The Austin Friars Leicester Cba Research Report 35 Leicestershire Archaeological Field Unit Report:

Medieval Archaeology Chris Gerrard, 2003-10-04 Chris Gerrard looks at the people and excavations that have been important in medieval archaeology and the core theory and methodology used creating an essential text for all medieval archaeologists

An Archaeological History of Hermitages and Eremitic Communities in Medieval Britain and Beyond Simon Roffey, 2023-03-03 Many hermitages and eremitic communities are recorded throughout the medieval period yet to date there has been no comprehensive archaeological study This richly illustrated book will consequently discuss a range of hermitages and introduce the reader to their architectural forms spaces location and environments as well as the religious practices associated with them It will focus primarily on the British material but will nonetheless consider this within a wider comparative framework Overall it will offer an archaeological history of hermitages and presents a unique window into a lost world of medieval spirituality and religious life Key related themes will include the earliest archaeological evidence for hermits eremitic life in India China and East Asia pre and early Christian desert hermitages cave hermitages eremitic communities saints and missionary hermits life and diet medieval mysticism and the contemplative tradition secular and ornamental hermitages and hermits in post medieval and contemporary society This book offers an illustrated archaeological history of hermitages and eremitic communities with reference to key examples and case studies It will therefore appeal to both academics students and a more general readership interested in archaeology history comparative religion architecture religion and belief spirituality medieval Britain modern contemplative practice and contemporary heritage issues
