Reform, Representation and Theology in Nicholas of Cusa and His Age H. Lawrence Bond,Gerald Christianson,2023-03-31 While most works on Nicholas of Cusa concentrate either on his early career as author of the monumental Catholic Concordance or on his later career as writer of remarkable philosophical theological works such as On Learned Ignorance and The Vision of God the essays included here attempt to address the whole Cusanus sharing common contexts issues and themes Following chapters on the legacy of conciliarism and ecumenicity the story begins with the Council of Basel for which Cusanus wrote The Catholic Concordance but from which he broke away raising issues of private conscience as well as the balance between papal authority and representative councils in the pursuit of reform The story then turns to the matrix between Constantinople and a new council in Ferrara when Cusanus received a ship board gift from the Father of Lights and began to write his great philosophical theological treatises When taken together the essays in this book not only form a cohesive whole they also enlighten aspects often left in the shade such as the enigmatic aspects of Cusanus participation in the council and his mystical theology that reveals a man of faith in search of certainty beyond the well trod paths of philosophical reflection Positive Facts, Without a Shadow of Doubt Michael George Duignan,1862 Religious and Cosmic Beliefs of Central Polynesia Robert Wood Williamson,1933 Religious and Cosmic Beliefs of Central Polynesia Robert W. A. Kapadia,2020-09-28 I WILL now tell you who are assembled here the wise sayings of Mazda the praises of Ahura and the hymns of the Good Spirit the sublime truth which I see rising out of these flames You shall therefore HEARKEN TO THE SOUL OF NATURE Contemplate the beams of fire with a most pious mind Every one both men and women ought today to choose his Dread Ye offspring of renowned ancestors awake to agree with us So preached Zoroaster the prophet of the Parsis in one of his earliest sermons nearly 3 500 years ago Imbued from his infancy with deep philosophical and religious thoughts for the welfare and well being of mankind this ancient prophet of Bactria derived his holy inspiration after thirty years of divine meditation on a secluded and inaccessible mountain top of Ushidarena Thus fortified in communion with Ahura Mazda Spitama Zarathustra proceeded to the city of Balkh at the time the capital of the King of Iran Kava Vishtacpa Clothed in pure white flowing vestments bearing with him the sacred fire Adar Burzin Mehr and a staff or sceptre made of a cypress tree this sage of antiquity appeared before the court of Kava Vishtacpa By persuasion and argument he unfolded his religious mission and proclaimed the mandate of Ahura in order to elevate the ancient faith of the Aryas to its lofty and intellectual purity of monotheism Somewhere in the region washed by the eastern shires of the Caspian Sea on the fertile soil of Atropatene the primeval Aryas toiled and laboured in peaceful pastoral pursuit In the early days of Zoroaster homage was paid and prayers were offered to the Supreme Being usually through the recognized symbols of the Deity The heavenly firmament tinted with cerulean hue one limitless vault of refulgence and indescribable splendour the resplendent orb of the rising sun the ethereal gentleness of the beaming moon with her coruscating companions the planets and the stars the verdant earth the swift flowing river murmuring in sweet cadence of eternity and bliss the roaring sea of life and death and the glorious fire of Empyrean all these in the days of the primitive Aryan religion were believed to be so many manifestations of the Almighty God and were accordingly symbolized Things which were originally manifestations of God s good work became in course of time personified assumed shapes of deities in the frail imagination of the devotees and finally came to be adored in lieu of the Great Architect of the world Thus a religious system in itself philosophically sublime degenerated into a system of polytheism having for its object adoration of idols and visible forms of good and evil spirits reflective of human imagination This was the great evil the crime of ignoring the Creator for the created which our prophet Zarathustra laboured to remedy and to restore the then ancient faith to its pristine purity of Ahura worship was his chief object Studies in Gnosticism and Alexandrian Christianity Roelof van den Broek,2020-10-26 The discovery of the Nag Hammadi Library 1945 has given an enormous impetus not only to the study of ancient Gnosticism but also to that of early Christianity in general Most of the studies contained in this volume deal with mythological conceptions and theological ideas found in various Nag Hammadi writings The gnostic views on the nature of God and on creation and salvation receive particular attention ranging from Philo to the medieval Cathars The Nag Hammadi Library also shed new light on the development of early Alexandrian Christianity and its theology The book contains six studies which explicitly deal with these topics This volume is of interest to students of Gnosticism early Christianity and Graeco Roman religious and philosophical ideas in general The Teachings of Zoroaster and the Philosophy of the Parsi Religion Shapurji Asponiaryi Kapadia, 1913 The Teachings of Zoroaster And the Philosophy of the Parsi Religion by Shapurji Aspaniarji Kapadia first published in 1913 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world This book is a reproduction of that original which has been scanned and cleaned by state of the art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation Restoration Editors mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life Some smudges annotations or unclear text may still exist due to permanent damage to the original work We believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction allowing a new generation to appreciate it
