The Empty Hours A Study Of The Weekend Life Of Handicapped Children In Institutions:

Family Secrets Deborah Cohen, 2017 What did families hide in the past and why By delving into the familial dynamics of shame and guilt Family Secrets investigates the part that families so often regarded as the agents of repression have played in the transformation of social mores from the Victorian era to the present day

Parents and Young Mentally Handicapped Children Helen McConachie, 2016-01-08 First published in 1986 this book reviews research on the role parents play in fostering the early development of children with mental handicaps Professionals and parents must work together to give such children the chance of living as ordinary lives as possible and here the author develops a broadly based conceptual framework for the involvement of parents as teachers of their young handicapped children McConachie identifies characteristics of parents which seem of particular relevance to the design and success of intervention programmes Although written in the 1980s this book discusses topics that are still important today

Researching Learning Difficulties Jill Porter, Penny Lacey, 2005 The book will help readers to critically evaluate the implications of research reports for their own practice

The Politics of Childhoods Real and Imagined Priscilla Alderson, 2015-11-23 The second volume of Priscilla Alderson's popular and renowned book Childhoods Real and Imagined relates dialectical critical realism to childhood By demonstrating their relevance and value to each other Alderson presents a practical introductory guide for applying critical realism to research about children and young people Each chapter summarises key themes from several academic disciplines and policy areas ranging from climate change and social justice between generations to neoliberalism social reform and imagining utopias Children's and adults' views and experiences are reviewed and whereas the first volume deals with more personal and local aspects of childhood this volume widens the scope into debates about global politics which so seldom mention children Each chapter demonstrates how children and young people are an integral part of the whole of society and are often especially affected by policies and events This book is written for everyone who is researching studying or teaching about childhood or who cares for and works with children and young people as well as those interested in critical realist approaches

The Empty Hours Maureen Oswin, 1971

Mental health nursing Anne Borsay, Pamela Dale, 2015-07-01 This book seeks to integrate the history of mental health nursing with the wider history of institutional and community care It develops new research questions by drawing together a concern with exploring the class gender skills and working conditions of practitioners with an assessment of the care regimes staff helped create and patients' experiences of them Contributors from a range of disciplines use a variety of source material to examine both continuity and change in the history of care over two centuries The book benefits from a foreword by Mick Carpenter and will appeal to researchers and students interested in all aspects of the history of nursing and the history of care The book is also designed to be accessible to practitioners and the general reader

Current Issues in Clinical Psychology Eric Karas, 2012-12-06 This book is the second volume in the series Current Issues in Clinical Psychology which is designed to build into a composite text of the field of clinical psychology The contents of the series are based on the post qualification training conferences held each autumn in Merseyside These events organised by a sub group of the training committee of the Mersey Regional Group of Clinical Psychologists are unique in that they are the only annual psychology conferences in Britain focussing exclusively on clinical areas The opening paper of Volume 1 of the series emphasised the importance of the present disposition towards sustained clinical training for practising psychologists The series Current Issues in Clinical Psychology represents a contribution to this trend by offering practitioners an opportunity to assimilate innovations in clinical theory and practice in the young but vigorously developing discipline of clinical psychology In order to provide a forum for contemporary issues and also to produce complementary texts of lasting value it has been necessary to carefully select both the theme of each symposium and contributors able to fulfill these aims

Residential Child Care Andrew Kendrick, 2008 Draws on recent research to address key issues in residential child care policy and practice in the UK offering guidance for developing best practice and improved outcomes for children and young people

Daily Experience in Residential Life Juliet Berry, 2025-09-01 First published in 1975 Daily Experience in Residential Life based on questionnaires completed by students during their residential placements breaks new ground with fresh implications for social work training and practice The author first examines daily life experiences of children in a wide range of residential provision with particular reference to methods of handling uncooperative children second to consider effective ways of enabling caregivers to provide helpful rather than neutral or even punitive daily treatment Her findings suggest that children with similar needs differ greatly in the quality of care they receive and that variations particularly in methods of discipline and control depend less upon theoretical principles than upon their caregivers immediate pressures in practice Therefore her major recommendation also applicable to children in foster care day school or at risk in their own homes and to dependent adults either at home or in institutional care is that the caregivers themselves require appropriate ongoing experience of professional support in their very difficult task

Understanding Disability Sally French, John Swain, 2008-02-06 This book examines disability in an accessible and interactive style as it relates to healthcare policy and practice It is aimed at physiotherapists and occupational therapists both students and practitioners but will also be useful to all healthcare workers including nurses doctors and speech and language therapists Based on the social rather than the medical model of disability Views disability in terms of environmental structural and attitudinal barriers which deny disabled people full participation in society Engages health professionals in critical reflection on the provision of services to disabled people Case studies and activities throughout facilitate understanding of issues presented

Social Work with People with Learning Difficulties Paul Williams, Michelle Evans, 2013-04-15 Part of the Transforming Social Work Practice series this title intends to support students on the social work degree It seeks to confirm and strengthen social work values and principles so that the progress and successes achieved by Valuing People can continue

Routledge Revivals: Varieties of Residential Experience (1975) Jack Tizard, Ian

Sinclair,R. V. G. Clarke,2017-07-05 First published in 1975 this book compiles a number of studies concerning institutional care and children which address the question of why institutions that serve apparently similar functions differ so much The book uses comparative methods such as measurement of different dimensions of institutional care and analysis of interrelationships among specific structural and functional features which characterise particular institutions As a result the book draws broad conclusions about the importance of factors that have dynamic influence on the manner in which institutions function and the reasons why they differ The editors reject the steampress model which postulates that institutions are more or less alike They discuss ideological and organisational variation differences in staffing and the manner in which children respond to them and consider these issues as factors that influence the way in which an institution functions as a whole Subsequent chapters describe comparative studies carried out in institutions for the mentally handicapped approved schools residential nurseries probation hostels other correctional institutions and units for autistic children The book enables the reader to appreciate achievements and shortcomings of contemporary research and thinking in this field

Exploring Experiences of Advocacy by People with Learning Disabilities Duncan Mitchell,2006 This book charts the course through which people with learning disabilities have become increasingly able to direct their own lives as fully active members of their communities Many of the personal accounts photographs and songs included in this book will be accessible and encouraging to people with learning disabilities

Leaving Residential Care Jim Black,Paul Brearley,Penny Gutridge,Dr Gwyneth Roberts,Gwyneth Roberts,2013-07-04 Tavistock Press was established as a co operative venture between the Tavistock Institute and Routledge Kegan Paul RKP in the 1950s to produce a series of major contributions across the social sciences This volume is part of a 2001 reissue of a selection of those important works which have since gone out of print or are difficult to locate Published by Routledge 112 volumes in total are being brought together under the name The International Behavioural and Social Sciences Library Classics from the Tavistock Press Reproduced here in facsimile this volume was originally published in 1982 and is available individually The collection is also available in a number of themed mini sets of between 5 and 13 volumes or as a complete collection

Relationship-based Social Work with Adults Heidi Dix,Sue Hollinrake,Jennifer Meade,2025-02-28 There has been a resurgent interest in relationship based practice and the Care Act 2014 recognises the significance of effective working relationships with service users and carers to ensure a person centred approach and effective participation and co production The Care Act advocates a strengths based whole family approach to assessment care and support planning Relationship putting the person at the centre of the process lies at the heart of this approach This book is a practice based exploration of relationship based practice for social work with adults that looks at underpinning theory legislation and policy drivers value perspectives and skills in practice The first part of the book introduces relationship based practice and theoretical concepts such as psycho social and psycho dynamically informed approaches to practice which highlight the complexities of relationships at conscious and unconscious levels both from the service user carer perspective and the professional s perspective where reflection and use of self are key it critically explores the legislation and policy context A conceptual model called IDEAS is introduced which provides a framework for the second part of the book by breaking down the discussion into relevant practice issues Here theory skills and values are applied through case examples to illustrate the efficacy of relationship based practice across a range of practice settings in social work with adult service users and carers Children Apart Peter Rowlands,1974
