Alright, Dear Lord, Heal Me Your Way Gary J. Davis, 2025-10-04 I started having mental problems at the age of eighteen and now I am sixty nine years old I had to leave my job because of mental problems I sought help from a psychiatrist who told me he did not see anything wrong with me after taking some psychiatric tests I knew however that something was wrong with me mentally Things got worse and I began to experience depression as a result of the psychiatric problems I became a Christian and things got worse instead of better Eventually I stopped going to church and just stayed home to myself I began to isolate myself from society Ultimately I ended up in a mental health treatment center I was put on medications and I became very deceived about taking my meds I would only take my medications as I chose to and not as my doctor prescribed I ended up going to five or six mental health facilities all because I did things my stubborn way for years Finally I came to the conclusion that doing things

my way was not working out after many years of denial and foolishness Today after many years of mental wellness I can honestly say I have a mental illness but my mental illness does not have me giving all the glory to God I finally asked God to heal me His way and He did just that and I praise Him with gratitude Hallelujah
