The Perfume Factory:

The Perfume Factory & Other Drawings Helen Wright, 1995 The Scent of Empires Karl Schlögel, 2021-04-27 Can a drop of perfume tell the story of the twentieth century Can a smell bear the traces of history What can we learn about the history of the twentieth century by examining the fate of perfumes In this remarkable book Karl Schlögel unravels the interconnected histories of two of the world's most celebrated perfumes In tsarist Russia two French perfumers Ernest Beaux and Auguste Michel developed related fragrances honouring Catherine the Great for the 300th anniversary of the Romanov dynasty During the Russian Revolution and Civil War Beaux fled Russia and took the formula for his perfume with him to France where he sought to adapt it to his new French circumstances He presented Coco Chanel with a series of ten fragrance samples in his laboratory and after smelling each she chose number five the scent that would later go by the name Chanel No 5 Meanwhile as the perfume industry was being revived in Soviet Russia Auguste Michel used his original fragrance to create Red Moscow for the tenth anniversary of the Revolution Piecing together the intertwined histories of these two famous perfumes which shared a common origin Schlögel tells a surprising story of power intrigue and betrayal that offers an altogether unique perspective on the turbulent events and high politics of the twentieth century This brilliant account of perfume and politics in twentieth century Europe will be of interest to a wide general readership Perfumes and Spices A. Groom, 2012-12-06 In 1948 I was posted as a Political Officer to a remote part of south west Arabia on the edge of the great desert called the Empty Quarter In valleys made fertile by seasonal flood waters lay the remains of an ancient civilization I found inscriptions and the ruin sites of towns palaces and temples Almost buried under the sand dunes were the tumbled walls of a great city From here two thousand years before huge camel caravans had trudged their way along 1600 miles of burning sand and rocks to Petra and Gaza burdened with a most precious cargo frankincense myrrh and other perfume materials for the courts temples and perfume shops of Rome My book Frankincense and Myrrh delved into the details of this romantic trade and led to a broader interest in the perfumes of ancient times Then researching on behalf of a perfume house into the Arab contribution to perfumery I came across the collection of perfume recipes assembled by the Arab philosopher scientist Yaqub al Kindi which have never been translated into English some which I have translated myself are now included in an appendix to this book I realized that in that work I had found key evidence to demonstrate how the medieval Arab perfume makers had been the bridge in perfume history between ancient and modern times Perfumery could now be seen as an art with a continuous history of development since the dawn of civilization
