The Emotions Outline Of A Theory By Sartre Jean Paul Frechtman Bernard:

The Emotions Jean-Paul Sartre, 2012-01-17 One of the leading twentieth century French existentialist philosophers examines how human emotions shape our existence In The Emotions Outline of a Theory French philosopher Jean Paul Sartre attempts to understand the role emotions play in the human psyche Sartre analyzes fear lust anguish and melancholy while asserting that human beings begin to develop emotional capabilities from a very early age which helps them identify and understand the emotions names and qualities later in life Helping to complete the circle of Sartre s many theories on existentialism this vital piece of literature is a must have for the philosopher in training s collection The Emotions, Outline of a Theory Jean-Paul Sartre, 1948 The Emotions, Outline of a Theory Jean-Paul Sartre, 1993 The Philosophy of Jean-Paul Sartre Jean-Paul Sartre, 2003-05-27 This unique selection presents the essential elements of Sartre s lifework organized systematically and made available in one volume for the first time in any language The Philosophical Contexts of Sartre's The Wall and Other Stories Kevin W. Sweeney, 2016-05-16 The Philosophical Contexts of Sartre s The Wall and Other Stories Stories of Bad Faith presents a philosophical analysis of all five stories in Sartre s short story collection Kevin W Sweeney argues that each of the five stories has its own philosophical idea or problem that serves as the context for the narrative Sartre constructs each story as a reply to the philosophical issue in the context and as support for his position on that issue In the opening story The Wall Sartre uses the Constant Kant debate to support his view that the story s protagonist is responsible for his ally s death The Room presents in narrative form Sartre s criticism that the Freudian Censor is acting in bad faith In Erostratus Sartre opposes Descartes s claim in his hats and coats example that we recognize the humanity of others by using our reason In Intimacy Sartre again opposes a Cartesian position this time the view that our feelings reveal our emotions Sartre counters that Cartesian view by showing that the two women in the story act in bad faith because they do not distinguish their feelings from their emotions The last story The Childhood of a Leader shows how the protagonist acts in bad faith in trying to resolve the question of who he is by appealing to the view that one s roots in nature can provide one with a substantial identity The stories are unified by showing the characters in all five narratives engaged in different acts of bad faith The Philosophical Contexts of Sartre s The Wall and Other Stories is written for scholars interested in Jean Paul Sartre s early literary and philosophical work as well as for students interested in Sartre and twentieth century French literature The Emotions Jean-Paul Sartre, Bernard Frechtman, 1993 Pragmatic Rationalism: An Introduction Frank Robert Vivel, 2013-07-16 Pragmatic rationalism is a coherent blend of elements from Epicureanism Stoicism Empiricism and Existentialism It holds that the ultimate goal of life is happiness individual happiness identified as psychic tranquility or untroubledness and attempts to pursue that goal in the most practical efficacious manner possible Accordingly it emphasizes investing this pursuit in the only things we each control our thoughts and feelings and minimizing desire for and reliance on all things external to us and therefore not under our control such as wealth and fame It insists that individuals choose and therefore are responsible for all they think and feel It rejects all emotionalism and belief systems and instead relies on induction and probability to guide decision making and behavior Though an egoistic and hedonistic philosophy from the individual's perspective it nevertheless advocates the Golden Rule as the most useful guiding principle in interaction with others

Automotive Prosthetic Charissa N. Terranova, 2014-01-15 In the twenty first century we are continually confronted with the existential side of technology the relationships between identity and the mechanizations that have become extensions of the self Focusing on one of humanity's most ubiquitous machines Automotive Prosthetic Technological Mediation and the Car in Conceptual Art combines critical theory and new media theory to form the first philosophical analysis of the car within works of conceptual art These works are broadly defined to encompass a wide range of creative expressions particularly in car based conceptual art by both older established artists and younger emerging artists including Ed Ruscha Martha Rosler Richard Prince Sylvie Fleury Yael Bartana Jeremy Deller and Jonathan Schipper At its core the book offers an alternative formation of conceptual art understood according to technology the body moving through space and what art historian curator and artist Jack Burnham calls relations This thought provoking study illuminates the ways in which the automobile becomes a naturalized extension of the human body incarnating new forms of car art and spurring a technological reframing of conceptual art Steeped in a sophisticated take on the image and semiotics of the car the chapters probe the politics of materialism as well as high low debates about taste culture and art The result is a highly innovative approach to contemporary intersections of art and technology

Libido Alphonso Lingis, 1985 Alphonso Lingis's engaging book studies the phenomenological and postphenomenological theories of sexuality of six contemporary French philosophers Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Emmanuel Levinas Jean Fran ois Lyotard Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari After centuries of philosophical silence on the matter these writers during the last forty years have undertaken the first extended exploration of human sexuality in Western philosophical literature Lingis presents the arguments developed by the six philosophers critically assesses them and offers his own explanation of how the libidinal body can be characterized what the libidinal drive is and what alterity commands in the erotic imperative

Passionate Views Carl Plantinga, Greg M. Smith, 1999-04-23 The movie theater has always been a place where people come together to share powerful emotional experiences from the fear generated by horror films and the anxiety induced by thrillers to the laughter elicited by screwball comedies and the tears precipitated by melodramas Indeed the dependability of movies to provide such experiences lies at the center of the medium's appeal and power Yet cinema's ability to influence even manipulate the emotions of the spectator is one of the least explored topics in film theory today In Passionate Views thirteen internationally recognized scholars of film studies philosophy and psychology explore the emotional appeal of the cinema Employing a novel cognitive perspective the volume investigates the relationship between genre and emotion explores how film narrative music and cinematic techniques such as the close up are used to elicit emotion and examines the spectator's identification with and response to film characters An impressive range of films and topics is brought together by Carl Plantinga and Greg M Smith including the success of Stella Dallas and An Affair to Remember as tearjerkers the power of Night of the Living Dead to inspire fear and disgust the sublime evoked in The Passion of Joan of Arc Aguirre the Wrath of God and The Children of Paradise the emotional basis of film comedy as seen in When Harry Met Sally the use of cinematic cues in Raiders of the Lost Ark and Local Hero to arouse emotions the relationship between narrative flow and emotion in Once Upon a Time in the West and E T the emotive use of music in The Elephant Man and A Clockwork Orange Stranger than Paradise s sense of timing desire and resolution in Casablanca audience identification with the main characters in Groundhog Day and The Crying Game portrayal of perversity in The Silence of the Lambs Flaming Creatures and Shivers and empathy elicited through closeups of actors faces in Yankee Doodle Dandy and Blade Runner Passionate Views offers a new approach to our understanding of film and will be of interest to anyone fascinated by the emotional power of motion pictures and their relationship to the central concerns of our lives as well as by the techniques filmmakers use to move an audience

Poststructuralism and Critical Theory's Second Generation Alan D. Schrift, 2014-09-11 Poststructuralism and Critical Theory s Second Generation analyses the major themes and developments in a period that brought continental philosophy to the forefront of scholarship in a variety of humanities and social science disciplines and that set the agenda for philosophical thought on the continent and elsewhere from the 1960s to the present Focusing on the years 1960 1984 the volume examines the major figures associated with poststructuralism and the second generation of critical theory the two dominant movements that emerged in the 1960s Althusser Foucault Deleuze Derrida Lyotard Irigaray and Habermas Influential thinkers such as Serres Bourdieu and Rorty who are not easily placed in standard histories of the period are also covered Beyond this thematic essays engage with issues as diverse as the Nietzschean legacy the linguistic turn in continental thinking the phenomenological inheritance of Gadamer and Ricoeur the influence of psychoanalysis the emergence of feminist thought and a philosophy of sexual difference the renewal of the critical theory tradition and the importation of continental philosophy into literary theory

Tymieniecka, 2006-08-27 Striking toward peace and harmony the human being is ceasely torn apart in personal social national life by wars feuds inequities and intimate personal conflicts for which there seems to be no respite Does the human condition in interaction with others imply a constant adversity Or is this conflict owing to an interior or external factor of evil governing our attitudes and conduct toward the other person To what criteria should I refer for appreciation judgment direction concerning my attitudes and my actions as they bear on the well being of others At the roots of these questions lies human experience which ought to be appropriately clarified before entering into speculative abstractions of the ethical theories and precepts Literature which in its very gist dwells upon disentangling in multiple perspective the peripeteia of our life experience offers us a unique field of source material for moral and ethical investigations Literature brings preeminently to light the Moral Sentiment which pervades our life with others our existence tout court Being modulated through the course of our experiences the Moral Sentiment sustains the very sense of literature and of personal human life Tymieniecka

The Sphere of Attention P. Sven Arvidson, 2006-02-22 The phone call came mid afternoon in February of 1996 The program chair for the annual meeting for the Southern Society of Philosophy and Psychology wanted to make sure he had the facts right This is somewhat unusual he began You re a philosophy professor who wants to present to psychologists in the psychology portion of the meeting That s right Well your paper was accepted for that part of the program but the others just wanted me to check and make sure that's where you want to be presenting That's right Reassured the professor wished me luck and said good bye In my session at the meeting I was the last to present As my time approached the medium sized room slowly became crowded I dreamed that these psychologists had left their other meetings early to make sure to catch my presentation on the use of metaphors in attention research As I arose to present I noticed that the half full room had become standing room only Finally after years of feeling as if I was struggling alone in promoting and defending a phenomenology of attention I had an eager audience for my message My persistence had paid off I delivered my message with passion

Shape-Shifting Capital George González, 2015-05-20 Shape Shifting Capital Spiritual Management Critical Theory and the Ethnographic Project is positioned at the intersection of anthropology critical theory and philosophy of religion First González explores the phenomena of workplace spirituality in a language that is accessible to a general readership Taking contemporary trends in organizational management as a case study he argues by way of a detailed ethnographic study of practitioners of workplace spirituality that the conceptual and institutional boundaries between religion science and capitalism are being redrawn by theologized management appropriations of tropes borrowed from creativity theory and quantum mechanics Second González makes a case for a critical anthropology of religion that combines existential concerns for biography and intentionality with poststructuralist concerns for power arguing that the ways in which the personalization of metaphor bridges personal and social histories also helps bring about broader epistemic shifts in society Finally in a postsecular age in which capitalism itself is explicitly and confidently spiritual González suggests that it is imperative to reorient our critical energies towards a present day evaluation of postmodern capitalism's boundary blurring González further argues that the kind of existential deconstruction performed by what he calls existential archeology can serve the needs of any social criticism of neoliberal religion and corporate spirituality Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1948 Includes Part 1A Books and Part 1B Pamphlets Serials and Contributions to Periodicals

The Existentialists Charles Guignon, 2004-10-26 This volume brings together for the first time some of the most helpful and insightful essays on the four most influential and discussed philosophers in the history of existentialism Kierkegaard Nietzsche Heidegger and Sartre The contributors write on such topics as Kierkegaard's knight of faith and his diagnosis of the present age Nietzsche's view of morality and self creation Heidegger's accounts of worldhood and authenticity and Sartre's ontology ethics and conception of the cogito The essays have been selected for their higher level of scholarship and for their ability to illuminate various aspects of their subject's work The volume is enhanced by the editor's introduction and extensive bibliography to aid further study Emotional Lives E. Doyle McCarthy, 2017-05-04 Emotional Lives explores the changes in emotional cultures that have taken place during the last half century and continue to affect people's identities today These changes are driven by the culture of consumerism in contemporary post industrial society and by the emergence of new ideas about public and private life in a time when media culture generates new forms of social relationships and deep personal attachments to celebrity figures McCarthy shows that people are drawn to public life not only for entertainment and pleasure but also for its dramas for memorializing events like disasters acts of violence and victimhood McCarthy s cultural sociological approach provides new insights about emotions as social things and reveals how today s mass media is an important force for cultural change including changes in people s relationships identities and emotions
