Triumph and Trauma Bernhard Giesen, S. N. Eisenstadt, 2015-12-03 This book deals with triumphant and tragic heroes with victims and perpetrators as archetypes of the Western imagination A major recent change in Western societies is that memories of triumphant heroism for example the revolutionary uprising of the people are increasingly replaced by the public remembrance of collective trauma of genocide slavery and expulsion The first part of the book deals with the heroes and victims and explores the social construction of charisma and its inevitable decay Part 2 focuses on a paradigm case of the collective trauma of perpetrators German national identity between 1945 and 2000 After a time of latency the legacy of nationalistic trauma was addressed in a public conflict between generations The conflict took center stage in vivid public debates and became a core element of Germany's official political culture Today public confessions of the guilt of the past have spread beyond the German case They are part of a new post utopian pattern of collective identity in a globalised setting A Grammar of the German Language, on Dr. Berker's System Heinrich Apel, 1851 focuses on the threat to free self development and the effort to ward off a perceived threat of extinction as well as the development of self preservation forces The challenges for ethnic and religious minorities in the 19th 21st centuries are explained and unfolded against the historical background that serves as a frame of reference The royal privileges granted in medieval Hungary were abolished in the mid 19th century The German speaking people's church Saxones in Transylvania founded on this had to reorient itself although a pioneer region of religious freedom had established itself behind the Ottoman Curtain Since the reception of the Reformation the Saxones had been Protestant At the end of the 19th century after the Austro Hungarian Compromise this minority realised the concept of cultural Protestantism in its purest form ethnicity and religion were understood to be congruent Homogeneity of society was the ideal and affiliation with the German Empire was intensified Economy science culture language as well as school and church were understood as a unity segregation and emigration were frowned upon This concept fell into crisis due to various developments including economic ones especially after the annexation of Romania in 1918 National Socialism was widely adopted along with anti-Semitism For exponents of the church leadership the Confessio Augustana only served as a label On the one hand external pressure under communist rule brought about a only conditionally possible retraditionalisation on the other hand it led to the bleeding out of the congregations due to increased emigration Free development has only started again since the political upheaval in 1989
