Bauman,2011-10-26 hared memories bind families and friends together Not least important among these are memories of stories songs and poems repeated often and incorporated into everyday thought and expression The child who grows up unaware of literature of the past is surely impoverished To fill this vacuum with the deluge of current song lyrics and drama from television and movies is scarcely a satisfactory solution We heard many of the poems assembled here from our mothers and have often read or recited most of these to our children The volumes from which they came are falling apart and long since out of print or too bulky for convenient handling Thus we saw the need for a compact selection Although from a variety of scattered sources we leaned heavily on a collection that appeared early in the 20th century in the magazine Normal Instructor Primary Plans subsequently published as Poems Teachers Ask For by F A Owen Publishing Company of Danville N Y Many of the poems such as the Mother Goose rhymes are no longer attributable to individuals and are heard in different versions Where authors are known we have given the name and have adhered to original words spelling and punctuation In the very few instances in which wording has been changed an asterisk has been placed by the authors name and the changes noted at the end of the book Since the collection was first assembled our own grandchildren have become the readers rather than the read to Yet to our knowledge no substantial body of new poetry has come along to take the place of these traditional works that range from light fancy to the joys and perils of growing up and the heroism of those who came before us Thus these out of date poems may be even more important to the children of the 21st century than to those for whom they were originally compiled This small collection ranges from familiar nursery rhymes to somber works on the struggles and valor of our forebearers It is our hope that these poems may bring mirth joy and an appreciation of our heritage to new generations of children and to their parents and grandparents The Amazing Foot Race of 1921 Shirley Jean (Roll) Tucker,2011-03-15 READ ALL ABOUT IT Hikers to Walk From East Coast to Vancouver Canadians have long been fascinated with trekkers who conquered this country sea to sea from John Hugh Gillis in 1906 to Terry Fox in 1980 to Rick Hansen in 1985 This adventure tale celebrates five Canadians who hiked from Halifax to Vancouver in 1921 For a nation struggling with post war inflation labour unrest and unemployment the prospect of the 3 645 mile hike was a welcome distraction Daily reports from the competitors who followed the CPR tracks ran in the Halifax Herald and in other newspapers and it wasn t long before the race had become a national obsession to rival today s Amazing Race television series or the Tour de France Bands played Crowds cheered People placed their bets By the time they were done all five competitors had turned Canada walking crazy This story about men and women with modern day derring do is told in the vernacular of the day with newspaper accounts and over 50 photographs Kathleen Maurice Leonard,2012-02-29 Kathleen Ferrier has a reputation as the greatest lyric contralto of the twentieth century Her story from her humble beginnings as a telephone operator in Blackburn to the height of international fame as one of the world s leading concert artists and her untimely death at the age of forty one is told with compelling insight and perception using a variety of sources from photographs diaries and private letters to the memoirs and recollections of those who knew her best Despite having no formal musical training Kathleen worked with all the celebrated conductors of the time and is remembered for her performances of music by Brahms Schubert and Mahler as well as a handful of operatic roles Enlarging considerably on many alternative biographies this excellent account captures the warmth humour and charm of a figure whose astonishing life and career proved to be sadly all too brief
