The Ashes 197:

Glikl Glueckel (of Hameln),2019-12-15 My dear children I write this for you in case your dear children or grandchildren come to you one of these days knowing nothing of their family For this reason I have set this down for you here in brief so that you might know what kind of people you come from These words from the memoirs Glikl bas Leib wrote in Yiddish between 1691 and 1719 shed light on the life of a devout and worldly woman Writing initially to seek solace in the long nights of her widowhood Glikl continued to record the joys and tribulations of her family and community in an account unique for its impressive literary talents and strong invocation of self Through intensely personal recollections Glikl weaves stories and traditional tales that express her thoughts and beliefs While influenced by popular Yiddish moral literature Glikl s frequent use of first person and the significance she assigns her own life experience set the work apart Informed by fidelity to the original Yiddish text this authoritative new translation is fully annotated to explicate Glikl s life and times offering readers a rich context for appreciating this classic work

The Making of Theatrical Reputations Yael Zarhy-Levo,2008-04-21 Today s successful plays and playwrights achieve their prominence not simply because of their intrinsic merit but because of the work of mediators who influence the whole trajectory of a playwright s or a theatre company s career Critics and academic writers are primarily considered the makers of reputations but funding organizations and various media agents as well as artistic directors producers and directors also pursue separate agendas in shaping the reputations of theatrical works In The Making of Theatrical Reputations Yael Zarhy-Levo demonstrates the processes through which these mediatory practices by key authority figures situate theatrical companies and playwrights within cultural and historical memory To reveal how these authorizing powers that be promote theatrical events companies and playwrights Zarhy-Levo presents four detailed case studies that reflect various angles of the modern London theatre In the case of the English Stage Company s production of John Osborne s Look Back in Anger she centers on a specific event She then focuses on the trajectory of a single company the Theatre Workshop particularly through its first decade at the Theatre Royal Stratford East London Next she explores the career of the dramatist John Arden especially its first ten years in part drawing upon an interview with Arden and his wife actress and playwright Margaretta D Arcy before turning to her fourth study the playwright Harold Pinter s shifting reputation throughout the different phases of his career Zarhy-Levo s accounts of these theatrical events companies and playwrights through the prism of mediation bring fresh insights to these landmark productions and their creators

Why I Jumped Tina Zahn,Wanda Lee Dyson,2008-03-01 On July 19 2004 an amazing story accompanied by incredible police camera video footage broke across network and cable news programs After a high speed chase to the top of Leo Frigo Memorial Bridge in Green Bay Wisconsin a young woman stopped stepped out of her car walked to the edge of the bridge and jumped State trooper Les Boldt raced over thrust out his hand and in a miracle of timing and determination snagged the woman s wrist as she started the plunge Other officers ran to his aid and they pulled the woman to safety while the on dash police cam captured the action That woman on the edge was Tina Zahn and in Why I Jumped she tells her story In this gripping book now available in paperback Zahn gives readers a look at what led to such severe depression that suicide seemed the only answer Readers won t be able to put down this powerful true story of crippling depression dramatic rescue and a return to hope
