Lewis, Ch Pellat, J. Schacht, 1967 Muslim Endowments and Society in British India Gregory C. Kozlowski, 2008-10-30 Dr Kozlowski's important study pioneers a fresh approach to the study of a critical Muslim institution the endowments or awqaf which almost everywhere in the Islamic world provide support for mosques schools and shrines The wealthier Muslims who establish endowments inevitably have an eye on social political and economic conditions and have traditionally used awqaf as part of an effort to preserve their wealth and influence especially in periods of change and uncertainty The book focuses on the use of endowments by Muslims suffering the dislocations caused by the imposition of British rule in India and examines in detail the social and political implications of the controversy over endowments that took place in the imperial courts and councils The author's observations and insights can be applied to many periods and places in the Muslim world and his novel approach will attract all those interested in the study of Islam The Oxford Handbook of Jewish Studies Martin Goodman, Jeremy Cohen, David Sorkin, 2002 This volume on Jewish studies presents surveys of today's interests and directions in the humanities and social sciences It covers the main areas taught and researched as part of Jewish studies in universities throughout the world especially in Europe the US and Israel The Encyclopedia of Missions Edwin Munsell Bliss, Henry Otis Dwight, Henry Allen Tupper, 1904 The Encyclopaedia of Islam, 1960 The Shaping Shaikh Dejan Aždajić, 2020-01-20 Islam is more than a system of rigid doctrines and normative principles It is a diverse mosaic of subjective often contradictory interpretations and discrepant applications that prohibit a narrow one dimensional approach This book argues that to uncover this complex reality and achieve a more accurate understanding of Islam as a lived religion it is imperative to consider Islam from the point of view of human beings who practice their faith. Consequently this book provides an important contribution through a detailed ethnographic study of two contemporary Sufi communities. Although both groups shared much in common there was a fundamental almost perplexing range of theological convictions and ritual implementations. This book explores the mechanism that accounts for such diversity arguing for a direct correlation between Sufi multiformity and the agency of the spiritual leader the Shaikh. Empirical research regarding the authority by which Shaikhs subjectively generate legitimate adaptations that shape the contours of religious belief are lacking. This study is significant because it focuses on how leadership operates in Sufism highlighting the primacy of the Shaikh in the selection and appropriation of inherited norms.
