Thomas, 2015-05-21 African traditional religion encompasses a variety of non dogmatic spiritual practices followed by millions around the world Some scholars argue it is related to the Nubian religion of Egypt's Dynastic Period In an expanded second edition this book examines the nature of African traditional religion and describes common attributes of various cultural belief systems with an emphasis on West Africa Principal elements studied include sacrifice salvation and culture modes of revelation divination and African resilience in the face of invasion and colonization The religious experiences of black people throughout the Americas are also covered The author finds the cosmology symbolism and rituals of the Yoruba culture to be the fundamental bases of African traditional religion and draws similarities between the oral and written literature of West Africans and that of New World practitioners The influence of Islam and Christianity is also discussed Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here The Holy City Sir William Thomas Charley, 1902 City of Demons Dayna S. Kalleres, 2015-10-13 Although it would appear in studies of late antique ecclesiastical authority and power that scholars have covered everything an important aspect of the urban bishop has long been neglected his role as demonologist and exorcist When the emperor

Constantine made Christianity the official religion of the realm bishops and priests everywhere struggled to Christianize the urban spaces still dominated by Greco Roman monuments and festivals During this period of upheaval when congregants seemingly attended everything but their own orthodox church many ecclesiastical leaders began simultaneously to promote aggressive and insidious depictions of the demonic In City of Demons Dayna S Kalleres investigates this developing discourse and the church sponsored rituals that went along with it showing how shifting ecclesiastical demonologies and evolving practices of exorcism profoundly shaped Christian life in the fourth century Jerusalem and Its Environs, Or, The Holy City as it was and is William King Tweedie,1860 The Holy City, Athens and Egypt Sir William Thomas Charley,1902 The Divine Mystery Allen Upward,1915 The Devine Mystery Allen Upward,1915 The Divine Mystery Allen Upward,2013-11-08 Mr Allen Upward better known to fame as a war correspondent has attempted to give us a reading of the history of Christianity down to the time of Christ and however much we may disagree with some of his conclusions we must at least applaud the sincerity and the originality as well as the erudition of his effort Mr Upward finds in the dawn of Christianity a story that has been told mystically from age to age Its words and signs are inherited from a primeval language from prehistoric peoples and from tales that are still the Bible of the peasant and the child It is he says a recrystallization of universal fears and hopes carried out in the crucible of a planetary heat wave whose coming had been more or less distinctly felt by a series of true prophets from Zoroaster to John the Baptist Mr Upward believes that Christ was an historical personage but that the story of his life is an allegorical repetition of the greater story that is as old as the world it self To this end he collects all the threads of folklore within his reach all the superstitions that perhaps are not superstitions and that tend to show the stirrings of a higher consciousness and knowledge that culminates in the genius and the savior If sometimes he seems to be inadequate or superficial we must remember the greatness the almost incredible magnitude of the quarries from which he hews A Reader for the First - Eighth Grades Clarence Franklin Carroll,Sarah Catherine Brooks,1912
