

The next day, the Emperor had everything arranged to see his new clothes. He summoned the Master of the Ceremonies, and the nobles, a knave  attended at the palace doors. The Duke and Duchess stood before the Emperor, and with pompous gestures, they presented to the eye and ear: "Great Majesty, we present only one article." The Emperor looked . The courtiers were shouting to see the Master of the Ceremonies said: "Emperor, see the wonder and the beauty of these!"

And he pointed to the pattern and the fabric of the robes. "The Chamberlains believe the Emperor thought: 'I know I'm not stupid, but people will think I am if any fabric I can't see the cloth. There he is, Emperor.' 'That's the reason to trust, along with the color the pattern and the fabric of the robes, of course!'" "Indeed!" Duke looked . "We will have the royal garments by tomorrow."

splendid clothes thought the Emperor If I had them on I could find out which men in my kingdom are unfit for the offices they hold I could distinguish the wise from the stupid Yes this cloth must be woven for me at once And he gave both the impostors much money so that they might begin their work They placed two weaving looms and began to do as if they were working but they had not the least thing on the looms They also demanded the finest silk and the best gold which they put in their pockets and worked at the empty looms till late into the night I should like very much to know how far they have got on with the cloth thought the Emperor But he remembered when he thought about it that whoever was stupid or not fit for his office would not be able to see it Now he certainly believed that he had nothing to fear for himself but he wanted first to send somebody else in order to see how he stood with regard to his office Everybody in the whole town knew what a wonderful power the cloth had and they were all curious to see how bad or how stupid their neighbour was I will send my old and honoured minister to the weavers thought the Emperor He can judge best what the cloth is like for he has intellect and no one understands his office better than he Now the good old minister went into the hall where the two impostors sat working at the empty weaving looms Dear me thought the old minister opening his eyes wide I can see nothing But he did not say so Both the impostors begged him to be so kind as to step closer and asked him if it were not a beautiful texture and lovely colours They pointed to the empty loom and the poor old minister went forward rubbing his eyes but he could see nothing for there was nothing there Dear dear thought he can I be stupid I have never thought that and nobody must know it Can I be not fit for my office No I must certainly not say that I cannot see the cloth Have you nothing to say about it asked one of the men who was weaving
