The Emperor Redressed Critiquing Critical Theory:

The Emperor Redressed Dwight Eddins, 2014-07-14 The essays in this volume represent a collective questioning of the poststructuralist ascendancy and of the assumptions involved therein by a group of prominent scholars and critics M H Abrams Nina Baym Frederick Crews Ihab Hassan David Lehman Richard Levin Paisley Livingston Saul Morson and John Searle Assembled at The University of Alabama for the 1992 symposium from which this book takes its title these scholars were charged with the task of examining the truth value methodology practice and humanistic status of poststructuralist theories and with speculating on what their conclusions portend for the future of theory Some of the deficiencies uncovered in the emperor's apparel include the failure of poststructuralist theory to answer to the complexities of literary experience its tendency to be self-ratifying its betrayal of the feminist achievement its conflation of style and logic its attempt to impose apocalyptic finalities on history's open-endedness and its ignorance of much in current language philosophy The writings of Jacques Derrida in particular come in for skeptical scrutiny by Abrams Livingston and Searle The book concludes with a lively panel discussion in which the audience joins the fray The Future of Feminist Eighteenth-Century Scholarship Robin Runia, 2017-11-10 There is an unfortunate argument being made that feminist scholarship of eighteenth-century literary studies has fulfilled its potential in academic circles The Future of Eighteenth-Century Feminist Scholarship Beyond Recovery shows us otherwise Each of the essays in this volume reaffirms the feminist principles that form the foundation of this area then builds upon them by acknowledging the inevitable conflicts they or their subjects have faced and the contradictions they or their subjects have lived Critiquing Free Speech Matthew D. Bunker, 2001-04 This monograph addresses free speech arguing that while interdisciplinary approaches can be useful legal scholars must avoid distorting issues by using vocabularies and tools that do not reflect complexities of 1st Amendment The Fourth Dimension of a Poem: and Other Essays M. H. Abrams, 2012-09-03 A new collection of essays by the legendary literary scholar and critic In the year of his one hundredth birthday preeminent literary critic scholar and teacher M H Abrams brings us a collection of nine new and recent essays that challenge the reader to think about poetry in new ways In these essays three of them never before published Abrams engages afresh with pivotal figures in intellectual and literary history among them Kant Keats and Hazlitt The centerpiece of the volume is Abrams's eloquent and incisive essay The Fourth Dimension of a Poem on the pleasure of reading poems aloud accompanied by online recordings of Abrams's revelatory readings of poems such as William Wordsworth's Surprised by Joy Alfred Tennyson's Here Sleeps the Crimson Petal and Ernest Dowson's Cynara The collection begins with a foreword by Abrams's former student Harold Bloom The Fourth Dimension of a Poem M. H. Abrams, 2012-09-03 A new collection of essays by the legendary literary scholar and critic In the year of his one hundredth birthday preeminent literary critic scholar and teacher M H Abrams brings us a collection of nine new and recent essays that challenge the reader to think about poetry in new ways In these essays three of them never before published Abrams engages afresh with pivotal figures in intellectual and literary history among them Kant Keats and Hazlitt The centerpiece of the volume is Abrams s eloquent and incisive essay The Fourth Dimension of a Poem on the pleasure of reading poems aloud accompanied by online recordings of Abrams s revelatory readings of poems such as William Wordsworth s Surprised by Joy Alfred Tennyson s Here Sleeps the Crimson Petal and Ernest Dowson s Cynara The collection begins with a foreword by Abrams s former student Harold Bloom

Theory's Empire Daphne Patai, Wilfrido Corral, 2005-04-20 Not too long ago literary theorists were writing about the death of the novel and the death of the author today many are talking about the death of Theory Theory as the many theoretical isms among them postcolonialism postmodernism and New Historicism are now known once seemed so exciting but has become ossified and insular This iconoclastic collection is an excellent companion to current anthologies of literary theory which have embraced an uncritical stance toward Theory and its practitioners Written by nearly fifty prominent scholars the essays in Theory s Empire question the ideas catchphrases and excesses that have let Theory congeal into a predictable orthodoxy More than just a critique however this collection provides readers with effective tools to redeem the study of literature restore reason to our intellectual life and redefine the role and place of Theory in the academy

The Invention of the Biblical Scholar Stephen D. Moore, Yvonne Sherwood, In this tale of two disciplines Stephen D Moore and Yvonne Sherwood invite the reader into a paradox just as the wider field of literary studies has now come to operate after theory biblical scholars continue their long search for an elusive Holy Grail a definitive literary critical theory Understanding that paradox requires revisiting the peculiar history by which the curious figure of the biblical scholar was invented during the Enlightenment and how contemporary biblical scholarship continues however unwittingly to pursue Enlightenment goals

The Bible in Theory Stephen D. Moore, 2010 The sixteen essays assembled in this volume four of them co authored chart the successive phases of a professional life lived in the interstices of Bible and theory Engaging such texts as the Song of Songs 4 Maccabees Mark Luke Acts John and Romans and such themes as the quest for the historical Jesus the essays simultaneously traverse postmodernism deconstruction New Historicism autobiographical criticism cultural studies postcolonial studies masculinity studies queer theory and posttheory Individual essay introductions and periodic annotated bibliographies make the volume an advanced introduction to biblical literary criticism From publisher s description

Post-Theory, Culture, Criticism, 2016-09-12 Post Theory Culture Criticism offers a collection of essays that provide provocative re articulations of theory culture and criticism It contains distinguished and original work by a number of leading and emerging figures within cultural and critical theory and cultural studies who believe that all of the above is in urgent need of theoretical and practical exploration In probing the feasibility and desirability of theory s re articulation the essays demonstrate that theory can only reinvent itself as worthwhile post theory through its own critical self revaluation Jacket

Reason and the Nature of Texts James L. Battersby, 2016-11-11 Many of today s most prominent critics and teachers of literature insist on the endless deferral of textual meaning and on the social construction of meaning and thought Against these markers of current critical theory James L Battersby argues for the authorial construction of determinate textual meaning insisting that to think about anything at all we must be able to refer to it and that such references are necessarily the semantic consequences of an author's deliberate intentional acts Propelling Battersby's argument is his use of principles and arguments drawn from current philosophical literature on language and mind Battersby reveals the philosophical shortcomings and argumentative weaknesses of some of the most prominent and influential doctrines in critical theory today especially and principally those that inform and define postmodernism in both its linguistic and historicist materialist modes As he argues for a fresh conception of our understanding of language mind and meaning Battersby probes the critical positions of among others Stanley Fish Mikhail Bakhtin Paul de Man and Jacques Derrida Making room for an alternative and Battersby asserts more intellectually appealing framework requires a skeptical dissection of the linguistic and historicist tenets that form the foundation of poststructuralism The striking outcome of his effort is a book as lively erudite theoretically informed and provocative as his earlier Paradigms Regained Teaching

Literary Theory Using Film Adaptations Kathleen L. Brown, 2009-03-12 This volume introduces ways to use film to ease the difficulty of introducing complex literary theories to students By coupling works of literature with attendant films and with critical essays the author provides instructors with accessible avenues for encouraging classroom discussion Literary theories covered in depth are psychoanalytic criticism The Awakening and film adaptations The End of August and Grand Isle cultural criticism A Streetcar Named Desire and its 1951 film version and thematic criticism Ode to Intimations of Immortality from Recollections of Early Childhood and the film adaptation Splendor in the Grass Other theories are used to clarify and support those referred to above The work then includes a survey of the image patterns into which film adaptation theories can be grouped and how these theories relate to traditional literary theory Natural Law & the Secular Mythos Gregory

Morgan, 2025-02-20 This book argues that natural law when construed as an epistemological and trans cultural lingua franca adjudged capable of legitimating the rational intelligibility and universal applicability of specific Christian moral principles within contemporary secular discourse has failed Through a detailed analysis of the contributions of three prominent natural law theorists who are located within a shared philosophical theological tradition namely John Finnis Jean Porter and John Milbank the text illuminates the extent to which this failure is as much intramural as it is extramural Morgan explores how new horizons open up for natural law if the theological unsaid's are allowed to surface and the disremembering power of the secular mythos is overcome The final chapter's of the book addresses one such horizon that the theoretical fulcrum of the natural law lies not in its perceptual self evidence or in its immanent secularity but rather in its subtle provision of an immanent eschatology Mindful Aesthetics Chris Danta, Helen Groth, 2013-11-07 In the last few decades literary critics have increasingly drawn insights from cognitive neuroscience to deepen and clarify our understanding of literary representations of mind This cognitive turn has been equally generative and contentious While cognitive literary studies has reinforced how central the concept of mind is to aesthetic practice from the classical period to the present critics have questioned its literalism and selective borrowing of scientific authority Mindful Aesthetics presents both these perspectives as part of a broader consideration of the ongoing and vital importance of shifting concepts of mind to both literary and critical practice This collection contributes to the forging of a new interdisciplinarity to paraphrase Alan Richardson s recent preface to the Neural Sublime that is more concerned with addressing how rather than why we should navigate the increasingly narrow gap between the humanities and the sciences

Historicizing Theory Peter C. Herman, 2012-02-01 Historicizing Theory provides the first serious examination of contemporary theory in relation to the various twentieth century historical and political contexts out of which it emerged Theory a broad category that is often used to encompass theoretical approaches as varied as deconstruction New Historicism and postcolonialism has often been derided as a mere relic of the 1960s In order to move beyond such a simplistic assessment the essays in this volume examine such important figures as Harold Bloom Paul de Man Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault Stephen Greenblatt and Edward Said situating their work in a variety of contexts inside and outside of the 1960s including World War II the Holocaust the Algerian civil war and the canon wars of the 1980s In bringing us face to face with the history of theory Historicizing Theory recuperates history for theory and asks us to confront some of the central issues and problems in literary studies today

The Routledge Companion to Narrative Theory Paul Dawson, Maria Mäkelä, 2022-07-18 The Routledge Companion to Narrative Theory brings together top scholars in the field to explore the significance of narrative to pressing social cultural and theoretical issues How does narrative both inform and limit the way we think today From conspiracy theories and social media movements to racial politics and climate change future scenarios the reach is broad This volume is distinctive for addressing the complicated relations between the interdisciplinary narrative turn in the academy and the contemporary boom of instrumental storytelling in the public sphere The scholars collected here explore new theories of causality experientiality and fictionality challenge normative modes of storytelling and offer polemical accounts of narrative fiction nonfiction and video games Drawing upon the latest research in areas from cognitive sciences to complexity theory the volume provides an accessible entry point for those new to the myriad applications of narrative theory and a point of departure for new scholarship

A Theory of Literary Explication Kenneth B. Newell, 2011-07-12 This book presents current multidisciplinary research and theory from 17 different fields most of them never before applied to literary explication in order to provide 1 justification for the practice of a relative probability type of explication as distinguished from interpretation 2 a relativistic foundation for the preference of some explication s of a literary work over others and thereby 3 a middle way between the postmodern pluralist view that a work has only an unlimited number of equally acceptable though different explications and the modern intentionalist view that it has only one acceptable explication the author s Nine of the 17 fields are of primary relevance critical theory hermeneutics probability theory philosophy of science second order logic and four fields of cognitive science linguistics epistemology neuropsychology and artificial intelligence But the book also touches upon textual criticism legal theory measure theory fuzzy logic animal learning behavior developmental psychology evolutionary epistemology and neurobiology The book shows that those using a relative probability type of explication on a literary work can achieve consensus because the healthy adult human brain has an evolved uniform and probably innate ability to form relative probability judgments and to form them in the practice of activities like reading and explicating that are not uniform and innate Lastly the book contributes to the scholarly areas of explication theory and practice first by providing a relativistic foundation for a craft explication that currently is not acknowledged to have any foundation but nonetheless continues and will continue to be practiced and second by presenting a means relative epistemic probability by which judging some explication s of a literary work to be more acceptable than others may be justified philosophically an uncommon circumstance in this postmodern era in which philosophical justification of many beliefs and practices is thought to be untenable

Rhetoric and Pedagogy Winifred Bryan Horner, Michael Leff, Robert Gaines, Jean Dietz Moss, Beth S. Bennett, 2013-12-02 To provide a view of the history of western rhetoric this volume presents original articles by a number of world renowned scholars representing different countries and varying viewpoints In discussing the status of the historical perspectives on rhetoric these international scholars also present a tribute to James J Murphy whose scholarship and service did much to shape the field The book will introduce new insights into western European rhetoric and its connections with English rhetoric

America in Literature and Film Dr Ahmed Elbeshlawy, 2013-05-28 Utilizing Lacan s psychoanalytic theory and i ek s philosophical adaption of it this book brings into dialogue a series of modernist and postmodernist literary works films and critical theory that are concerned with defining America Ahmed Elbeshlawy demonstrates that how America is perceived in certain texts reveals not only the idealization or condemnation of it but an imago or constructed image of the perceiver as well In turn texts which particularly focus on demonstrating how other texts about America communicate an untrustworthy message themselves communicate an unreliable message inventing and reinventing a series of imagos of America These imagos refer to both idealized and deformed images of America constructed by the perceivers of America The first part of this book is concerned with modernist perceptions of America and includes discussion of Adorno Benjamin Kafka D H Lawrence as well as Emerson and Seymour Martin Lipset The second part is dedicated to postmodernist representations of America focusing on texts by Edward Said Ihab Hassan Susan Sontag David Shambaugh and Charles W Brooks and films including Lars von Trier s Dogville and D W Griffith s Birth of a Nation

Language, Truth, and Literature Richard Gaskin, 2013-04-18 Richard Gaskin offers an original defence of literary humanism according to which works of imaginative literature have an objective meaning which is fixed at the time of production and not subject to individual readers responses He shows that the appreciation of literature is a cognitive activity fully on a par with scientific investigation

Art and Intention Paisley Livingston, 2005-02-17 Do the artist s intentions have anything to do with the making and appreciation of works of art In Art and Intention Paisley Livingston develops a broad and balanced perspective on perennial disputes between intentionalists and anti intentionalists in philosophical aesthetics and critical theory He surveys and assesses a wide range of rival assumptions about the nature of intentions and the status of intentionalist psychology With detailed reference to examples from diverse media art forms and traditions he demonstrates that insights into the multiple functions of intentions have important implications for our understanding of artistic creation and authorship the ontology of art conceptions of texts works and versions basic issues pertaining to the nature of fiction and fictional truth and the theory of art interpretation and appreciation Livingston argues that neither the inspirationist nor rationalistic conceptions can capture the blending of deliberate and intentional spontaneous and unintentional processes in the creation of art Texts works and artistic structures and performances cannot be adequately individuated in the absence of a recognition of the relevant makers intentions The distinction between complete and incomplete works receives an action theoretic analysis that makes possible an elucidation of several different senses of fragment in critical discourse Livingston develops an account of authorship contending that the recognition of intentions is in fact crucial to our understanding of diverse forms of collective art making An artist s short term intentions and long term plans and policies interact in complex ways in the emergence of an artistic oeuvre and our uptake of such attitudes makes an important difference to our appreciation of the relations between items belonging to a single life work The intentionalism Livingston advocates is however a partial one and accomodates a number of important anti intentionalist contentions Intentions are fallible and works of art like other artefacts can be put to a bewildering diversity of uses Yet some important aspects of art s meaning and value are linked to the artist s aims and activities
