Locating Memory Annette Kuhn, Kirsten Emiko McAllister, 2006-12-01 As a visual medium the photograph has many culturally resonant properties that it shares with no other medium These essays develop innovative cultural strategies for reading re reading and re using photographs as well as for re creating photographs and other artworks and evoke varied sites of memory in contemporary landscapes from sites of war and other violence through the lost places of indigenous peoples to the once familiar everyday places of home family neighborhood and community Paying close attention to the settings in which such photographs are made and used family collections public archives museums newspapers art galleries the contributors consider how meanings in photographs may be shifted challenged and renewed over time and for different purposes from historical inquiry to quests for personal familial ethnic and national identity Memories of Slough True North Holdings, 1999 The Weber Literary Journal , 1921 Mind Wars Jonathan D. Moreno, 2012-05-01 One of the most important thinkers describes the literally mind boggling possibilities that modern brain science could present for national security LAWRENCE J KORB former US Assistant Secretary of Defense Fascinating and frightening Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists The first book of its kind Mind Wars covers the ethical dilemmas and bizarre history of cutting edge technology and neuroscience developed for military applications As the author discusses the innovative Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency DARPA and the role of the intelligence community and countless university science departments in preparing the military and intelligence services for the twenty first century he also charts the future of national security Fully updated and revised this edition features new material on deep brain stimulation neuro hormones and enhanced interrogation With in depth discussions of psyops mind control experiments drugs that erase both fear and the need to sleep microchip brain implants and advanced prosthetics supersoldiers and robot armies Mind Wars may read like science fiction or the latest conspiracy thriller but its subjects are very real and changing the course of modern warfare Jonathan D Moreno has been a senior staff member for three presidential advisory commissions and has served on a number of Pentagon advisory committees He is an ethics professor at the University of Pennsylvania and the editor in chief of the Center for American Progress online magazine Science Progress Memories of By-gone Days W. What is Cultural History? Peter Burke, 2019-07-12

What is Cultural History has established itself as an essential guide to what cultural historians do and how they do it. Now fully updated in its third edition leading historian Peter Burke offers afresh his accessible account of the past present and future of cultural history as it has been practised not only in the English speaking world but also in Continental Europe Asia South America and elsewhere. Burke begins by discussing the classic phase of cultural history associated with Jacob Burckhardt and Johan Huizinga and the Marxist reaction to it from Frederick Antal to Edward Thompson. He then charts the rise of cultural history in more recent times concentrating on the work of the last generation often described as the New Cultural History. He places cultural history in its own cultural context noting links between new approaches to historical thought and writing and the rise of feminism postcolonial studies and an everyday discourse in which the idea of culture plays an increasingly important part. The new edition also surveys the latest developments in the field and considers the directions that cultural history has been taking in the twenty first century and may take in the future.
