The Artist And The Times Readings On The Harlem Renaissance And The European Renaissance:

Readings in Caribbean History and Culture D.A. Dunkley, 2011-12-08 This collection of eleven essays is designed to highlight some important new voices who have been doing research on the general subject areas of the history and culture of the Caribbean The essays in this volume also address a number of themes which are critical to developing an understanding of current scholarly work on the two broad subject areas Among the themes examined are colonialism slavery and the involvement of the Christian Church in both colonial rule and enslavement The essays also analyze the pre independence and post independence periods of the twentieth century with examinations on topics that include prostitution departmentalization education visual art and the musical form known as Reggae The purpose of this book is to stimulate discussion around these important topics based on the perspectives of a number of new scholars. The book is also designed as a teaching device principally for courses focusing on Caribbean society whether in the past or the present Reading Basquiat Jordana Moore Saggese, 2021-04-06 Before his death at the age of twenty seven Jean Michel Basquiat completed nearly 2 000 works These unique compositions collages of text and gestural painting across a variety of media quickly made Basquiat one of the most important and widely known artists of the 1980s Reading Basquiat provides a new approach to understanding the range and impact of this artist's practice as well as its complex relationship to several key artistic and ideological debates of the late twentieth century including the instability of identity the role of appropriation and the boundaries of expressionism Jordana Moore Saggese argues that Basquiat once known as the black Picasso probes not only the boundaries of blackness but also the boundaries of American art Weaving together the artist's interests in painting writing and music this groundbreaking book expands the parameters of aesthetic discourse to consider the parallels Basquiat found among these disciplines in his exploration of the production of meaning Most important Reading Basquiat traces the ways in which Basquiat constructed large parts of his identity as a black man as a musician as a painter and as a writer via the manipulation of texts in his own library Reading the Canon Philipp Löffler, 2017-03-02 Reading the Canon explores the relation between the production of literary value and the problem of periodization tracing how literary tastes particular reader communities and sites of literary learning shape the organization of literature in historical perspective Rather than suggesting a political critique of the canon this book shows that the production of literary relevance and its tacit hierarchies of value are necessary consequences of how reading and writing are organized as social practices within different fields of literary activity Reading the Canon offers a comprehensive theoretical account of the conundrums still defining contemporary debates about literary value the book also features a series of historically inflected author studies from classics such as Shakespeare and Thomas Pynchon to less likely figures such as John Neal and Owen Johnson that illustrate how the idea of literary relevance has been appropriated throughout history and across a variety of national and transnational literary institutions Gail Carson Levine Dennis Abrams, 2013-11 Biography of the author of Ella Enchanted Fairest and Dave at difficulty an art object is in theory complex Every work of art is an expression of its culture time and place and its maker the artist and is dependent on its media what it s made of The methodologies discussed here formal analysis iconology and iconography Marxism feminism biography and autobiography psychoanalysis structuralism race and gender reflect the multiplicity of meanings in an artistic image The second edition includes nineteen new images new sections on race gender orientalism and colonialism and a new epilogue that analyzes a single painting to illustrate the different methodological Can Art History be Made Global? Monica Juneja, 2023-03-20 The book responds to the challenge of the global turn in the humanities from the perspective of art history A global art history it argues need not follow the logic of economic globalization nor seek to bring the entire world into its fold Instead it draws on a theory of transculturation to explore key moments of an art history that can no longer be approached through a facile globalism How can art historical analysis theorize relationships of connectivity that have characterized cultures and regions across distances How can it meaningfully handle issues of commensurability or its absence among cultures By shifting the focus of enquiry to South Asia the five meditations that make up this book seek to translate intellectual insights of experiences beyond Euro America into globally Jazz Sells: Music, Marketing, and Meaning Mark Laver, 2015-02-11 Jazz Sells Music Marketing and intelligible analyses Meaning examines the issues of jazz consumption and capitalism through advertising On television on the Internet in radio and in print advertising is a critically important medium for the mass dissemination of music and musical meaning This book is a study of the use of the jazz genre as a musical signifier in promotional efforts exploring how the relationship between brand jazz music and jazz discourses come together to create meaning for the product and the consumer At the same time it examines how jazz offers an invaluable lens through which to examine the complex and often contradictory culture of consumption upon which capitalism is predicated Artful Teaching David M. Donahue, Jennifer Stuart, 2010-06-21 The authors share exemplary arts integrating practices across the K 8 curriculum and describe how the arts offer an entry point for gaining insight into why and how students learn Reading Multiple Consciousness Komla M. Avono, 2024-12-15 For over a century the intellectual debate of scholars from African descent has been dominated by the idea of double consciousness spearheaded by W E B DuBois Interestingly with many years of vexatious issues of the encounter between the West and Africa many scholars approached the debate on the basis of the consciousness of the Self and the Other However this idea seems to overlook the multiplicities of being black white Reading Multiple Consciousness Exploring the Complexity of Postmodern Identity suggests a different approach to the issue by taking more steps beyond double consciousness It enriches the debate over race literature and colonization as it offers another way of reading texts This book proposes that the complexity of postmodern identity is more accurately described by a theory of multiple consciousness This study arises out of the necessity of a more nuanced theoretical framework for a younger generation of researchers on both sides of the Atlantic a conceptual approach that does justice to the complexity of their experience Comics through Time M. Keith

Booker, 2014-10-28 Focusing especially on American comic books and graphic novels from the 1930s to the present this massive four volume work provides a colorful yet authoritative source on the entire history of the comics medium Comics and graphic novels have recently become big business serving as the inspiration for blockbuster Hollywood movies such as the Iron Man series of films and the hit television drama The Walking Dead But comics have been popular throughout the 20th century despite the significant effects of the restrictions of the Comics Code in place from the 1950s through 1970s which prohibited the depiction of zombies and use of the word horror among many other rules Comics through Time A History of Icons Idols and Ideas provides students and general readers a one stop resource for researching topics genres works and artists of comic books comic strips and graphic novels.
