Multilingualism and Identity Wendy Ayres-Bennett, Linda Fisher, 2022-08-04. The analysis and understanding of multilingualism and its relationship to identity in the face of globalization, migration, and the increasing dominance of English as a lingua franca makes it a complex and challenging problem that requires insights from a range of disciplines. With reference to a variety of languages and contexts, this book offers fascinating insights into multilingual identity from a team of world-renowned scholars working from a range of different theoretical and methodological perspectives. Three overarching themes are explored: situatedness, identity, practices, and investment. Detailed case studies from different linguistic and cultural contexts are included throughout. The chapter authors' consideration of multilingualism as a resource challenges the conception of multilingualism as a problem which has dogged so much political thinking in late modernity. The studies offer a critical lens on the types of linguistic repertoire that are celebrated and valued and introduce the policy implications of their findings for education and wider social issues.
