Published in conjunction with the exhibition held at the McMullen Museum of Art Boston College February 6 June 5 2016

The Arts and Crafts Movements in Dublin & Edinburgh Nicola Gordon Bowe,Elizabeth Cumming,1998 Dublin and Edinburgh were ideally placed to become important centres of the Arts and Crafts movement and its National Romantic corollary the Celtic Revival This profusely illustrated volume is the first major study of Arts and Crafts design in these two great capital cities It examines shared literary formal and ideological links and values strongly influenced by radical figures like Patrick Geddes W B Yeats and George AE Russell as well as differences while exploring the ambivalent relationship each city enjoyed with its native cultural heritage and with England The text is a totally revised and expanded catalogue of the acclaimed exhibition curated by the authors for the 1985 Edinburgh International Festival Of interest to design social and cultural historians the book begins with a joint introduction and two essays which place the achievements of each city within their social and cultural contexts These are followed by substantial catalogue sections which give biographical accounts of artists designers architects and craftsmen and women whose range of work deserves contextual and critical re evaluation

British and Irish Home Arts and Industries, 1880-1914 Janice Helland,2007 This is the first book to study the revival of cottage crafts that accompanied the growing interest in an arts and crafts movement in Britain and Ireland It focuses upon three regional craft associations organised sponsored and promoted by British women the Donegal Industrial Fund founded 1883 by Londoner Alice Rowland Hart the Irish Industries Association founded 1886 by Ishbel Countess of Aberdeen and supported by a number of Irish and British aristocrats and Highland Home Industries revived in 1886 by the Marchioness of Stafford later Millicent Duchess of Sutherland The three examples have been selected because although like many of their counterparts the patrons endorsed a relationship between work and morality they also recognised the significance of consumption and market Their patrons understood the value of spectacle the usefulness of advertising and the efficacy of exhibition The emphasis is upon how and why they adopted these strategies to promote and sell cottage crafts for the benefit of rural workers The introduction provides an overview of home arts and industries in Britain as part of the late nineteenth century craft revival and examines the difference between the large English based Home Arts and Industries Association and other home arts organisations in England Scotland Wales and Ireland Visualizing the Celtic Revival Roisin

Kennedy,2024-07-26 This volume brings together Nicola Gordon Bowe s most important writings on the Arts and Crafts movement in Ireland including insightful essays on its cultural and art historical background and contexts the leading patrons and artists of the movement as well as key studies of the metalwork textiles stained glass furniture and book design associated with this dramatic flourishing of art and design production in Ireland between 1894 and 1925 Bowe s ability to scrutinize the decorative arts visually physically and aesthetically is matched by her awareness of the rich intellectual and cultural contexts that gave rise to its production Her insights into this significant period in Irish cultural history provide the reader with a nuanced understanding of the diverse motivations and achievements of the craftworkers and artists who produced these objects as well as the roles played by the networks of patrons critics and supporters that enabled the movement to thrive Bowe s research places the Arts and Crafts movement firmly within the contexts of the Cultural Revival

The Irish Revival Joseph Valente,Marjorie Howes,2023-06-15 The Irish Revival has inspired a richly diverse and illuminating body of scholarship that has enlarged our understanding of the movement and its influence The general tenor of recent scholarly work has involved an emphasis on inclusion and addition exploring previously neglected texts authors regional variations and international connections Such work while often excellent tends to see various revivalist figures and projects as part of a unified endeavor such as political resistance or self help In contrast The Irish Revival A Complex Vision seeks to reimagine the field by interpreting the Revival through the concept of complexity a theory recently developed in the information and biological sciences Taken as a whole these essays show that the Revival s various components operated as parts of a network but without any overarching aim or authority In retrospect the Revival s elements can be seen as having come together under the heading of a single objective for example decolonization broadly construed But this volume highlights how revivalist thinkers differed significantly on what such an aspiration might mean or lead to ethnic authenticity political autonomy or greater collective prosperity and well being Contributors examine how relationships among the Revival s individual parts involved conflict and cooperation difference and similarity continuity and disruption It is this combination of convergence without unifying purpose and divergence within a broad but flexible coherence that Valente and Howes capture by reinterpreting the Revival through complexity theory Synge and Edwardian Ireland Brian Cliff,Nicholas

Greene,2012 This book uses J M Synge s plays prose and photography to explore the cultural life of Edwardian Ireland By emphasizing less familiar contexts including the rise of a local celebrity culture the arts and crafts movement and Irish classical music it shows how Irish folk culture intersected with the new networks of mass communication The Yeats

Circle, Verbal and Visual Relations in Ireland, 1880-1939 Karen E. Brown,2011 Focusing on W B Yeats s ideal of mutual support between the arts and on the cultural production of the Yeats circle members Karen Brown explores the artistic relationships and outcome of Yeats s vision in five case studies In so doing the author makes use of primary materials and fresh archival evidence and delves into a variety of media including embroidery print illustration theatre costume design poetry and painting "The Yeats Circle, Verbal and Visual Relations in Ireland, 1880-1939 " KarenE.

Brown,2017-07-05 Focusing on W B Yeats s ideal of mutual support between the arts Karen Brown sheds new light on how collaborations and differences between members of the Yeats family circle contributed to the metamorphosis of the Irish Cultural Revival into Irish Modernism Making use of primary materials and fresh archival evidence Brown delves into a variety of media including embroidery print illustration theatre costume design poetry and painting Tracing the artistic relationships and outcome of W B Yeats's vision through five case studies Brown explores the poet's early engagement with artistic tradition contributions to the Dun Emer and Cuala Industries collaboration between W B Yeats and Norah McGuinness analysis of Thomas MacGreevy's pictorial poetry and a study of literary influence and debt between Jack Yeats and Samuel Beckett Having undertaken extensive archival research relating to word and image studies Brown considers her findings in historical context with particular emphasis on questions of art and gender and art and national identity

Interdisciplinary this volume is one of the first full length studies of the fraternal arts surrounding W B Yeats It represents an important contribution to word and image studies and to debates surrounding Irish Cultural Revival and the formation of Irish Modernism

Harry Clarke's War Marguerite Helmers, 2015-11-30 Ireland's Memorial Records 1914-1918 contain the names of 49,435 enlisted men who were killed in the First World War Commissioned in 1919 by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland and published in 100 eight volume sets the Records are notable for stunning and elaborate page decorations by celebrated Irish illustrator Harry Clarke Drawing from published and unpublished sources Marguerite Helmers ground breaking study provides a fascinating insight into the work of Harry Clarke as an extraordinary war artist and examines the process that led to the Records being commissioned through to the eventual placement of the Records within the Irish National War Memorial at Islandbridge Dublin With Harry Clarke's illustrations taking center stage in the story the Records and their genesis are of vital importance to our understanding of how art and commemoration can come together in a powerful visual creation

Irish Lacemaking Molly-Claire Gillett, 2025-09-04 Following the career of the Irish lace designer and inspector Emily Anderson 1856-1948 this book traces a network of designers makers organizations and institutions involved in the late 19th and early 20th century Irish lace industry and explores their contemporary relevance Molly Claire Gillett maps the Irish lace industry's connection to stakeholders such as the British Department of Science and Art the Cork School of Art The Irish Agricultural Organisation Society and the Irish Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction pairing a close study of patterns and techniques with an investigation of broader issues in design education philanthropy and women's professionalization Concluding with a consideration of contemporary Irish lacemaking now proudly claimed as an element of Ireland's intangible cultural heritage Gillett tells the story of a 20th century shift in the conception of lace design as art for industry and lacemaking as an economic necessity to both practices as expressions of identity creativity and community building Richly illustrated and framed within the narrative of Anderson's life and career as a woman designer and civil servant during a pivotal moment in Irish history Irish Lacemaking is an essential resource for students and researchers in craft women's history and Irish Studies

Sources in Irish Art Fintan Cullen, 2000 The publication of these texts in a single volume enables the reader to create useful historical comparisons as well as facilitating the careful examination of historical documents Sources in Irish Art A Reader will be an ideal text for Irish Studies and relevant Art History courses both at undergraduate and postgraduate levels

BOOK JACKET "Material Cultures,

1740?920 " Alla Myzelev,2017-07-05 Interweaving notions of identity and subjectivity spatial contexts materiality and meaning this collection makes a significant contribution to debates around the status and interpretation of visual and material culture Material Cultures 1740 1920 has four primary theoretical and historiographic lines of inquiry The first is how concepts of otherness and difference inform imbricate and impose themselves on identity and the modes of acquisition as well as the objects themselves The second concern explores the intricacies of how objects and their subjects negotiate and represent spatial narratives The third thread attempts to unravel the ideological underpinnings of collections of individuals which inevitably and invariably rub up against the social the institutional and the political Finally at the heart of Material Cultures 1740 1920 is an intervention moving beyond the disciplinary ethos of material culture to argue more firmly for the aesthetic visual and semiotic potency inseparable from any understanding of material objects integral to the lives of their collecting subjects The collection argues that objects are semiotic conduits or signs of meanings pleasures and desires that are deeply subjective more often than not they reveal racial gendered and sexual identities As the volume demonstrates through its various case studies material and visual cultures are not as separate as our current disciplinary ethos would lead us to believe
