WILSON HARRIS : A VISION OF ONENESS S N Vikram Raj URS, 2015-08-01 It has been a pain staking study of collecting information and various interpretations from different sources The preoccupation of Harris is to explore and discover the buried truth in the Individual psyche I have attempted to show the wholeness of Man which is the major concern of Harris His creative insights into the The unknown modes of being are profound He tries to suggest an alternative vision of Reality to the upheavlls and raging conflicts of the twentieth century I have drawn parallels and comparisons to the Indian tradition of The Upanishads to argue that Man strives after the indivisible whole I have not included his recent novels such as Carnival 1985 The Four

Banks of the River of Space 1990 The Carnival Trilogy 1993 Jonestown 1996 The Dark Jester 2001 and The Mask of the Beggar 2003 Selected Essays of Wilson Harris A.J.M. Murray, 2000-03-14 Bringing together a range of critics working on the hispanic and francophone as well as anglophone post colonial regions this book aims to dislocate some of the commonly accepted cultural linguistic and geographical boundaries that have previously informed post colonial studies Collected essays include cross cultural comparisons from areas as diverse as Africa Ireland and Latin America analysis of specific texts as sites of border conflict and revisions of post colonial theoretical frameworks A timely questioning of the categories of a critical field at the point when it is becoming increasingly comparative this volume seeks to suggest more dynamic ways of working in post colonial cultural studies Resisting Alterities, 2021-11-01 This volume of essays poetry and prose fiction records various attempts to read the fracture zones created by the discursive strategy of a democratic imagination where space and ideas are opened to new linguistic and literary insights Pride of place is taken by essays on the Caribbean writer Wilson Harris which explore the implications of his awareness of a polyphony of coexistent voices that dislodges the hegemony of Cartesian dualism This group of studies is rounded off with an interview with and searching testimony by Harris himself The further contributions take up the implications of the encounter with alterity strangers natives barbarians in order to underline not only wonder in the face of an unknown presence or the shame through which the subject discovers itself but also the resentment involved in the creation of demonized Others As the poet Charles Tomlinson states what we take to be otherness alterity can be readmitted into our literary consciousness and seen as part of the whole causing us to readjust our awareness of the possibilities of English These essays confirm that resistance is an interface of ambivalence between discursive worlds encouraging us to read the living network of a text contrapuntally Specific topics include Billy Bragg and New Labour Schopenhauer in Britain Objectivist poetry gender and sexual identity in Nancy Cunard in Scottish fiction multivocal discourse in South Africa specific forms of alterity in Jamaica Kincaid in the poetry of Edwin Morgan in allo-Semitism and the deculturalizing perils of globalization Time, History, and Philosophy in the Works of Wilson Harris Gianluca Delfino, 2016-05-31 Gianluca Delfino's study of one of the Caribbean's most controversial authors paves the way for looking at Wilson Harris's body of work in a new light Harris's imaginative approach to reality is discussed in relation to the categories of history and time with reference to several novels with a special focus on The Infinite Rehearsal Jonestown and The Dark Jester spanning more than forty years of his vast literary production Delfino's analysis encompassing critical perspectives ranging from African philosophy to Jungian readings through historiography and anthropology demonstrates that Harris's works as a whole show a remarkable unity of thought rooted in their author's complex imagination As a result the cross cultural quality of Harris's thought emerges as a healing outcome of the traumatic colonial encounter bringing together elements of Amerindian African and European origin in an ongoing dialogue with time
