The Baseball Chronicles

The Baseball Chronicles:

The Baseball Chronicles Larry Burke, 1995 A decade by decade history of baseball from 1900 through the 1990s telling the story of America's favorite pastime through facts, essays, and photographs The Baseball Chronicles David Gallen, 1994 Phil S. Dixon's American Baseball Chronicles Great Teams: The 1910 Chicago Leland Giants Volume II Phil S. Dixon, 2023-12-06 A Galaxy of Stars best describes Andrew Rube Foster's 1910 Chicago Leland Giants. In their only season together, this combination of players played their way into the heart and soul of a nation divided. They are proof positive that the National and American Leagues did not corner the market on athletic talent. Foster's unit began the season with a thirty-two and one record and ended with thirty-one consecutive victories. They scored nearly 1,000 runs and finished the season with a 124-71 record. Their win total is elevated to 138-11-2 when Cuban Winter League games are added. They played 64 games in the Chicago portion of their schedule. These games are equivalent to a home schedule for National and American League teams. Foster's Giants finished with a landmark 57-6-1 record for games played in Chicago. That Foster, John Henry Lloyd, and John Pete Hill, three members of the 1910 Leland Giants, are enshrined in Baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York, is worthy of closer observation. And yet Bruce Petway, Frank Wickware, and Grant Home Run Johnson should be there too. Thus Phil Dixon's American Baseball Chronicles Volume II Great Teams enters the illustrious conversation. The Leland Giants story is uniquely told here in a day-to-day account of every exciting win and every memorable thrill. The comparative scores and related histories are a resourceful and entertaining aid for further analysis of the participation of African American athletes in baseball, as best represented by one legendary team in a single championship season. The Baseball Chronicle Larry Burke, Paul Ladewski, 1995-02-01 Phil Dixon's American Baseball Chronicles Great Teams: The 1905 Philadelphia Giants, Volume III Phil S. Dixon, 2010-02-19 Philadelphia's 1905 African American Giants were the first team of the last century to score 1,000 runs. Organized in 1902 by Harry A. Smith and H. Walter Schlichter, the Giants were managed by veteran player-manager Solomon Sol White. In 1904, the Giants defeated the Cuban X Giants to claim their first World's Championship, a title that they held for many years. The White-led 1905 Philadelphia Giants featured, among others, outfielder Pete Hill, third baseman Bill Monroe, first baseman Mike Moore, second baseman Charlie Grant, and pitchers Emmett Bowman and Dan McClellan. White, Hill, and Foster are currently enshrined in Cooperstown Baseball Hall of Fame. Paced by Grant Home Run Johnson, the most powerful home run hitter in baseball along with Andrew Rube Foster, one of baseball's best pitchers, White's 1905 Philadelphia Giants finished the season with a magnificent 134-23-2 record. This is their story, uniquely told here for the first time in a day-to-day account of every exciting hit and every legendary strike out. In honor of the 1905 Philadelphia Giants' contribution to our American pastime, Dixon's American Baseball Chronicles has compiled statistics and game notes from the entire championship season. Included within the book are written accounts for every game from the Philadelphia Giants' entire 1905 schedule of nearly 158 contests, with scores, attendance figures, and other seldom revealed information The work includes additional information on more than 300 additional games played by the Cuban X Giants Chicago Leland Giants Brooklyn Royal Giants and other African American teams in operation during that same 1905 season The comparative scores and related histories are a resourceful and entertaining aid for further analysis and assessment on the participation of African American athletes in baseball as best represented by one legendary team in a single championship season Phil Dixon's American Baseball Chronicles Great Teams: the 1931 Homestead Grays, Volume I Phil S. Dixon, 2009-10-31 The Greatest Baseball team of all time easily describes the 1931 Homestead Grays They remain a team never to be forgotten a team that rates with the greatest teams in all of baseball history Organized in 1910 baseball s Homestead Grays of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania an exclusively African American team held claim to a regional championship and also a legitimate claim to baseball s World Championship The Grays well known leader was Hall of Famer Cumberland Posey His 1931 Grays featured among others Hall of Fame third baseman Jud Wilson Hall of Fame infielder Oscar Charleston a Hall of Fame catcher in Josh Gibson and two Hall of Fame pitchers in Willie Foster and Joseph Smokey Joe Williams a total of five legendary players Paced by young Josh Gibson age 18 and the most powerful home run hitter in baseball Posey s 1931 Homestead Grays finished with a magnificent 143 29 2 record This is their story told here for the first time Included within the text are written accounts for every game from the Homestead Grays entire 1931 schedule of nearly 175 contest with scores attendance figures and player biographies The work includes score and locations on more than 300 additional games played by the Kansas City Monarchs Hilldale Baltimore s Black Sox the Cuban House of David New York s Harlem Stars and other African American teams in operation during that same 1931 season The comparative scores and their related histories are a resourceful and entertaining aid for further analysis and assessment on the participation of African American athletes in baseball as best represented from the perspective of a single championship season Baseball Chronicles Mike Blake, 1994 Rich in baseball lore these pages are filled with 80 years of first person stories that take readers out to the old ball game Complete with chapter opening lists of baseball history highlights 20th Century Baseball Chronicle Stephens Hanks, 1991-06-24 Traces baseball from 1900 to 1990 with a year by year season overview which recounts each year s biggest stories the pennant races the World Series the MVP s and the rising stars as well as each season s hottest controversies The CCC Chronicles Alfred Emile Cornebise, 2004-04-16 When Franklin Delano Roosevelt founded the Civilian Conservation Corps in 1933 newspapers relating to the organization were launched almost immediately Happy Days the semi official newspaper of the CCC and other such publications served as soundings boards for opinions among the CCC enrollees encouraged and instructed the men as they assumed their new roles and generally supported the aims of Roosevelt s New Deal program Happy Days also encouraged and instructed editors in the production of camp newspapers well over 5 000 were published by almost 3 000 of the CCC companies from 1933 to 1942 This book considers all phases of life in the CCC throughout its existence from various perspectives and analyzes the history of CCC camp journalism to say what links Eric Byrnes Tony Fernandez and Babe Ruth though these players made misplays every bit as egregious In this smart highly readable history of scapegoating John Billheimer identifies the elements that combine to condemn one player to a life sentence while another gets a wrist slap for the same offense As it turns out the difference between a lower case e in some forgotten box score and a lifetime of ignominy can hinge on a number of factors including timing geography reputation misunderstanding media bias and just plain bad luck What Makes an Elite Pitcher? Warren N.

Wilbert,2010-07-27 Elite baseball pitchers are elite for a reason They seem to have it all a variety of pitches that no one can lay a bat to cool heads and confidence in their stuff when they get in a jam and the kind of dexterity that makes difficult plays seem easy Is elite status revealed through statistics Though the author of this book considers statistics of both the traditional and sabermetric sort he argues that the greats are proved not by broad statistical comparison with all other pitchers but by their record against one another In a thoughtful discussion of the evidence of head to head matchups he finds the nine pitchers who make up the true elite Cy Young Christy Mathewson Walter Johnson Grover Alexander Lefty Grove Warren Spahn Tom Seaver Roger Clemens and Greg Maddux For each pitcher the book provides biographical information career highlights and a list of the feats that put him in the record books
