their quest to create a better world Key players include Branko's mother Vilma a women's rights advocate and a highly regarded chronicler of late nineteenth century life in southeastern Europe his younger brother Slavko who also served as a Soviet spy and who fell victim of the Soviet Great Terror in the 1930s Branko's second wife Yoshiko who defied her repressive Japanese culture to support her husband and Ivo his anti fascist brother in law imprisoned by both fascist and communist security services at the end of WWII in Yugoslavia They were all caught up in some of the most tumultuous events of modern history

Nationalism and Territory George W. White, 2000 Why do nations come into conflict What factors lead to the horrors of ethnic cleansing This timely book offers clear eyed answers to these questions by exploring how national identity is shaped by place focusing especially on Serbia Hungary and Romania Moving beyond studies of nationalism that consider only the economic and geostrategic value of territory George W White shows that the very core of national identity is intimately bound to specific places Indeed nations define themselves in terms of spaces that have historical linguistic and religious meaning as Serbs have clearly demonstrated in Kosovo These territories are concrete expressions of a nation's identity both past and present With his detailed analysis of the places that define national identity in Southeastern Europe White convincingly shows why territorial disputes so often escalate into war

Eastern Europe Bibliography, 1993 A selective work that documents the formative impact of the region's earlier history Includes reference aids and bibliographies general and descriptive histories of the land peoples and economies and works depicting intellectual and cultural life

Monticone, 1986 A systematic analysis of Church and State relations in communist Poland Unconventional Perceptions of Yugoslavia, 1940-1945 Stevan K. Pavlowitch, 1985 Few aspects of American military history have been as vigorously debated as Harry Truman's decision to use atomic bombs against Japan In this carefully crafted volume Michael Kort describes the wartime circumstances and thinking that form the context for the decision to use these weapons surveys the major debates related to that decision and provides a comprehensive collection of key primary source documents that illuminate the behavior of the United States and Japan during the closing days of World War II Kort opens with a summary of the debate over Hiroshima as it has evolved since 1945 He then provides a historical overview of the events in question beginning with the decision and program to build the atomic bomb Detailing the sequence of events leading to Japan's surrender he revisits the decisive battles of the Pacific War and the motivations of American and Japanese leaders Finally Kort examines ten key issues in the discussion of Hiroshima and guides readers to relevant primary source documents scholarly books and articles

Czech Nationalism in the Nineteenth Century John Francis Nejez Bradley, 1984 Louis the Great, King of Hungary and Poland Steven Béla Várdy, Géza Grosschmid, Leslie S. Domonkos, 1986 T.G. Masaryk Revisited Hanus J. Hajek, 1983 Kiril and Methodius Ivan Duichev, 1985 In addition to five critical essays from modern times It contains a variety of late 9th through 10th century material in translation a good deal of it side by side with the Old Church Slavonic

This is a great book to have for anyone interested in knowing what the students Cyril and Methodius believed and taught. It is very eclectic covering not only what we would consider religious thought but also natural philosophy and science, politics of language, history, and even a bit of psychology. It also has the Saint's Lives of Cyril, Methodius, and Clement of Ohrid which are fairly straightforward but as they were written by contemporaries give a good historical background to the more academic primary sources. Occasional typos and relatively poor printing quality, especially for the Cyrillic selections, is a bit of a disappointment but it's still an invaluable resource for anyone interested in Slavic religious and literary culture. Slovakia, 1918-1938 Owen V. Johnson, 1985. This book deals with aspects of national formation in Slovakia from October 1918 through September 1938 and especially with the role of secondary and higher education in the process. From the Ghetto to the Games Andrew Handler, 1985. Documents the contribution of Hungarian Jews to sporting achievements in Hungary in the 19th-20th centuries. In the 19th century the Jew's interest in sports was part of a process of Magyarization and assimilation despite antisemitism in Hungarian society. Successful Jewish athletes continued to face discrimination, malicious remarks, etc. The American Military Mission in the Allied Control Commission for Bulgaria, 1944-1947 Michael M. Boll, 1985. This documentary history of the Allied Control Commission for Bulgaria with special reference to the American component sheds light on American political realities with respect to post World War II policies in Eastern Europe. New Hungarian Peasants Marida Hollos, Bela C. Maday, 1983.
