

The Camp David accords

- Camp David agreements began on September 5th, 1978 and lasted for 13 days.
- While Carter's relation with Sadat was excellent, with Begin, his relation was far more tense.
- Egypt would drop its demand that Israel commit itself explicitly and in advance to eventual withdrawal from the Palestinian territories in exchange for Israeli agreement to give up the northern Sinai settlements and air bases along the Sinai itself.
- It was agreed that :
 - Israeli forces to be withdrawn from Sinai.
 - Egypt to regain all of Sinai within three years.
 - Israeli shipping to have free passage through the Suez Canal and the straits of Tiran.
 - The Egyptian economic boycott was to be lifted and economic relations to be established.
