A Course of Mandarin Lessons, Based on Idiom. Revised Ed Calvin Wilson Mateer, 1898

The Journey of Xiao Tao Yisheng Lan, 2013-06 A red haired naughty boy Xiao Tao saw that a silly hare had hit its head accidentally against a tree trunk and died He picked up the hare gave it to his mom so she could make it into a delicious dinner He then waited near the trunk everyday hoping hares would come continuously and hit their heads against the tree His dad had gone to town on a trip and had told Xiao Tao to sow seeds in the farmland but Xiao Tao only concentrated on his plan of catching hares and forgot about the sowing Half a month later

Xiao Tao suddenly remembered his dad's order. He then sowed seeds in a rush. Seedlings grew very slowly because of the delay in time. For fear of dad's rebuke, Xiao Tao quietly got up at midnight to help the seedlings grow more quickly by pulling them upward. When Xiao Tao's dad came back home, he saw all of the seedlings lying down in the field with their roots exposed in the air. He knew that Xiao Tao had done this. Dad asked Xiao Tao why he had made this mess and wanted him to admit his fault. Xiao Tao did not acknowledge his mistake but instead said that this had been the hares' fault. Lately, no hares had come to hit their heads against the tree trunk, and so he had to wait patiently for them. Had it not been for the hares' fault, he would have remembered his task and would not have pulled the seedlings upward and would not have been criticized by dad. Xiao Tao's dad was so angry that he slapped Xiao Tao's face. Xiao Tao did not cry. Instead, he decided that he would leave home to visit various scenic spots and make a living wandering from place to place. In his adventurous journey, Xiao Tao experienced more than a few strange affairs, met many interesting people and animals, and learned a lot about the world. In the end, his trip turned the naughty boy into a good one.

The Chinese language has become a popular subject to study in recent years. However, because it is not an alphabetic language and is quite different from other languages, it is not very easy to learn. Are there any knacks to quicken the learning process? The answer is YES. The key to success lies in learning Chinese idioms. Chinese idioms are not just a play on words; they are the heart and soul of the language. There are roughly one thousand very popular idioms in Chinese, and among them, about half are most frequently in use. Many of them are very vivid and interesting. Learning Chinese idioms can greatly increase readers' interest and thus raise the speed of Chinese learning. This story about a boy's journey connects a series of 366 most frequently used Chinese idioms. Through reading and remembering this interesting story, readers will be able to learn Chinese efficiently. An idiom a day kicks the Chinese learning difficulty away. For understanding Chinese idioms, readers should read THE KEY OF THIS BOOK first and then use the notes that were inserted into the story. This book may function as a combination of a storybook and a textbook, with the story in the main body and the text in the notes. Readers can enjoy the story while they learn Chinese idioms at the same time, and on the same page. Many books in Chinese have characters in only one form, either the simplified form or the standardized form, i.e., the traditional form or the original complex form, but this book has both forms. Many books in Chinese have only one kind of phonetic notation, which is the Chinese phonetic alphabet or Chinese Pinyin notation, mandarin pronunciations with four tones, but this book has both Chinese mandarin pronunciations with four tones and English pronunciations. For readers' convenience, the author has summarized all idioms mentioned in the story and placed them at the end of this book. For
