Passion for Place Book II Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-06-29 Among the multiple subliminal passions that inspire our life in innumerable ways literature shows us one that seems to play a particularly penetrating role in human concerns This passion which Tymieniecka calls an esoteric passion finds its projection and crystallization in space it is the esoteric passion for space This subliminal passion investigated through literature allows the philosopher to reach beneath the fallacious separations of nature humanness and the cultural world restoring the wholeness of experience that has become lost in the artificial one sidedness of contemporary approaches confined to language as they are The elemental passion for place is investigated here in the literary fruits of creative imagination Unravelled from the very depths of the primogenital onto poietic unfolding of life the passion for place is revealed as projecting into the flux of life it is a station of life significance This collection presents papers from two conferences of the International Society of Phenomenology and Literature held in Cambridge MA in 1993 4 The Literature of Terror: Volume 2 David Punter, 2014-01-14 The Literature of Terror the Modern Gothic is the second volume in David Punter's impressive survey of gothic writing covering over two centuries This long awaited second edition has been expanded to take into account the latest critical research and is now published in two volumes Volume One covers the period from 1765 to the Edwardian age while Volume Two discusses modern gothic starting with the decadent gothic writing of Oscar Wilde and continuing through the twentieth century
