Dwight Bennett Newton

The Oxbow Deed:

The Oxbow Deed Clement Hardin,1980-11-01 The Oxbow Deed Dwight Bennett Newton,2000 Two ex jailbirds rode into Oxbow Valley one day a used up and tired old cattle thief and a young robber with a vicious temper who trusted no one And these were the good guys They had come to reclaim the old timer s Cross K which was still good grazing land and now apparently stocked with Luke Blaine s herds from his vast Broken Arrow spread The two planned to settle a legal issue and start respectable new lives Some people though weren t too happy to see this kind of men settle down as neighbors and they displayed their feelings with well aimed bullets The Oxbow Deed D. B. Newton,2001-08-30 The Ox-Bow Man Jackson J. Benson,2006-07-27 Walter Van Tilburg Clark author of the classic novel The Ox Bow Incident was one of the West s most important literary figures a writer who contributed mightily to the tradition of viewing the West realistically and not through the veil of myth and romance As a comparatively young man he published three novels and a collection of short stories then remained almost silent for the rest of his life the victim of a paralyzing case of writer s block Now Jackson J Benson one of the country s foremost literary biographers has produced the first full length biography of this brilliant enigmatic and ultimately tragic figure Based on widely scattered sources personal papers and correspondence interviews with family members friends and others and Clark s unpublished stories and poems Benson s biography focuses on Clark s intellectual and literary life as a writer teacher and westerner Benson masterfully balances his engaging account of the experiences people and settings of Clark s life with a penetrating examination of his complex psyche and the crippling perfectionism that virtually ended Clark s career as well as offering up a thoughtful assessment of Clark s place in Western writing In these pages Clark lives again a warm complex and ultimately anguished human being Benson s remarkably astute and sensitive biography is destined to be the book that readers and researchers consult first for information about this major western writer New York Supreme Court Appellate Division-Third Department , The Ox-Bow Incident Walter Van Tilburg Clark,2011-10-12 Set in 1885 The Ox Bow Incident is a searing and realistic portrait of frontier life and mob violence in the American West First published in 1940 it focuses on the lynching of three innocent men and the tragedy that ensues when law and order are abandoned The result is an emotionally powerful vivid and unforgettable re creation of the Western novel which Clark transmuted into a universal story about good and evil individual and community justice and human nature As Wallace Stegner writes Clark s theme was civilization and he recorded indelibly its first steps in a new country Supreme Court Appellate Division Third Department , Easthampton Massachusetts' Home-Grown Industries Marvin J. Ward, Ph.D.,2022-03-25 Easthampton Massachusetts Home Grown Industries Their Origins Growth Legacies and Remains By Marvin J Ward Ph D Easthampton Massachusetts Home Grown Industries documents the history of all the industries several of them interconnected that were established in the Town of Easthampton at the start of the Industrial Revolution in Western Massachusetts beginning in c 1824 with a piece work enterprise operated from a home with an office and small warehouse proceeding in 1834 to an industrial manufacture initially in an existing factory in another town and moving into the first factory being built in the town in 1847 1848 Most were started by Samuel Williston who had different partners although many of those had their hands in more than one and some of them took over one or another of them All of them were situated on property that Williston owned having inherited it from his father Payson the first minister to settle in it who bought a large tract of 18 or 19 acres of land in 1790 It tracks them through to his death in 1874 and that of his wife Emily ne Graves from nearby Williamsburg her family's property is also tracked founder in 1881 of the town library in 1885 They manufactured the first products of their type in the US in the case of the first three and in this region for the others some having international exports and reputations Williston was also involved in many civic endeavors he funded numerous initiatives including a school a church the Town Hall building and a cemetery to name the major projects he was not a tycoon who spent lavishly on himself The story unfolds Sherlock Holmes style with documented facts unraveling some mysteries and destroying some tales that are myths and or apocryphal commonly believed among today's residents some of which took root in early 20th century sources that are also Sherlock Holmes style undermined In the 20th century other industries many larger moved there all moving or expanding from their former locations some reassembling their buildings that were disassembled there and brought along all of these on the West side of the Lower Mill Pond North of the location of the first ones and alongside the railroad that ran beside the Pond today a Rail Trail they are not treated here None of either exist today but many of their buildings have been or are being repurposed except for one that is part of the factory of an industry not entirely unrelated to the one for which it was built
