Art Criticism and Modernism in the United States Stephen Moonie, 2022-03-22 This study is an analysis of high and late modernist criticism in New York during the 1960s and early 1970s Through a close reading of a selection of key critics of the period which will expand the remit beyond the canonical texts the book examines the ways that modernist criticism's discourse remains of especial disciplinary interest Despite its alleged narrowness and exclusion the debates of the 1960s raised fundamental questions concerning the nature of art writing Those include arguments around the nature of value and judgement the relationship between art criticism and art history and the related problem of what we mean by the contemporary Stephen Moonie argues that within those often fractious debates there exists a shared discourse And further contrary to the current consensus that modernists were elitist dogmatic and irrelevant to contemporary debates on art the study shows that there is much that we can learn from reconsidering their writings The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history modern art art criticism and literary studies

Hanke,2012-12-06 I Since the appearance in 1902 of Benedetto Croce's L'estetica come scienza dell'espressione e linguistica generale the problem of the ontology of the work of art or aesthetic object what kind of thing it is and what its mode of being is has come to occupy a central place in the philosophy of art Moreover a particular conception of the identity of art objects is at present a driving force in some quarters of the art world itself As Harold Rosenberg so well points out Minimalist or Reductive Art has attempted sometimes quite self consciously to establish the autonomous physical reality of the work of art by emptying it of all expressive and representational content What is the ontological problem One rather crude way of stating it is to ask where the work of art or object of aesthetic contemplation exists Is it to pick some examples to be identified with the material product of the artist's labors which exists spatially outside of and independently of artist and beholder Or does it exist only in the mind of the beholder or the artist Is it either one perception of a beholder or a series of his perceptions Or is it the class of all perceptions of either all spectators or all qualified spectators Put another way it would be a question of whether and to what such purported names as Beethoven's Fifth Symphony refer
