Graham Ralph Pite, Hester Jones, 2004-01-01 Elizabeth A Kaye specializes in communications as part of her coaching and consulting practice She has edited Requirements for Certification since the 2000 01 edition The Landscapes of W. H. Auden's Interwar Poetry Ladislav Vít, 2021-12-14 This is the first book length study foregrounding Auden's sense of place as a means for enhancing our grasp of this crucial twentieth century poet Proposing that Auden had a remarkable spatial sensibility this book concentrates on his treatment of his homeland England as well as the North Pennines and Iceland both of which served as his good places holy grounds and sources of topophilic sentiment The readings draw on the scholarship of humanistic geography tracing patterns of mental constructs which emerge from spatial experience In a scholarly but engaging way this book argues that focusing on Auden's poetics of place as it emerged and evolved can be instrumental to our understanding of this influential poet not only in relation to his epoch but also to the Anglophone poetic tradition Precisely because of his stature these elaborations on Auden's preoccupation with places escapism borders and local identity promise to enrich our understanding of the cultural and intellectual climate of the interwar period when established notions of local places and cultures were beginning to be contested by internationalisation This study will be of interest to both academics and students in the field of Anglophone literary studies while also appealing to those attracted to Auden's poetry interwar culture and the literary representation of space Romanticism, Memory, and Mourning Dr Mark Sandy, 2013-12-28 The subject of Romanticism Memory and Mourning could not be timelier with i ek's recent proclamation that we are living in the end times and in an era which is preoccupied with the process and consequences of ageing We mourn both for our pasts and futures as we now recognise that history is a continuation and record of loss Mark Sandy explores the treatment of grief loss and death across a variety of Romantic poetic forms including the ballad sonnet epic elegy fragment romance and ode in the works of poets as diverse as Smith Hemans Blake Wordsworth Coleridge Byron Shelley Keats and Clare Romantic meditations on grief however varied in form and content are self consciously aware of the complexity and strength of feelings surrounding the consolation or disconsolation that their structures of poetic memory

afford those who survive the imaginary and actual dead Romantic mourning Sandy shows finds expression in disparate poetic forms and how it manifests itself both as the spirit of its age rooted in precise historical conditions and as a proleptic power of lasting transhistorical significance Romantic meditations on grief and loss speak to our contemporary anxieties about the inevitable but unthinkable event of death itself Grasmere 2008: Selected papers from the Wordsworth Summer

Women and Children First Robin Miskolcze, 2007-12-01 At a crucial time in American history narratives of women in command or imperiled at sea contributed to the construction of a national rhetoric Robin Miskolcze makes her case by way of careful readings of images of women at sea before the Civil War in her book Women and Children First Though the sea has traditionally been interpreted as the province of men women have gone to sea as mothers wives figureheads and slaves In fact in the nineteenth century women at sea contributed to the formation of an ethics of survival that helped to define American ideals This study examines often for the first time images of women at sea in antebellum narratives ranging from novels and sermons to newspaper accounts and lithographs Anglo American women in antebellum sea narratives are often portrayed as models of American ideals derived from women's seemingly innate Christian self sacrifice Miskolcze argues that these ideals in conjunction with the maritime directive of women and children first during sea disasters in turn defined a new masculine individualism one that was morally minded rooted in Christian principles and dedicated to preserving virtue Further Miskolcze contends that without the antebellum sea narratives portraying the Christian self sacrifice of women the abolitionist cause would have suffered African American women appealed to the directive of women and children first to make manifest their own womanhood and by extension their own humanity

At the Bottom of Shakespeare's Ocean Steve Mentz, 2009-10-10 We need a poetic history of the ocean and Shakespeare can help us find one There's more real salt in the plays than we might expect Shakespeare's dramatic ocean spans the God sea of the ancient world and the immense blue vistas that early modern mariners navigated Throughout his career from the opening shipwrecks of The Comedy of Errors through The Tempest Shakespeare's plays figure the ocean as shocking physical reality and mind twisting symbol of change and instability To fathom Shakespeare's ocean to go down to its bottom this book's chapters focus on different things that humans do with and in and near the sea fathoming keeping watch swimming beachcombing fishing and drowning Mentz also sets Shakespeare's sea poetry against modern literary sea scapes including the vast Pacific of Moby Dick the rocky coast of Charles Olson's Maximus Poems and the lyrical waters of the postcolonial Caribbean Uncovering the depths of Shakespeare's maritime world this book draws out the centrality of the sea in our literary culture
