Beginning at Moses Michael P. V. Barrett, 2018-08-15 For many Christians today the Old Testament is difficult to understand seems outdated and has questionable relevance But as Old Testament scholar Michael Barrett points out all Scripture is inspired by the Holy Spirit and we must read it by faith seeing that Christ is the key to unlocking the Old Testament's message With great knowledge of and contagious passion for the Old Testament the author shows readers how to identify basic characteristics of Christ and where to look for Him throughout the Old Testament The author challenges us God's promise throughout the Bible is that those who seek Him will find Him Beginning at Moses and ending with Malachi we want to be on Christ alert Table of Contents Part 1 Whom to Look For 1 Jesus the Messiah 2 The Person of Christ 3 The Work of Christ Part 2 Where to Look 4 Christ in the Covenants 5 Christ in Person 6 Christ in His Names 7 Christ in Word Prophecy 8 Christ in Picture Prophecy Explained 9 Christ in Picture Prophecy Illustrated 10 Christ in Song

The Suffering Servant in Deutero-Isaiah Christopher R. North, 2005-03-03

Songs of the Lesser Servants Richard Alan Ruof, 2003-08-19 The poems in this book depict the conflict between the secular commercial and inner spiritual views of life In many poems the spiritual world interrupts the daily round of life flowing into consciousness bringing harmony and an awe of the divine Other times the poems portray lawlessness and distortion that make human life grotesque Rather than teaching lessons the poems describe how modern society has lost touch with spiritual truths As an obsession with the material and secular way grows a beautiful harmony yields to conflict the divine and profane vie for attention Only a renewal of traditional faith restores the spiritual Poet's rhythms relay the inner sights The reader hears the words in his or her own voice suddenly glimpsing the spiritual world which departs the scene having stirred the inner experience that often in modern life is fading The spiritual is ageless But the material quickly dissolves exacting a toll upon the age that surrenders the eternal dimension

Disability and Isaiah's Suffering Servant

Jeremy Schipper,2011-09 In standard biblical interpretations the Suffering Servant figure in Isaiah 53 is understood as an otherwise able bodied person who suffers Jeremy Schipper challenges this reading and shows that the text describes the servant with language and imagery typically associated with disability in ancient Near Eastern literature Rolando Hinojosa and the American Dream Joyce Glover Lee,1997 Rolando Hinojosa is a Texas writer with his sense of place centered in the Texas Valley a world in itself and a place recognizable as a discrete community But Hinojosa s work transcends the regional transcends the Valley transcends Texas while it remains rooted in all three Hinojosa is treated here from the perspective of his place in the mainstream of American literature and with his attempts to write works that speak to a large and more diverse audience rather than from the perspective of his place within the world of Texas Mexican literature Joyce Lee does not neglect the regional aspects of Hinojosa s works but puts them into the context of what they say about the vitality of American culture at large and about the Mexican culture s variations of the American Dream Covers Hinojosa s full length books Dear Rafe Klail City The Useless Servants The Valley Partners in Crime and Rites and Witnesses as well as his essays and articles Christmas in Song, Sketch, and Story John Piersol McCaskey,1891 Additional titles Welcome Christmas cheer Storace Welcome to Christmas Drake What of Christmas day Selwyn What of the night Mason What said the shepherds Hutchinson What star is this Coffin When Christ was born Brown When I view the mother Barnby When Jordan hushed Campbell When love was born Wellings When snow lies deep Rossini While shepherds watched Tate While shepherds watched Clarke While to Bethlem going Rousseau Why alas In lowly stall Mauburne With every golden string Auber With gladness men of old Monk With glowing heart Key With joyous hearts Selwyn Music in English Children's Drama of the Later Renaissance Linda Phyllis Austern,2024-09-30 Originally published in 1992 Music in English Children s Drama of the Later Renaissance is the first book length study to examine the Elizabethan and Jacobean children s drama not only from a musicological perspective but also drawing on the histories of literature culture and the theater It gives the children s companies new historical significance showing that they were an integral and ultimately influential part of the London theatrical world These companies originated important features of later drama such as music before and between acts and the exploitation of different timbres for specific effects Those interested in music history English literature theater history and cultural history will find this a comprehensive and fascinating study Of special note are the appendices which offer a unique and important reference source by providing the only definitive list of the plays and songs used by the children

Atonement, Justice, and Peace Darrin W. Snyder Belousek, 2012 In this substantial study Darrin W Snyder Belousek offers a comprehensive and critical examination of penal substitution the most widely accepted evangelical Protestant theory of atonement and presents a biblically grounded theologically orthodox alternative Attending to all of the relevant biblical texts and engaging with the full spectrum of scholarship Belousek systematically develops a biblical theory of atonement that centers on restorative rather than retributive justice He also shows how Christian thinking on atonement correlates with major global concerns such as economic justice capital punishment the war on terror and ethnic and religious conflicts Thorough and clearly structured this book demonstrates how a return to biblical cruciformity can radically transform Christian mission social justice and peacemaking

Isaiah 53 in the Light of Homecoming After Exile Fredrik Häggglund, 2008 In this study Fredrik Häggglund presents an interpretation based on a hypothesis that conflicts emerged between the people in the land of Israel and those who returned from exile He analyzes these conflicts with the help of contemporary refugee studies other texts of the Old Testament and also relevant passages in Isa 40 55 At the end of the exile there was hope that the deported people would return to Israel that it would be rebuilt and that Jerusalem would again flourish This hope is most clearly expressed in Isa 40 1 52 10 However as time went by there was a realization that the envisaged glorious return was in reality a rather limited return and the joy of receiving those who returned had turned into conflicts not least regarding the possession of land and the availability of places to live In this situation someone probably reflected on the message of Isa 40 1 52 10 and sought to understand what had gone wrong Isa 53 was then inserted as an explanation of how the people in the land of Israel i e the we should have received those who returned i e the servant If this embrace had taken place Mother Zion would have rejoiced as described in Isa 54 Instead of these pictures painted for us in Isa 53 and 54 we encounter the reality of the conflicts described in Isa 56 66

Isaiah (Understanding the Bible Commentary Series) John Goldingay, 2012-07-01 The book of Isaiah depicts for its readers what happens when Isaiah volunteers to become Yahweh's gofer when he acts and speaks on Yahweh's behalf with Yahweh's authority In this careful and insightful commentary on Isaiah Goldingay unfolds the voices and messages of those prophetic actions and experiences While doing this he points out that three attributes of Yahweh come into distinctive focus in Isaiah Yahweh's majesty and authority Yahweh's passion in anger and compassion and Yahweh's insight and capacity to formulate a plan and put it into effect Goldingay also examines the way Isaiah thinks about the people of God and the relationship between the vision of who they could be the reality of who they were the calamity of that contrast and ultimately the promise Yahweh offers to them
