Jewish Men and the Holocaust: Sexuality, Emotions, Masculinity Florian Zabransky, 2024-10-21 During the Holocaust amid death and violence Jewish men were not mere powerless victims Linking gender studies with a history of sexuality and emotions will highlight intimate agency power struggles negotiations of relationships social dynamics and representations of masculinities Considering the agency and vulnerability will further convey intimate choices the representation of masculine ideals intimate violence and the expression of various emotions such as honour and love As research on the Holocaust often links women with sexuality or portrays women as gendered beings it is crucial to excavate the intimate hidden lives of Jewish men and their specific intimate experiences as men The analysis not only demonstrates how Jewish men remember and make sense of their experiences but also how they chose to form the narrative and how they represented their ordeal in four chapters namely ghettos concentration camps Jewish resistance in the countryside and finally DP camps in the aftermath of the Holocaust The consideration of these four spaces allows a nuanced innovative understanding of the intimate history of Jewish men during the Holocaust i.e. how some men established male dominated structures and established intimate strategies to find solace and pleasure

The Witness and the Body in Auschwitz Bozena Karwowska, 2023-10-16 The Witness and the Body in Auschwitz Early Literary Accounts of the Camp Experience examines bodily descriptions from early testimonies of concentration camp survivors focusing on questions related to meanings of corporeality as well as to Holocaust researchers and links the discourse of the body with a social cartography of the Auschwitz camp complex The heart of the book is comprised of memory based texts written by survivors in the early years after the war The early texts discussed were written in Polish and while some became internationally recognized others remain virtually unknown especially outside of Poland These early memoirs and literary works help navigate the space of the Auschwitz camp complex from the perspective of the victims based on their experiences and decipher those areas devoid of narratives spaces of total annihilation Literary accounts and early testimonies allow us to map the space of the camp differently than through the documents produced by the Nazi perpetrators Such a social cartography also includes specific gendered differences and allows Karwowska to critically analyze sensitive questions related to the body gender and sexuality of a prisoner

After the Holocaust David Cesarani, Eric J. Sundquist, 2011-09-29 For the last decade scholars have been questioning the idea that the Holocaust was not talked about in any way until well into the 1970s After the Holocaust Challenging the Myth of Silence is the first collection of authoritative original scholarship to expose a serious misreading of the past on which controversially the claims for a Holocaust industry rest Taking an international approach this bold new book exposes the myth and opens the way for a sweeping reassessment of Jewish life in the postwar era a life lived in the pervasive shared awareness that Jews had narrowly survived a catastrophe that had engulfed humanity as a whole but claimed two thirds of their number The chapters include an overview of the efforts by survivor historians and memoir writers to inform the world of the catastrophe that had befallen the Jews of Europe an evaluation of the work of survivor historians and memoir writers new light on the Jewish historical commissions and the Jewish documentation centres studies of David Boder a Russian born psychologist who recorded searing interviews with survivors and the work of philosophers social thinkers and theologians theatrical productions by survivors and the first films on the theme made in Hollywood how the Holocaust had an impact on the everyday life of Jews in the USA and a discussion of the different types and meanings of silence A breakthrough volume in the debate about the Myth of Silence this is a must for all students of Holocaust and genocide
