The Paratroopers:

The Lost Paratroopers of Normandy Stephen G. Rabe, 2022-11-10 The inspiring story of 162 US paratroopers dropped hopelessly off target and the French villagers who assisted and supported them The Paratroopers John R. Emmert, 2014-06-03 Steven Weaver's life as a college student was active. If he wasn't studying, he was playing varsity football or basketball. Now, with the coming of war, his first months in the Army lacked activity until he was given a unique opportunity in the summer of 1942 to join a group of air-deployed combat infantry looking for athletic volunteers. Little did he know what would be asked of himself and his faith under fire Terrortimes, Terrorscapes Volker Benkert, Michael Mayer, 2022-09-15 Terrortimes Terrorscapes Continuities of Space, Time, and Memory in Twentieth Century War and Genocide investigates interconnections between space and violence throughout the twentieth century and how such connections informed collective memory. The interdisciplinary volume shows how entangled notions of time and space amplified by memory narratives led to continuities of violence across different conflicts, creating terrortimes and terrorscapes in their wake. The volume examines such continuities of violence with the help of an analytical framework built around different themes. Its first part, spatial and temporal continuities of violence, looks at contested spaces and ideas of national, ethnic, or religious homogeneity that are often at the heart of prolonged conflicts. The second part on states and actors addresses the role of states as enablers of violence, asymmetric power dynamics, and the connection between imperialism and genocide in Africa. Imagination and emotion: the focus of the third part explores utopian visions and their limits that instigate or hinder and the mobilization of emotion through propaganda. Finally, the fourth part shows how the recollection of the past sometimes triggers new terrortimes. Departing from an understanding of violence limited to certain areas and time frames, this volume describes continuities of violence as overlapping fabrics woven together from notions of space, time, and memory.

Trapped by Evil and Deceit Daniel Brand, 2021-06-29 When the Holocaust broke out in Europe, Hansi and Joel Brand were joined by Israel Rezs Kasztner to launch an organized effort to save thousands of human lives. Their efforts, which involved playing a dangerous bluffing game against the Nazi regime, helped to end the Auschwitz extermination. Their success put them at odds with the political machine of the young state of Israel. Politicians wanted the public to believe that there was nothing they could do, a sentiment which many still believe to this day. This cover-up led to Israel's first politically motivated homicide Palestine and Jewish History Jonathan Boyarin, 1996-01-01 This book enacts rather than reports on Boyarin's process or error, pain, impatience, uncertainty, discovery, embarrassment, self-criticism, intellectual struggle, and dawning awareness, challenging and engaging us in the process of discovery Operation Varsity: Airborne Artillery in the Rhine Crossing Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-08 Operation Varsity was one of the largest airborne assaults in history. It was part of a larger Allied offensive to cross the Rhine River and push into the heart of Germany. The operation was planned by Field Marshal Bernard Montgomery; the Allied ground forces commander Montgomery believed that an airborne assault across the Rhine would be the key to breaking the German defenses and opening the way for the Allied armies to advance into Germany. The airborne assault was carried out by the 17th Airborne Division which was made up of the 513th Parachute Infantry Regiment, the 507th Parachute Infantry Regiment and the 464th Parachute Field Artillery Battalion. The 464th was the first artillery battalion to be dropped by parachute into combat. The airborne assault began on March 24, 1945 when over 17,000 paratroopers and glider troops were dropped behind enemy lines near Wesel, Germany. The paratroopers and glider troops quickly secured a bridgehead on the east bank of the Rhine and the 464th Parachute Field Artillery Battalion began firing on German positions. The German forces were caught off guard by the airborne assault and they were unable to prevent the Allies from establishing a bridgehead on the east bank of the Rhine. The Allied forces were then able to cross the river in force and push into the heart of Germany. Operation Varsity was a success and it played a major role in the Allied victory in World War II. The operation showed that airborne forces could be used to cross major obstacles and establish bridgeheads behind enemy lines. Operation Varsity also showed that artillery could be effectively used in airborne operations. The 464th Parachute Field Artillery Battalion was awarded the Presidential Unit Citation for its actions in Operation Varsity. The battalion was also awarded the French Croix de Guerre. The story of the 464th Parachute Field Artillery Battalion is a story of courage, determination, and sacrifice. The battalion's actions in Operation Varsity helped to pave the way for the Allied victory in World War II. This book tells the story of the 464th Parachute Field Artillery Battalion in Operation Varsity. It is a story of courage, determination, and sacrifice. It is a story that has never been told before. The 508th Connection Zig Borouhgs, 2013 Summary of The 508th Connection by Zig Borouhgs When I arrived home after my army discharge in 1945, the challenges of adult civilian life excited me tremendously. I passionately anticipated living as a husband and father no longer separated by the Atlantic Ocean and a dangerous war from my wife and child. I eagerly plunged into active civilian employment, impatient to establish a career of peaceful service to humanity. Although the experiences and feelings of World War II affected by attitudes and ideals, my energies were so devoted to other interests, the memories of the war years were pushed into an inactive part of my brain. For many years I thought very little about the 508th Parachute Infantry Regiment and I lost contact with all but one of my paratrooper buddies. Then at 11:00 PM Christmas Eve 1983, a memory of Christmas Eve 1944 forced its way to the surface. My wife and I were visiting with our daughter Gini and her family. We were waiting for our grandchildren to go to bed so that Santa Claus could prepare for Christmas morning. Noticing that it was 11:00 PM, I announced, "Let me tell you what I was doing at this hour thirty-nine years ago." I told the story "Burial and Birth" which you may read in this volume. When I finished the story, Gini told me, "Dad, you should write this story and send it to all our family members." Once I wrote one story, the dam burst and a floodgate of stories awoke in my memory, which resulted in the book "A Private's Eye View of World War II." Many details had faded with time and I needed to check with my paratrooper buddies to get my stories straight. Senator Strom Thurman's staff helped me locate Jim Allardyce, secretary of the 508th Parachute Infantry Association Allardyce provided a roster of the association membership with their addresses This enabled me to verify or correct my stories A Private s Eye View of World War II Other veterans of the 508th began to tell me their stories Some suggested that I write another book and tell their experiences which resulted in The Devil s Tale For over twenty years I have collected information from others The most important source of information has come from the 508th veterans Since I have been associated with the 508th Parachute Infantry Association I have met hundreds of fellow veterans of the regiment and have listened to their stories Through the association I have also met friends of the 508th from England France Belgium Holland Germany and Israel These friends have also given me valuable information I have chosen the title The 508th Connection to give credit to all those who have so generously helped as friends and as sources of information The connections are much more than sources for writing a book They are friends whom I treasure They are closer than friends We are family The 508th Connection tells the stories of the lives of men of the 508th Parachute Infantry Regiment Eighty second Airborne Division As you read the stories in The 508th Connection you will become connected with their lives in the barracks in the pubs and on the battlefield The stories are both entertaining and educational They will capture your heart your imagination and your understanding of what it was like for the paratroopers to live through the horrors of war while keeping their sanity and humor There are humorous stories romantic stories and battle stories stories about being captured by the enemy There are stories of men who killed to survive who lived in foxholes who helped and were helped by local people Throughout the book we connect with the paratroopers who relied on each other for survival This is their story
