Buddhism, Christianity and the Question of Creation Perry Schmidt-Leukel, 2016-12-05 Is the world created by a divine creator Or is it the constant product of karmic forces The issue of creation was at the heart of the classic controversies between Buddhism and Hindu Theism In modern times it can be found at the centre of many polemical debates between Buddhism and Christianity Is this the principal barrier that separates Buddhism from Christianity and other theistic religions The contributions to Part One explore the various aspects of traditional and contemporary Buddhist objections against the idea of a divine creator as well as Christian possibilities to meet the Buddhist critique Part Two asks for the potential truth on both sides and suggests a surprising way that the barrier might be overcome This opens a new round of philosophical and theological dialogue between these two major traditions with challenging insights for both Contributors Jos I Cabezn John P Keenan Armin Kreiner Aasulv Lande John D Arcy May Eva K Neumaier Perry Schmidt Leukel Ernst Steinkellner

Buddhist Christianity Ross Thompson, 2010-08-27 It is possible to be a Christian Buddhist in the context of a universal belief that sits fairly lightly on both traditions Ross Thompson takes especially seriously the aspects of each faith that seem incompatible with the other no God and no soul in Buddhism for example and the need for grace and the historical atonement on the cross in Christianity Buddhist Christianity can be no bland blend of the tamer aspects of both faiths but must result from a wrestling of the seeming incompatibles allowing each faith to shake the other to its very foundations The author traces his personal journey through which his need for both faiths became painfully apparent He explores the Buddha and Jesus through their teachings and the varied communities that flow from them investigating their different understandings of suffering and wrong self and liberation meditation and prayer cosmology and God or not He concludes with a bold commitment to both faiths

The Emptied Christ of Philippians John P. Keenan, 2015-12-15 Before the Gospels were written long before the creeds of the Church were hammered out Christ followers in Philippi sang a hymn of the Christ who although he was in the form of God emptied himself taking the form of a slave being born as are all humans But this emptied Christ never fit neatly into later theologies of the church shaped by Greek thought concerned with being and essence In Philippians Paul struggles stumbling over his own awkward words to express his hope his eschatological faith that he might gain Christ and be found in him and participate in his sufferings by being conformed to his death if in some way I may reach to what goes beyond the resurrection from the dead Might we better comprehend Paul's inchoate even mystical faith in Jesus Christ with aid from a less empirical Theology as Improvisation Nathan Crawford,2013-02-15 In Theology as Improvisation Nathan Crawford reimagines the possibilities for how theology thinks God within a postmodern world He argues that theology is improvisation by analyzing the nature of attunement within theological thinking and how this opens certain possibilities for theology He does so by engaging a number of thinkers including Martin Heidegger Jacques Derrida David Tracy and Saint Augustine He navigates the nature of thinking God in a postmodern world by using these thinkers to offer critiques of onto theological thinking and totalizing systems while also following their embrace of the fragment and focus upon the nature of thinking as attunement The result is a unique way of approaching theological thinking in our contemporary context The Divine Quest, East and West James L. Ford,2016-01-28 Many books have discussed the development of the notion of God in Western monotheistic traditions but how have non Western cultures conceptualized what those in the West might identify as God What might be learned by comparing different visions of the Divine such as God gods Brahman Nirvana and Emptiness James L Ford engages these fascinating questions exploring notions of the Divine or Ultimate Reality within Jewish Christian Hindu and Buddhist traditions Looking at a multiplicity of divine conceptions even within traditions Ford discusses the relationship between imagination and revelation in the emergence of visions of ultimacy consequences and tendencies associated with particular notions of the Ultimate and how new visions of the Ultimate arise in relation to social cultural political and scientific developments Ford reflects on what can be learned through an awareness of the various beliefs about the Ultimate and on how such disparate visions influence the attitudes and behavior of people in different parts of the world Deep Religious Pluralism David Ray Griffin,2005-01-01 A groundbreaking scholarly work Deep Religious Pluralism is based on the conviction that the philosophy articulated by Alfred North Whitehead encourages not only religious diversity but deep religious pluralism Arising from a 2003 Center for Process Studies conference at Claremont Graduate University this book offers an alternative to the version of religious pluralism that has dominated the recent discussion especially among Christian thinkers in the West which has evoked a growing call to reject pluralism as such Renowned contributors of a diversity of faiths include Steve Odin John Shunji Yakota Sandra B Lubarsky Jeffery D Long Mustafa Ruzgar Christopher Ives Michael Lodahl Chung ying Cheng Wang Shik Jang and John B Cobb Jr Buddhism and Islam Kieko Obuse,2024-11-04 Buddhist Muslim relations are usually seen as inherently confrontational This book challenges the view of Buddhism and Islam as fundamentally irreconcilable by exploring the diverse ways representatives of the two traditions have engaged each other in Southeast Asia the global frontstage of contemporary Buddhist Muslim relations and Japan a Buddhist majority country whose Islam policy played a significant role in its surge to global power status It investigates the processes through which mutual perceptions and discourses have developed in response to shifting socio political circumstances and via the intellectual interventions of leading personalities

Evil and Evolution: A Theodicy Richard W. Kropf, 2004-08-18 First published in 1984 and recently revised and updated this book deals with the problem of evil or theodicy God's justice It contends that the process of evolution particularly as it bears on the emergence of free will rather than being a barrier to faith gives us the key to understanding its greatest obstacle the existence of so much suffering in the world It further advances the still contested claim that God is truly our fellow sufferer in our struggle to overcome evil in all of its many forms
