate space of untroubled and essentially cooperative accord among women Encompassing the various historical significations of wickedness as destructive powerful playful witty mischievous and not righteous The Wicked Sisters explores the power struggles and discord that mark both the history of women poets and the history of feminist criticism

Our Sister Editors Patricia Okker, 2008-06-01 Our Sister Editors is the first book length study of Sarah J Hale s editorial career From 1828 to 1836 Hale edited the Boston based Ladies Magazine and then from 1837 to 1877 Philadelphia s Godey s Lady s Book which on the eve of the Civil War was the most widely read magazine in the United States boasting more than 150 000 subscribers Hale reviewed thousands of books regularly contributed her own fiction and poetry to her magazines wrote monthly editorials and published the works of such writers as Nathaniel Hawthorne Edgar Allan Poe Harriet Beecher Stowe and Lydia Sigourney Okker successfully relates Hale s contributions both to debates about the status of women and to the development of American literature Unlike many of her contemporaries Hale insisted on the power of women within both the public and private spheres Throughout her long career Hale helped popularize new ideas about reading and genre and she made significant contributions to the development of professional authorship Our Sister Editors also provides the first overview of the large and diverse group of nineteenth century women editors In her examination of the role of women as editors owners and publishers of periodicals and her use of Hale s career to exemplify and discuss a series of major issues related to women s writing and reading in Victorian America Patricia Okker offers a provocative revisionist study
