Gay and Lesbian Literature Since World War II Sonya L Jones, 2014-05-22 Gay and Lesbian Literature Since World War II chronicles the multifaceted explosion of gay and lesbian writing that has taken place in the second half of the twentieth century. Encompassing a wide range of subject matter and a balance of gay and lesbian concerns, it includes work by established scholars as well as young theoreticians and archivists who have initiated new areas of investigation. The contributors' examinations of this rich literary period make it easy to view the half century from 1948 to 1998 as the Queer Renaissance. Included in Gay and Lesbian Literature Since World War II are critical and social analyses of literary movements, novels, short fiction, periodicals, and poetry, as well as a look at the challenges of establishing a repository for lesbian cultural history. Specific chapters in this groundbreaking work trace the development of gay poetry in America after World War II, examine how AIDS is represented in the first four Latino novels to deal with the subject matter, and chronicle the birth of lesbian feminist publishing in the 1970s, showing how it created a flourishing gay literature in the 1980s and 1990s. Other chapters outline the history of The Ladder from its initial publication in 1956 as the official vehicle of the Daughters of Bilitis to its final issue as a privately published literary magazine in 1972; examine Baldwin's 1962 novel Another Country and discuss the complicated critical history of this work and its relation to Baldwin's literary reputation; racial, sexual, and political factors are taken into account; chart how Other Voices, Other Rooms by Truman Capote, and The House of Breath by William Goyen reveal contradictory genderings of male homosexuality, suggesting an absence of a unified model of mid-twentieth-century male homosexuality; argue that the 1976 novel Lover by Bertha Harris can be considered an exemplary novel within discussions of both postmodern fiction and lesbian theory. The author calls for Harris to be added to the group of writers such as Wittig, Anzaldá, Lorde, and Winterson who are discussed within the context of a postmodern lesbian narrative; examine the short fiction of Canadian lesbian novelist Jane Rule in an effort to shed light on lesbian creative practice in the homophobic climate of postwar North America; argue for an understanding of Dale Peck's novel Martin and John as an attempt to link two apparently different processes of import to contemporary male subjects through examination of the novel alongside selected passages from Nietzsche and Freud; focus on the pragmatic issues of developing and maintaining accessible research venues from which to cultivate the study of racial and cultural diversity in lesbian lives. Document the history of the Lesbian Herstory Archives, one of the first lesbian-specific collections in the world, from its birth in the early 1970s to the present.

Natural Brilliance Irini Rockwell, 2012-03-13 Understanding yourself is the key to dealing with and even enjoying the inevitable complexity of life. Irini Rockwell presents us with a powerful system for the kind of self-understanding that leads to just that kind of satisfying relationship with life. It's a Buddhist model for identifying your unique mix of personality traits that make up your innate intelligence. All five qualities—presence, clarity, richness, passion, and action—are your rich resource. By cultivating them, you begin to see how you can use this remarkable system to enhance your relationships, your work, and your creativity.

Ultimately this system introduces us to a larger world the totality and interconnectedness of everyone and everything

A history of pivotal military and political events in Ancient Rome from 425 to 457 BC Military History of Late Rome 425 457 analyses in great detail how the Romans coped with the challenge posed by masses of Huns in a situation in which the Germanic tribes had gained a permanent foothold in the territories of West Rome This analysis reassesses the strategy and tactics of the period The book shows how cooperation between the West Roman Master of Soldiers Aetius and East Roman Emperor Marcian saved Western civilization from the barbarian nightmare posed by the Huns of Attila A fresh appraisal of the great clash at the Catalaunian Fields in 451 offers new insights into the mechanics of the fighting and shows that it was a true battle of nations which decided nothing less than the fate of human civilization Had Aetius and his allies lost the battle and had Marcian not cooperated with Aetius in 451 and 452 we would not have seen the rise of the West and the rise of the scientific thinking Praise for Military History of Late Rome 425 457 An outstanding work the series gives us a very good picture of the long process that has come to be known as the Fall of Rome This is an invaluable read for anyone with an interest in Late Antiquity The NYMAS Review Non-Life Insurance Mathematics Thomas Mikosch,2009-04-21 Offers a mathematical introduction to non life insurance and at the same time to a multitude of applied stochastic processes It gives detailed discussions of the fundamental models for claim sizes claim arrivals the total claim amount and their probabilistic properties The reader gets to know how the underlying probabilistic structures allow one to determine premiums in a portfolio or in an individual policy Zentralblatt f r Didaktik der Mathematik Social Psychology Quarterly ,1979

Traumatic Encounters Paul Eisenstein,2012-02-01 Traumatic Encounters argues for an alternative memorial path in Holocaust and cultural studies one that shows the vital necessity of thinking in a universal way about an event like the Holocaust Relying on Hegel s notion that the particular is already universal Eisenstein shows how the encounter with trauma transpires not in the refusal of a universalizing gesture but rather in its wholesale embrace This embrace results in a recognition involving the trauma that conditions the possibility of history in the first place a structural trauma immune to historicization that Hegel and psychoanalysis place at the heart of subjectivity and community This encounter with structural trauma is at the center of four titles that Eisenstein examines Spielberg s Schindler s List D M Thomas s The White Hotel

Thomas Mann's Doctor Faustus and David Grossman's See Under Love      Galaxy Interactions at Low and High Redshift J.E. Barnes, D.B. Sanders, 2012-12-06 The 186th IAU Symposium came at an exciting and perhaps even historic time for extragalactic astronomy. New spacecraft observations plumbed the depths of the Universe out to redshifts of five while revealing astounding details of nearby galaxies and AGN at intermediate redshifts. Theoretical ideas on structure formation together with results from detailed numerical modeling created a comprehensive framework for modeling the formation of galaxies and the transformation of galaxies by interactions and mergers. All these strands came together at the Symposium as participants glimpsed a developing synthesis highlighting galactic encounters and their role in the history of the Universe. This volume offers professional astronomers including PhD students an overview of the rapidly advancing subject of galaxy interactions at low and high redshifts      Directory of American Poetry Books, 1997      Human Emotions Jonathan H. Turner, 2007 This major theoretical work takes existing work on the emotions in significantly new directions. It gives a comprehensive account of emotions beginning with general sociological principles moving over important theory construction of social formation and applying this to a detailed and unified grand theory of human emotions. Presenting a unified view of the emotions in the social universe, the book explores the relationships between emotions, social structure, and culture. Turner hypothesizes how social structure and culture affect emotional arousal in humans and vice versa. This book is essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students researching sociology of emotions, social psychology, and contemporary social theory, and is also relevant for students and researchers working in the fields of psychology and cultural studies      The Iran-United States Claims Tribunal and the Process of International Claims Resolution David D. Caron, 2021-10-01 Examining the Tribunal's structure, operations, and evolution in search of the underlying patterns that characterize such international institutions, this valuable book records the diverse experiences and judgments of a group of outstanding lawyers, each of whom has played a significant role at some stage of the Tribunal's proceedings. The essays are grouped in three distinct stages in the Tribunal's history. The first group deals with the creation of the Tribunal building upon the bare-boned framework laid down by the Claims Settlement Declaration. The second deals with the Tribunal at work processing and deciding cases during the period when it gave greatest emphasis to resolving large commercial claims. The third deals with the present situation where the Tribunal has taken a docket first dominated by claims of U.S. Iranian dual nationals against Iran and then by a small group of large and difficult claims between the two governments. Published under the auspices of the American Society of International Law. Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint      The Routledge Handbook of Language in Conflict Matthew Evans, Lesley Jeffries, Jim O'Driscoll, 2019-05-10 The Routledge Handbook of Language in Conflict presents a range of linguistic approaches as a means for examining the nature of communication related to conflict. Divided into four sections, the Handbook critically examines text interaction, languages, and applications of linguistics in situations of conflict. Spanning 30 chapters by a variety of international scholars, this Handbook includes real life case studies of conflict and covers conflicts from a wide range of geographical locations at every scale of involvement from the personal to the international of every timespan from the fleeting to the decades long and of varying levels of intensity from the barely articulated to the overtly hostile sets out the textual and interactional ways in which conflict is engendered and in which people and groups of people can be set against each other considers what linguistic research has brought and can bring to the universal aim of minimising the negative effects of outbreaks of conflict wherever and whenever they occur The Routledge Handbook of Language in Conflict is an essential reference book for students and researchers of language and communication linguistics peace studies international relations and conflict studies
