The Economics Of Honour Biblical Reflections On Money And Property:

The Economics of Honour Roelf L. Haan, 1988 The Economics of Honor Roelf Haan, 2009-02-05 In The Economics of Honor Roelf Haan walks through the Bible from Genesis to Revelation but blazes an unfamiliar trail Through careful exegesis he draws economic lessons from surprising passages and challenges conventional interpretations of some of Jesus's parables Along the way Haan draws on a broad spectrum of thinkers including John Calvin Jacques Ellul Rene Girard John Maynard Keynes a number of Latin American liberation theologians and feminist Germaine Greer Further Haan draws on his own experience of living in Latin America for several years and the book reflects his deep knowledge of Latin American history from early Spanish colonization to the repressive military dictatorships of the late twentieth century Publisher The Value of Money Catherine Cowley, 2006-06-02 Offers an ethical examination of global finance which is both theologically and economically literate This book also examines the effect of money on our understanding of freedom of the market itself and of the ethical issues arising from this for individuals the sector and for society as a whole Foundations for African Theological Ethics James Nkansah-Obrempong, 2013-05-14 Having taught on ethics in Africa for almost a decade James Nkansah Obrempong presents a work that goes some way to addressing the dearth of materials on ethics that combine African social religious cultural and moral values with biblical and theological values Integrating these from African Western and biblical contexts Nkansah demonstrates how important they are for dealing with contemporary moral and social issues facing the church in Africa and African societies The book develops a theoretical biblical and theological foundation for Theological Ethics and uses this to address the broader issues that affect the socio political and economic life of African people and the church Faith in Christ Today Invitation to Systematic Theology Klaus Nurnberger, 2016-06-29 In Volume I the author analyses the Word of God and the response of the Christian community in a lucid and accessible way In this second volume he interprets the classical assertions of the Christian faith in terms of God's creative and redemptive project in the world of today His experiential approach is meant to restore the credibility vibrancy and relevance of faith in Christ for our times Stories Economists Tell John P. Tiemstra, 2012-12-19 A Christian approach to economic analysis requires that humans be thought of not as maximizing their own private economic welfare but rather as making moral choices with their resources Professor Tiemstra lays out the methodology of this approach in the first section of this book He then applies it to real economic problems including poverty and economic justice environmental sustainability and globalization Holy War in Ancient Israel Gerhard von Rad, 2000-04-17 Since the beginning holy war has been viewed as a sacred institution and a cultic act of religious community by the people of Israel Appearing here in English for the first time Gerhard von Rad has provided a definitive study of the theory of holy war and its development throughout biblical history Von Rad gives a definitive and articulate exposition of a typically disturbing theme within the Old Testament arguing that holy war is not only Yahweh acting alone but inspired Israelites who because they envisioned God fighting on their behalf felt obligated and inspired to fight even more fervently Calvinism for a Secular Age Jessica R. Joustra, Robert J. Joustra, 2022-02-08 Pastor politician and Dutch Neo Calvinist theologian Abraham Kuyper's lectures on the role of Christian faith in politics science and art have become a touchstone of contemporary Reformed theology Revisiting these lectures Jessica and Robert Joustra bring together theologians historians scientists and others to consider Kuyper's ongoing importance and complex legacy for today

Stations of the Banquet Cathy C. Campbell, 2003 A Scripture based exploration of the Christian story of salvation as a food story which provides nourishment for those engaged in living out the food and justice challenges of the Gospel The book highlights the power of our Biblical and theological traditions to name the root issues of our day shape our hope and define the horizons for action It is a resource for study and prayer The author explores in her ministry how individuals and parishes may live out the food and justice dimensions of the Gospel The Oxford Handbook of Christianity and Economics Paul Oslington, 2014-01-31 Many important contemporary debates cross economics and religion in turn raising questions about the relationship between the two fields This book edited by a leader in the new interdisciplinary field of economics and religion and with contributions by experts on different aspects of the relationship between economics and Christianity maps the current state of scholarship and points to new directions for the field It covers the history of the relationship between economics and Christianity economic thinking in the main Christian traditions and the role of religion in economic development as well as new work on the economics of religious behavior and religious markets and topics of debate between economists and theologians It is essential reading for economists concerned with the foundations of their discipline historians moral philosophers theologians seeking to engage with economics and public policy researchers and practitioners

The Ecumenical Review , 1993 Missional Economics Michael Barram, 2018-05-24 American Christians today says Michael Barram have a significant blind spot when it comes to economic matters in the Bible In this book Barram reads biblical texts related to matters of money wealth and poverty through a missional lens showing how they function to transform our economic reasoning Barram searches for insight into God's purposes for economic justice by exploring what it might look like to think and act in life giving ways in the face of contemporary economic orthodoxies The Bible repeatedly tells us how to treat the poor and marginalized Barram says and faithful Christians cannot but reflect carefully and concretely on such concerns Written in an accessible style this biblically rooted study reflects years of research and teaching on social and economic justice in the Bible and will prove useful for lay readers preachers teachers students and scholars

Elenchus of Biblica , 1993 Mission and Money Mari-Anna Auvinen-Pöntinen, Jonas Adelin Jørgensen, 2016-05-30 Mission and Money Christian Mission in the Context of Global Inequalities offers academic discussion about the mission of the Church in the context of contemporary economic inequalities globally challenging the reader to reconsider mission in the light of existing poverty and investigating how economic structures could be challenged in the light of ethical and spiritual considerations The book includes contributions on the subjects of poverty and inequality from the theologians economists and anthropologists who gave keynote presentations at the European Missiological Conference IAMS Europe that took place in April 2014 in Helsinki Finland This conference was a major step forward in terms of discussion between missiologists and economists on global economic structures and their influence on human dignity Contributors are Mari Anna Auvinen P ntinen Stephen B Bevans Jonathan J Bonk Ulrich Duchrow Jonas Adelin J rgensen Vesa Kanniaainen Veli Matti K rkk inen Tinyiko Sam Maluleke Gerrie Ter Haar Evi Voulgaraki Pissina Mika V h kangas Felix Wilfred Capitalism, Socialism, Christianity, and Poverty D. Reuschling,2012-09-21 For many Christians spirituality and ethics are in separate mental and experiential compartments Spirituality may be understood as an inner experience while ethics is focused on decisions or positions on issues Both of these views reduce spirituality and morality in Christian faith and practice and ignore the centrality of desire for God and the things of God as key focal points for spiritual and moral formation These aspects of Christian formation must be located in their scriptural and theological contexts in order to understand more fully what God desires for human life This focus on desire provides content and context to Christian spirituality and morality We are drawn outward to focus on God and the good of others while we learn to embody virtues such as compassion courage self control gratitude humility and hope Practices are crucial ways by which we learn to incarnate our ultimate desire of love for God and for what God desires in the pursuit of justice and goodness for all creation In so doing practices enable us to more fully integrate spiritual and moral growth in the processes of our desire for God and the things of God Calvinismo para uma Era Secular Jessica R.
