Daughter Dennis Bock, 2008-03-11 The Communist's Daughter is a sweeping novel of love and betrayal spanning the trenches of the Great War to the horrors of Spain and China. Norman Bethune was a visionary whose dedication touched millions. Rebelling in childhood against his father's religion, he finds a calling, himself saving lives on the battlefield. In Republican Spain, he fulfills his idealism, yet before long politics destroy his romance and drive him to seek refuge in China. Here, in service to a man eventually known as Mao Zedong, Bethune begins this account of his life and his cherished beliefs for the only person who still makes a future seem possible: the daughter he has never seen. A Report on the Afterlife of Culture Stephen Henighan, 2008-04-30 In this essay collection, Henighan ranges across continents, centuries, and linguistic traditions to examine how literary culture and our perception of history are changing as the world grows smaller. He weaves together daring literary criticism with front-line reporting on events such as the end of the Cold War in Poland and African reactions to the G8 Summit. Canadian Fiction Sharron Smith, Maureen O'Connor, 2005-10-30 Discover some of the great Canadian authors and titles you've been missing. This guide describes and organizes according to reading interests more than 500 of the best contemporary Canadian fiction titles available today. Canadian fiction offers a wealth of diverse pleasures to readers, from high-toned literary works to down and dirty genre fiction. However, apart from the big names and superstars, many of these authors are not well known outside of Canada. Designed to help readers and advisors in the United States, Canada, and other English-speaking countries make informed reading recommendations to their patrons, this guide provides readers, advisors, and readers with an overview of Canadian fiction covering more than 650 popular titles, mainstream and genre fiction most published within the past decade. The guide categorizes mainstream titles according to primary appeal, features, language, character, setting, and story, and identifies the secondary appeal when there is one. Genre fiction covered in a separate section is organized according to standard genres: fantasy, romance, etc., with subdivisions for subgenres and themes. For each title, bibliographic information and a brief annotation is provided. Subjects are listed along with awards, and an indication of whether the title is appropriate for book groups. A read-on section with references to some 2,400 titles leads you to titles with similar features. Indexes cover author, title, and subject, including awards, genre, series, character names. An appendix contains information on Canadian Book Awards. A readers' advisory guide and reference tool, this book is also an important aid for collection development. The Novels and Romances of Edward Bulwer Lytton Edward Bulwer Lytton, Baron Lytton, 1896 Bulwer's Novels: My novel, or, Varieties in English life Edward Bulwer Lytton, Baron Lytton, 1892 Going Home Again Dennis Bock, 2013-08-13 After two acclaimed historical novels, one of Canada's most celebrated young writers now gives us the vibrant contemporary story of a man studying the suddenly confusing shape his life has taken and why, and what his responsibilities as a husband, a father, a brother, and an uncle truly are. Charlie Bellerose leads a seminomadic existence, traveling widely to manage the language academies he has established in different countries. After separating somewhat amicably from his wife, he moves from Madrid back to his native Canada to set up a new school and for the first time he forges a meaningful relationship with his brother who's going through a vicious divorce Charlie's able to make a fresh start in Toronto but longs for his twelve year old daughter whom he sees only via Skype and the occasional overseas visit After a chance encounter with a girlfriend from his university days a woman now happily married and with children of her own he works through a series of memories including a particularly painful one they share as he reflects on questions of family home fatherhood and love But two tragic events one long past the other very much in the present finally threaten to destroy everything he's ever believed in This edition includes a reading group guide

Beyond Hostile Islands Daniel McKay, 2024-04-02 WINNER JAVIER COY BIENNIAL RESEARCH AWARD BEST MONOGRAPH Offers a fascinating window into how the fraught politics of apology in the East Asian region have been figured in anglophone literary fiction The Pacific War 1941-1945 was fought across the world's largest ocean and left a lasting imprint on anglophone literary history However studies of that imprint or of individual authors have focused on American literature without drawing connections to parallel traditions elsewhere Beyond Hostile Islands contributes to ongoing efforts by Australasian scholars to place their national cultures in conversation with those of the United States particularly regarding studies of the ideologies that legitimize warfare Consecutively the book examines five of the most significant historical and thematic areas associated with the war island combat economic competition internment imprisonment and the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Throughout the central issue pivots around the question of how or whether at all New Zealand fiction writing differs from that of the United States Can a sense of islandness the tyranny of distance Mōri cultural heritage or the political legacies of the nuclear free movement provide grounds for distinctive authorial insights As an opening gambit Beyond Hostile Islands puts forward the term ideological coproduction to describe how a territorially and demographically more minor national culture may accede to the essentials of a given ideology while differing in aspects that reflect historical and provincial dimensions that are important to it Appropriately the literary texts under examination are set in various locales including Japan the Solomon Islands New Zealand New Mexico Ontario and the Marshall Islands The book concludes in a deliberately open ended pose with the full expectation that literary writing on the Pacific War will grow in range and richness aided by the growth of Pacific Studies as a research area

Book Reviews, 1900 Three Novels Samuel Beckett, 2009-06-16 Few works of contemporary literature are so universally acclaimed as central to our understanding of the human experience as Nobel Prize winner Samuel Beckett's famous trilogy Molloy the first of these masterpieces appeared in French in 1951 It was followed seven months later by Malone Dies and two years later by The Unnamable All three have been rendered into English by the author

The Collected Works of E. F. Benson: 23 Novels & 30+ Short Stories (Illustrated): Dodo Trilogy, Queen Lucia, Miss Mapp, David Blaize, The Room in The Tower, Paying Guests, The Relentless City, The Angel of Pain, The Rubicon and more E. F. Benson, 2015-08-11 Edward Frederic Benson 1867-1940 was an English novelist biographer memoirist archaeologist and short story writer known professionally as E F Benson He started his novel writing career in 1893 with the fashionably controversial Dodo which was an instant success and followed it with a variety of satire and romantic and supernatural melodrama. He repeated the success of Dodo with sequels to this novel but the greatest success came relatively late in his career with the Mapp and Lucia series consisting of six novels and two short stories. The novels feature humorous incidents in the lives of mainly upper middle class British people in the 1920s and 1930s vying for social prestige and one upmanship in an atmosphere of extreme cultural snobbery. Benson was also known as a writer of atmospheric oblique and at times humorous or satirical ghost stories.

Revolutions Alex Good, 2017-03-14 Revolutions is the first book length critical survey of twenty first century Canadian fiction with in depth essays examining subjects such as the Scotiabank Giller Prize the effects of the digital revolution and the dark legacy of what has come to be known as the Canadian literary establishment. Throughout close reading is given to many contemporary authors with particular attention paid to such central figures as Douglas Coupland and David Adams Richards. Alex Good explains and contextualizes this period in Canadian fiction for the general reader providing a much needed critical reassessment of Canadian writing in the new millennium. By offering a contrary yet thoughtful position to that taken by our nation's most prominent literary tastemakers Good offers a vigorous commentary on the state of Canadian literature where we are and how we got here.
