The Eco Wars A Laymans Guide To The Ecology Movement:

The Eco Wars David Day,1991 The Eco Wars David Day,1989 Environmental Crime and its Victims Toine Spapens,Rob White,Marieke Kluin,2016-05-06 Environmental crime is one of the most profitable and fastest growing areas of international criminal activity These types of crime however do not always produce an immediate consequence and the harm may be diffused As such the complexity of victimization in terms of time space impact and who or what is victimized is one of the reasons why governments and the enforcement community have trouble in finding suitable and effective responses This book provides a diverse and provocative array of arguments critiques and recommendations from leading researchers and scholars in the field of green criminology The chapters are divided into three main sections the first part deals with specific characteristics of some of the major types of environmental crime and its perpetrators the second focuses explicitly on the problem of victimization in cases of environmental crime and the third addresses the question of how to tackle this problem Discussing these topics from the point of view of green criminological theory sociology law enforcement community wellbeing environmental activism and victimology this book will be of great interest to all those concerned about crime and the environment Human Ecology of Sikkim Kuldip Singh Gulia,2005 A historic view on the human ecology of sikkim the culture and structure of local ecosystems human ecosystems various richness of human ecosystems monasteries and the monastic architecture customs and their eco biological significances spirit possession shamans and Jhakis ethno botany and adaptations A complete guide to the tourist industry policy makers and scholars Green Backlash Andrew Rowell,1996 Exposes the political Right and industry as they fight back at environmental movements examines the threats and challenges and concludes how the environmental movement must re evaluate and change to overcome the backlash Making Another World Possible Peter Ryley,2013-07-18 Making Another World Possible identifies the British contribution to the genealogy of modern green and anti capitalist thinking by examining left libertarian ideologies in the late 19th and early 20th century Britain and highlighting their influence on present day radical thought As capitalism heralded the triumph of technology greater production and a new urban industrial society some imagined alternatives to this notion of progress based on endless economic growth The book examines the development of ideas from these dissidents who included communists class warriors free thinkers secularists and Christian communarians All shared the same beliefs that the benefits of industrialism could only be realized through equality and that urban culture depended on a healthy agriculture and harmony with the natural world concerns that are still of great importance today This distinctive history of anarchist ideas reappraises the work of thinkers and revises the historical picture of the radical milieu in 19th and 20th century Britain It will be an essential resource to anyone researching the history of ideas and studying anarchism Technology and Terrorism Paul Wilkinson,2012-12-06 This volume will be of interest to all students of terrorism policymakers and security practitioners involved in combating terrorism from government officials law enforcement military and intelligence agencies to specialists in industrial security including the aviation and nuclear power sectors Technology and Terrorism Paul Wilkinson,1993 Does modern technology tilt the balance in favour of the terrorists in their constant battle to defeat the efforts of counter terrorist agencies or vice versa How can we assess the feasibility and probability of terrorists in certain circumstances resorting to nuclear chemical or biological weapons Bearing in mind that terrorists have already resorted to mass murder in the form of sabotage bombing of airliners tragically demonstrated in the 1988 bombing of Pan Am 103 over Lockerbie how effective have the aviation authorities been in using technology and other measures to combat this threat Hot, Hotter, Hottest Vivian Howard,2002-05-14 The YA Hotline is a unique newsletter written by graduate students in the Young Adult Literature and Media Interests class in the School of Library and Information Studies at Dalhousie University Hot Hotter Hottest The Best of the YA Hotline consists of selected articles from issues 44 to 64 This collection of articles from The YA Hotline is useful not only for YA librarians but also for teachers and other educators and program coordinators working with young adults The Motherly Earth Joseph Peruma,2002 Environment ,1992 Conservation Biology Ian F. Spellerberg,1996 This text is a broad introduction to ideas in ecology set in the context of global environmental change The book incorporates case studies of conservation in practice written by a series of contributors each an expert in their own field From Apocalypse to Genesis Anne Primavesi,1990-12-31 Noah's Choice David Day,1990 Relates the events which led to the extinction of different animals including the Dodo Bali tiger and the N Z bird the Huia also tells of successes in bringing different species back from the brink of extinction Conserving America David J. Whittaker,1996 The purpose of this bibliography is to list the significant studies of American environment history found in the British Library Preface

Unveiling the Whale Arne Kalland,2009 Whaling has become one of the most controversial environmental issues It is not that all whale species are at the brink of extinction but that whales have become important symbols to both pro and anti whaling factions and can easily be appropriated as the common heritage of humankind This book the first of its kind is therefore not about whales and whaling per se but about how people communicate about whales and whaling It contributes to a better understanding and discussion of controversial environmental issues Why and how are issues selected How is knowledge on these issues produced and distributed by organizations and activists And why do affluent countries like Japan and Norway still support whaling which is of insignificant economic importance Basing his analysis on fieldwork in Japan and Norway and at the International Whaling Commission the author argues how an image of a superwhale has been constructed and how this image has replaced meat and oil as the important whale commodity He concludes that the whaling issue provides an arena where NGOs and authorities on each side can unite swapping political legitimacy and building personal relations that can be useful on issues where relations are less harmonious Compassionate Beasts Lyle Munro,2001 Munro reviews major tenants of animal activism including the history of the social movement hot button issues such as experimentation and hunting and strategic efforts to change social values World Peace Santinath Chattopadhyay,2005

The present volume on WORLD PEACE has been published to expound the creative essence of man as Peace Within through the expansion of scientific philosophical and aesthetic states of his being as the several stages of manifestations of sociocultural harmony as Peace Without This process puts much emphasis upon the inherent dignity and rights of all people of the World in developing justice freedom and peace Library Bulletin Great Britain. Depts. of the Environments and Transport. Library Services,1989 Ethics John K. Roth,2005
