Concise Dictionary of American Literature Robert Richards, 1955-01-01 This dictionary was designed not simply for the scholar but for the general reader who needs more enlightenment about a specific American author or movement than a mere catalogue of facts can give him The scholar has read whole books about Walt Whitman and uses the dictionary merely to refresh his memory concerning a title or a date The general reader wants a concise account of how Whitman lived what he was like as a person what prompted him to write poetry why this poetry is now considered to be important and a history of Whitman appraisals On the other hand the average reader would prefer not be confused by meaningless facts obscure data or scholastic debate The scholar or the student the editor or the teacher will find in this dictionary almost any fact concerning American literature that he will ever need The general reader will find in addition to facts valuable apprehensions concerning our American literary heritage The Magic Numbers of Dr. Matrix Martin Gardner, 2020-10-06 Martin Gardner s Mathematical Games columns in Scientific American inspired and entertained several generations of mathematicians and scientists Gardner in his crystal clear prose illuminated corners of mathematics especially recreational mathematics that most people had no idea existed His playful spirit and inquisitive nature invite the reader into an exploration of beautiful mathematical ideas along with him These columns were both a revelation and a gift when he wrote them no one before Gardner had written about mathematics like this They continue to be a marvel This volume is a collection of Irving Joshua Matrix columns published in the magazine from 1960 1980 There were several collections of Dr Matrix the first in 1967 they were revised as Gardner reconnected with the good doctor over the years This is the 1985 Prometheus Books edition and contains all the Dr Matrix columns from the magazine From the Hidden Way James Branch Cabell, 1929 *The Works of James Branch Cabell: From the hidden way.
